WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by an Order, made on the sixth day of March last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council for cities, towns, districts, or divisions of England and Wales, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of every parish or place within such city, town, district, or division, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of the necessary expences, not defrayed from charitable funds, and a request for the money to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of sixty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the parish of Newark-upon-Trent, to the vestry of the said parish, and such vestry hath declined to give authority or directions to the Board of Health, and to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, certain of the expences contained in the estimate and statement so submitted by the said Board of Health for the parish of Newark-upon-Trent to the vestry of such parish as aforesaid:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order of the sixth day of March last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences, to be fixed and declared by such select or parish vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the parish of Newark-upon-Trent, and the sum of sixty pounds; and that the said Board of Health for the said parish of Newark-upon-Trent shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to, make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make an order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of Newark-upon-Trent, commanding them to pay the said sum of sixty pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish, which order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money, in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act and to the present Order:

And the Lords of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, parish officers, guardians of the poor, district churchwardens, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

THE following Addresses to the King were this day presented to His Majesty at the Levee, and graciously received:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the city of Edinburgh, beg leave to approach your royal person with the expression of our most ardent and devoted attachment.

It was with feelings of the utmost horror and indignation that we heard of the late atrocious and treasonable attack upon the sacred person of your Majesty; and while we therefore now feel it peculiarly incumbent upon us to come forward with a declaration of our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty, we cannot but deplore that there should have occurred, during your Majesty's reign, an event so disgraceful in itself, and so repugnant to the feelings of a loyal and affectionate nation.

That your Majesty's life may be long preserved to your faithful subjects, and that the blessings which, through Divine Providence, they enjoy under your Majesty's beneficent sway, may be transmitted to the latest posterity, are the fervent prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at a public general meeting of the Inhabitants of Edinburgh, held in George-street Assembly-rooms this 26th day of June 1832.

We humbly tender to your Majesty our unfeigned and heartfelt congratulations on your providential escape from such a diabolical and wicked assault, accompanied by the renewed expression of our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's most sacred person, and our fervent prayer to Divine Providence that your Majesty may be long spared to sway the sceptre over, and reign in the affections of a loyal and grateful people.

Signed in our name, and presence, and by our appointment, and the common seal of the said city is hereto affixed, this 2d day of July, 1832.

We unfeignedly rejoice that, by the blessing of Divine Providence, your Majesty has been preserved from danger so imminent, and escaped an attack so flagitious, without injury; and, while we are deeply sensible of the manifold blessings and privileges, enjoyed under the mild and paternal government of your Majesty, we lament and deplore that there should be found in the British dominions an individual capable of an outrage so atrocious and disgraceful to human nature.

That it may please Almighty God to bless, protect, and long preserve your Majesty, and to watch over a life so precious to these kingdoms, is the prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's devoted and attached subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the city of Edinburgh.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment, and the seal of the city is hereto affixed, at Edinburgh the 25th day of June, 1832 years.

We most sincerely congratulate your Majesty, that a kind and beneficent Providence, anticipating the prayers, and watching over the interests of the nation, whose happiness and blessing it is to have been placed under your paternal sway, should have interposed to protect your Majesty from harm on

The humble, loyal, and unanimous Address of the Inhabitants of Teignmouth, in the County of Devon, in meeting assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, have heard with great grief of the insult offered to your Majesty's sacred person on the Race-ground at Ascot.

Whilst we lament that there should be one inhabitant of this favoured country, who could have been led, from any motive, to commit so flagrant an outrage against the feelings which a Briton must ever feel towards Britain's King. We must express our joy at the assurance that it was the act of one individual only, unconnected with any cabal or party to give deeper importance to the act.

The richest and the poorest of the inhabitants of this town unite in offering their sincere congratulations on your Majesty's deliverance from a danger which might have been productive of worse effects. And at the same time implore the protection of the same Almighty Hand, which then preserved your royal person, to defend and to bless your Majesty throughout the remainder of your days.

Dated 25th June, 1832.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects, the Principal and Professors of the University of Edinburgh, beg leave to approach the throne, and to lay at your Majesty's feet the unfeigned expression of our deep detestation of the recent traitorous assault made on your Majesty's sacred person; and we respectfully convey to your Majesty the assurance of our entire conviction, that this atrocious act of a single malicious individual, has excited one universal feeling of reprobation and horror throughout the whole population of that vast Empire over which your Majesty exercises so paternal and beneficent a sway.

While we shudder at the imminent peril to which the life of your Majesty, so valuable, and so deservedly endeared to the nation, was exposed on the occasion, we offer our fervent thanksgivings to the Almighty King of kings, who mercifully protected and has preserved your Majesty to continue, we devoutly pray and trust, for many years, in the enlightened and patriotic discharge of those royal functions, which are essential at once to the liberty, prosperity, and happiness of these realms.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Inhabitants of the City of St. Andrew's, publicly convened within the Town Hall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of this your ancient city of St. Andrew's, humbly approach the Throne, to express our indignation at the atrocious assault recently made upon your sacred person, and at the daring insult thereby offered to the supreme authority of the State.

We deeply deplore that an event so shocking to the feelings of Britons should have occurred to stain the annals of our country. We cordially share the general joy and gratitude for the Divine protection, which happily frustrated the audacious and treasonable design; and while we beg leave to convey to the Throne the assurance of our devoted attachment to your royal person and to your illustrious house, we devoutly implore Almighty God to pour down upon your Majesty his richest blessings, and to defend from every danger the life of a Monarch, who reigns in the affections of a great and loyal people.

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Inhabitants of Bridgwater and its Neighbourhood, unanimously agreed to at a public meeting convened for that purpose, by Joseph Ruscombe Poole, Esq. Mayor of Bridgwater, on Monday the 2d day of July 1832.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of Bridgwater and its Neighbourhood, humbly present to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's providential escape from a late daring and atrocious outrage.

We cannot forbear to express our horror and indignation that any person could be found within your Majesty's dominions so abandoned as to offer any insult to your Majesty's sacred person.

We beg to offer to your Majesty the sincere expression of our steady loyalty and devoted attachment to your Majesty's royal person, crown, and dignity.

And we anxiously pray to Almighty God, that He will watch over and protect a life so justly dear and valuable to all your Majesty's subjects.

Signed on behalf of the meeting,

J. R. Poole, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh, beg leave to convey to your Majesty the expression of our fervent loyalty and affection, and of those sentiments with which, in common with all classes of men in this country, we have heard of the late daring outrage on your royal person.

It was with the greatest surprise and regret that we were informed of there being one man in this kingdom, so destitute of every feeling of loyal attachment to your Majesty, as to be deliberately guilty of such a crime.

We feel, however, much satisfaction, in reflecting, that the guilt rests exclusively with an individual, and that his conduct is loudly and unequivocally condemned by the universal voice of the British nation.

We beg to congratulate your Majesty on having escaped, without any serious or permanent consequences,

That your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous reign, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects.

Signed by order, and on behalf of the Royal College of Surgeons of the City of Edinburgh, and the Seal of the College affixed thereto.

John Gardiner, M. D., President.
Edinburgh, 28th June 1832.

To His Most Excellent Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, KING of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the City of Perth.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and most dutiful subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the city and royal burgh of Perth, beg leave to approach your Majesty, with a renewed expression of our devoted loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's person and government, and to express our extreme abhorrence at the brutal and disgraceful attack which was lately made upon your Majesty's person, which has excited in the minds of your Majesty's subjects, in the community over which we preside, only one feeling of indignation and disgust. We beg to assure your Majesty, that we shall be ever ready to protect and defend your Majesty's person, and to enforce, support, and maintain the laws of your great empire; and we fervently pray that your Majesty may, by the blessing of God, be long preserved to reign over a free, happy, and virtuous people.

Signed by the Lord Provost, in name and by appointment of the Council, and the seal of the city appended, at Perth, the 26th day of June, 1832 years.

John Wright, Lord Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the parish of Banbury, in public meeting assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with feelings of the most devoted attachment to your person and government, and to express our unfeigned sorrow and indignation that any one of your subjects should be found so depraved as to attack your Majesty's sacred person, and endanger a life so valuable to your subjects.

We have, however, the satisfaction, while we express our utter abhorrence of so atrocious an attack, most confidently to assure your Majesty, that it is not to be attributed to a spirit of disaffection among any portion of your Majesty's subjects, who are, on the contrary, deeply attached to your person and government, and conscious of the great blessings derived from your liberal and paternal sway; and we beg most cordially to congratulate your Majesty on your happy escape from the hand of an assassin, and trust that you may long be preserved to reign over a free and grateful people.

Chas. Brickwell, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Wellington, in the county of Somerset, most humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with our assurances of devoted attachment to your Majesty's person and government, and to express our unfeigned abhorrence at the late attempt upon your Majesty's sacred life.

We console ourselves, however, in the conviction, that no other individual can be found, enjoying the blessings of your Majesty's paternal government, capable of designing or attempting to execute so diabolical an act; and, while we gratefully acknowledge the interposition of Providence that has preserved your Majesty on the late occasion, we humbly confide in the same protecting Power to secure to your Majesty a long and prosperous reign in the hearts of your truly loyal and devoted subjects.

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Berwick, assembled at a general meeting, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the expression of our cordial congratulations, in the preservation of your Majesty from the danger to which your Majesty was lately exposed, from an act of atrocious violence, so daringly directed against your Majesty's sacred person.

with the prosperity of the empire, over which your Majesty's family has now long and gloriously reigned.

We trust that under your Majesty's benignant sway the British constitution will continue unimpaired, and that our many inestimable national privileges will be bequeathed unchanged, to future generations.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Justices of the Peace of your Majesty's county of Somerset, in Quarter Sessions assembled beg to approach your Majesty with the assurance of the sincere loyalty and attachment which we feel towards your Majesty.

We have learnt, with the deepest regret, that any individual could be found within this kingdom so depraved as to make an assault on your Majesty's sacred person, and we entreat your Majesty to believe, that we view this atrocious crime with abhorrence and detestation.

That your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a devoted and loyal people, is the ardent prayer of your Majesty's faithful subjects.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Minister, Churchwardens, and Inhabitants of the parish of Clifton, in the county of Gloucester, humbly approach your royal person, with our unfeigned and heartfelt congratulations on the signal interposition of Divine Providence in averting the danger which so lately threatened your Majesty's invaluable life ; an interposition which has afforded satisfaction and joy to all your faithful subjects.

Permit us, Sire, at the same time to offer our warmest congratulations to your illustrious Consort, our Most Gracious Queen, upon the failure of the atrocious and treasonable attempt against your Majesty's royal person, and with the expression of our unshaken loyalty, to add our fervent prayers, that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous over a free, happy, and united people.

WE, your Majesty's ever loyal subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the parish of Tunbridge and its vicinity, humbly approach your Majesty, with feelings of the utmost indignation, excited by the violent outrage lately committed against your Majesty's sacred person, and which, but for the merciful interposition of Divine Providence, would have plunged this nation into the deepest affliction.

Humbly, but ardently, do we come forward to express our abhorrence of the idea of seeking redress of grievance by force and violence, and of this atrocious act, and to tender to your most gracious Majesty the assurance of our unabated loyalty and allegiance, accompanied with the sincere prayer, that the same Divine Providence will continue to watch over and protect your Majesty, and your Majesty's most amiable and royal Consort, and long preserve to these realms a beloved Monarch, whose brightest glory rests in the people's welfare.

While we gratefully and devoutly acknowledge the Divine favour, so signally manifested to these realms, in the preservation of your Majesty's person, we fervently and heartily pray to Almighty God that He may be graciously pleased in His mercy ever to protect and bless your Majesty, and long to continue in health and in happiness a life so justly dear to all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

WE, for ourselves, and representing our Constituents, inspired with feelings of the sincerest attachment to your Most Gracious Majesty, presume to approach you, to deplore the flagitious and perilous outrage to which your most sacred person was lately exposed at Ascot Heath.

We very deeply lament that any one should have been found within your Majesty's dominions capable of perpetrating such an atrocious and highly treasonable crime.

We offer up our heartfelt thanks to Almighty God for His providential care of your Majesty, and most loyally attached to your Majesty's person, family, and government, we fervently pray that the King of kings may shed down on your Majesty His choicest blessings, and render your reign long, prosperous, and happy.

Being duly sensible of the numerous blessings which we enjoy under the just and mild reign of your Majesty, we most fervently pray that it may be the will of Almighty God to continue to watch over and protect a life so justly dear to us, and to all our other loyal subjects, and to vouchsafe to your Majesty the inestimable blessings of health and happiness that you may live for many years to sway the destinies and reign in the hearts of a free, loyal, happy, and united people.

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the borough of Liverpool, in Common Council assembled, at all times anxious for the safety and preservation of your Majesty's royal person, feel ourselves called upon, at the present crisis, to address your Majesty, and to offer our sincere congratulations on your providential escape from the treasonable attack made upon your Majesty's sacred person by a daring and ruffian hand.

We lament that there should exist a character so abandoned as to be capable of offering insult to the person of a sovereign, to whom we are bound, by every tie of loyalty and allegiance, and whilst we beg to renew the assurance of our unshaken fidelity, and attachment to your Majesty, and thankfully acknowledge, in your late preservation from danger, the hand of Him "who alone is mighty to save."— we earnestly hope, and pray, that the same Omnipotent Power will continue to protect you, and grant you, Sir, long to reign over a faithful and loyal people, in uninterrupted health, happiness, and security.

THE following Addresses to the King, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Magistrates of the county of Dorset, in Quarter Sessions assembled, beg leave to offer our sincere congratulations to your Majesty, on your providential escape from the late atrocious outrage on your royal person. From a firm loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's royal house, we trust, that a superintending Providence, will continue to protect your valuable life from open violence and secret treason, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign over us, and be the protector of our laws and constitution, which have hitherto been the admiration and envy of the civilized world.

C. B. Woollaton, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the borough of Evesham, humbly beg leave to approach and to congratulate your Majesty on your recent escape from a most atrocious and treasonable attack upon your Majesty's most sacred person and life, attempted by a ruffian when your Majesty was surrounded by your loyal subjects.

Truly may we say, that the hand of Providence was interposed to preserve a life of such unappreciable value,

That your Majesty may long be preserved to be a blessing to your people, is the earnest and sincere prayer of your Majesty's loyal and affectionate subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the borough of Evesham.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in Guild assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, beg leave in all humility and gratitude to approach the Throne with our sincere congratulations on the providential escape from the late atrocious and treasonable attack made on the person of your Majesty.

It is, however, some consolation to your Majesty's dutiful subjects to reflect, that it appears to have been the isolated attempt of an obscure individual, and that the occasion, though so much to be regretted, gave to your Majesty's subjects then and there assembled, an opportunity of expressing spontaneously alike, their indignation at so flagitious an act, and their warm feelings of attachment and loyalty to your Majesty's royal person.

We humbly pray to Almighty God that He may long preserve and shield from all dangers your sacred person, and prolong a reign, under whose patriotic and parental government we have received, and hope to enjoy, the manifold benefits so recently bestowed on us.

Given under our common seal, this 3d day of July, in the third year of your Majesty's reign.

J. Langhom, Mayor.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Presbytery of Ayr, met at Ayr, the 4th day of July 1832.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Ayr, met this day in Presbytery, humbly approach the Throne, to express our heartfelt joy at the failure of the late atrocious attempt on your Majesty's person and life; and our earnest prayer that Almighty God, whose watchful Providence we devoutly recognize in His care of your Majesty, may long preserve your valuable life, and multiply from year to year, the blessings of your reign.

We deeply deplore that any subject of the empire has been capable of assaulting your Majesty. But we have the satisfaction of thinking, that every where feelings of indignation and horror at his daring attempt are expressed.

Attachment to your Majesty, and submission to the laws, we hold to be characteristic of Britons. And we beg with all humility, to renew our assurances to your Majesty, that it shall be our constant endeavour to teach the people committed to our charge "to be subject to principalities and powers," and to "lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty."

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment, by Alexr. Hill, Moderator.

To His Most Excellent Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the royal burgh of Aberbrothock, participating in the sentiments of abhorrence with which the recent atrocious attack on your Majesty's sacred person has been viewed throughout the nation, beg leave to wait upon your Majesty with our hearty congratulations on the providential escape made by your Majesty from the hands of a ruthless assassin. Assassination, under any circumstances, is a crime at which the people of these realms turn away with horror. Much more would they have revolted from the unhallowed deed, if it had been perpetrated on the person of a Monarch, endeared above all his predecessors in the hearts of his faithful subjects. And that your Majesty may long be preserved to reign over a free, a loyal, and a grateful people, is our most ardent supplication.

Signed in our names, convened in council, and by our appointment, and the common seal of the said burgh hereto annexed, by

Jas. Kay, Provost.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the meeting, at Haddington, this 6th day of July 1832.
