

Sect. 48.—And in lieu of the two Mondays next preceding the fifteenth day of September in the present year, by the said Act appointed for fixing on the Guildhall, and Royal Exchange of the city of London the list according to the form numbered (2.) in the said schedule (K.), His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, doth appoint the two Mondays next preceding the fifteenth day of October in the present year.

Sect. 48.—And in lieu of the ten days next preceding the fifteenth day of September in the present year, appointed by the said Act for the perusal of the copy of the names of persons claiming as freemen and liverymen, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, doth appoint the ten days next preceding the fifteenth day of October in the present year.

Sect. 50.—And in lieu of the fifteenth day of September inclusive, and the twenty-fifth day of October inclusive, in the present year, being the days between which the barristers are by the said Act to hold their courts for revising the lists of voters for cities and boroughs, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, doth appoint the 15th day of October inclusive, and the twenty-fifth day of November inclusive, in the present year.

And His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, in further pursuance of the power vested in His Majesty by the said Act, doth, both as to counties, ridings, parts, and divisions of counties, and as to cities and boroughs, and places sharing in the election therewith, order and appoint as follows; (that is to say,)

Sect. 51.—In lieu of the first day of June and the last day of July in the present year, being the days between which the overseers are by the said Act empowered to inspect or make extracts from any duplicate or tax assessment, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, doth appoint the twelfth day of July and the last day of August in the present year.

And in lieu of the twenty-fifth day of October in the present year, being the day after which no adjourned court can be held by any barrister under the said Act, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, doth appoint the twenty-fifth day of November in the present year.

Sect. 54.—And in lieu of the last day of October in the present year, being the day on or before which the clerk of the peace is by the said Act required to cause the lists of voters for his respective county, or for the riding, parts, or division of his county, to be copied into a book, and to complete and deliver such book as in the said Act is directed, and being also the day on or before which the returning officer for every city or borough is by the said Act required to cause the lists of voters for such city or borough to be copied into a book, and completed, as in the said Act is directed, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, doth appoint the first day of December in the present year.

Sect. 54.—And in lieu of the last day of October in the present year, being the day from and after which every book so to be completed as aforesaid, is by the said Act directed to be in force as the register of electors, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, doth appoint the first day of December in the present year as the day from and after which every such book so to be completed as aforesaid shall be deemed the register of the electors to vote, after the end of the present Parliament, in the choice of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament at any election which may take place after the first day of December in the present year, and before the first day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three.
