FRIDAY, JULY 27, 1832.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th day of July 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by an Order, made on the sixth day of March last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one); it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council for cities, towns, districts, or divisions of England and Wales, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of every parish or place within such city, town, district, or division, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better regulating the poor, maintaining a nightly watch, lighting, paving, and cleansing the streets, rows, and passages; providing fire-engines and firemen, and regulating the hackney coachmen, chairmen, carmen, and porters within the city of Chester," it is, amongst things, enacted, that the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, being justices of the peace, of the said city and county of the said city, for the time being, and also such charitable persons who shall from time to time be elected under the powers therein contained, and also the respective numbers therein following of the inhabitants of the said city, elected in the manner thereinafter directed, that is to say, twelve for each of the parishes of Saint John Baptist, Saint Mary on the Hill, and Saint Oswald; eight for each of the parishes of Saint Peter, the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Saint Bridget, and Saint Michael; and three for each of the parishes of Saint Martin and Saint Olave, all within the said city and county of the same, or so many of such inhabitants as should from time to time be so elected, should be and were thereby declared to be incorporated by the name of "the guardians of the poor within the city and county of the city of Chester," and empowering such guardians and the governors of the said corporation to order and direct any money to be rated and raised by and out of the said separate parishes for the relief and employment of the poor thereof, and to apportion and settle the part or share of all such money and arrears, which shall be raised and paid by each parish, according to the number of each of their poor, and requiring the churchwardens and overseers of each such parish to levy the same by assessment, in the manner therein directed.

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient, in order to carry into effect the purposes of the before-recited Act, and of the Order of their Lordships before mentioned, in the most convenient manner within the said city and county of the city of Chester, that the Board of Health for such city and county should be empowered and authorised to apply for all the necessary powers and expences to the governors and guardians of the poor for such city and county, in lieu and stead of applying to the vestries of the several parishes and townships therein:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), that the Board of Health constituted for the said city and county of the city of Chester, shall and may apply to the clerk of the said corporation to convene a general meeting of the said governors and guardians of the poor for the said city and county (which court the said clerk is hereby commanded and directed forthwith to convene); and the said Board of Health, by their chairman or secretary, shall and may submit proposals, accounts, and estimates to such court, and apply for the necessary powers and authorities, and for a certain sum of money to defray the reasonable expences, delivering their proposals to such governors and guardians of the poor of the said city and county, in the place and stead of making any such application to the vestries of the several incorporated parishes, as in the before-recited Order mentioned; and the said governors and guardians of the poor for the said city and county shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered (if they think proper so to do) to confer upon the Board of Health of the said city all or any of the powers and authorities mentioned in the said Order of their Lordships; and the said governors and guardians of the poor for the said city and county are further ordered and directed to ascertain and fix the amount of the sum to be allowed for carrying into effect the purposes of the before-recited Act, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon, in the place and stead of the vestries in the before-recited Order mentioned, and to use and exercise all other the functions and powers given by such Order of their Lordships to select or parish vestries:

And for all acts, deeds, matters, and things, properly done by such governors and guardians of the poor of the said city and county, and by such Board of Health and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 23^d day of July 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas by another Act, passed in the same second year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act for altering and amending an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is amongst other things enacted, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, so to be made as in the said before mentioned Act provided, or sanctioned after they are incurred by any such Order, shall, whenever the occasion of such expence has arisen within any city, burgh, or town, be levied and defrayed by a special assessment to be made from time to time for this purpose by authority of the magistrates of such city, burgh, or town, in the manner therein prescribed, and where the occasion of expence shall arise in any landward parish (or in the landward part of any parish containing any burgh, or part of a burgh), the same shall be levied by a special assessment, to be from time to time made by the heritors, or their special mandatories, of such parish, or landward part of a parish, upon the owners and occupants of the lands, houses, and other heritages within the said parish, or landward part of a parish, in the manner therein set forth :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same :

And whereas by an Order, made on the tenth day of March last past, by the Lords of the Privy Council, it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that the burgh magistrates, and commissioners of police in all cities, burghs, and towns having local establishments of police, and the burgh magistrates, together with the members of the Kirk sessions and resident householders, occupying houses rated to the house duty at twelve pounds or upwards of yearly value in all other burghs, and the resident heritors and agents for non-resident heritors, together with the tenants paying fifty pounds or upwards of yearly rent, and the members of the Kirk session of every landward parish, or landward part of a parish, in Scotland, should be permitted and suffered where they thought fit so to do, to invest and instruct their respective Boards of Health, constituted by an Order of the Privy Council, for cities, towns, districts, or divisions of Scotland, with authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described :

And whereas for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and for the relief of persons suffering under the same, and for the encouragement and promotion of the safe and speedy interment of persons dying of the said disease, the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), do deem it expedient and necessary, that further powers should be granted to all Boards of Health properly constituted by an Order of the Lords in Council, and that certain nuisances and offensive and dangerous matters, having a tendency to promote infection, and which are likely to be prejudicial to the public health, should be abated and removed :

It is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by the before recited Act, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that every Board of Health which now is, or hereafter shall be, constituted, by virtue of any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Privy Council, certified under the hand of one of the Clerks in Ordinary of the Privy Council, shall and may, by their chairman or secretary, apply to the acting chief magistrate of any burgh, or the minister or any three of the resident heritors of any parish for which such Boards of Health are appointed, to convene a meeting of the different persons above enumerated, in such burghs or parishes as the case may be, which said meetings the proper officers shall accordingly summon and convene, after three days full notice of the time and place of holding the same; and at such meetings respectively, every such Board of Health shall and may submit to such meeting, proposals for their permission and consent that such Board of Health should be invested with all or any of the powers following (to wit); that such Boards should be enabled to expend and lay out a certain sum of money, of a fixed and declared amount (of the intended application and disposal of which money, a plan and estimate shall be at the same time submitted or tendered to the said meeting), for the purposes of furnishing medicines and medical assistance, nurses, and other necessary attendants, to the sick poor at their own habitations, in all those cases where persons afflicted with the said disease cannot be conveniently removed to cholera hospitals; and further, of supplying medicines at different dispensary stations; together with the necessary incidental expences of every such Board of Health; also for the purpose of cleansing and whitewashing any house or habitation in which there exist dangerous impurities, and of removing, taking, and carrying away any corrupt, offensive, and dangerous matter within, or contiguous to, any house or habitation: also to effect the removal of any offal or filth from any slaughter-house in any city, town, or populous district; also to engage medical inspectors to visit and report upon the sanitary state of health of all lodging-houses kept for the reception of vagrants; also for the purposes of opening and scouring any such drains or watercourses, and of closing and covering any such open drains, ditches, and cesspools, as, being likely to be prejudicial to the public health, such parishes may be willing and desirous of undertaking to cleanse or cover, themselves defraying the expences thereof out of the parish funds: also to purchase, inclose, and fence lands for burying-grounds and cemeteries; also to pay the funeral expences of persons dying of the said disease: and if such meetings in burghs or parishes shall consent and agree, by a majority of the votes of the members or inhabitants then present, taken in the usual and ordinary manner of voting at such meetings, that it is salutary and expedient to confer all or any of such authority and powers upon the Board of Health appointed for such parish or place, that it shall and may be lawful for such Boards of Health, and they are hereby invested with authority and power, under and by virtue of this Order of the Lords of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), to execute every one of such respective powers as shall be so conferred upon them as aforesaid (to wit); upon receiving a certificate in writing, signed by two medical practitioners, of the existence of any offensive impurities, dangerous to the public health, within any house, or within twenty yards of any house or habitation, by themselves, their servants, or others of the King's subjects, to enter any dwelling-house, hut, or cabin in any street, lane, court, alley, gateway, passage, or place in any city, town, division, or district, and at some seasonable time (regard being always had to the convenience of the inmates thereof), to wash, scour, cleanse, whitewash, and fumigate the same, and to empty and clean out the cellars thereof, and to clear, cleanse, and purify all the sink-holes and drains thereof, and also to remove all swine out of any dwelling-house, hut, or cabin to any adjoining hog-stye, when and so soon as such sufficient styes shall have been provided for the reception of the same at the expence of the parish: and with power to enter upon the lands or grounds of any person or persons, bodies politic, corporate, or collegiate, and to remove, take and carry away all decayed fruits, vegetables, and garden-stuff, all putrid fish, and any other corrupt or offensive and dangerous matter or thing, placed, deposited, or kept within twenty yards of any house or habitation; also to give notice to the owner or occupier of any slaughter-house in any city, town, or populous district, to remove, take and carry away any refuse, offal, garbage, filth, or sweepings of such slaughter-house, and to effectually wash and cleanse the same; and if such filth shall not be removed, or shall not be commenced or set about to be removed, within one hour after such notice, then with full power and authority to enter every such slaughter-house and to remove, take and carry away all such offal, and all other rubbish and filth whatsoever: also with authority to appoint one or more such medical inspectors as aforesaid, to visit all lodging-houses used and kept for the reception of tramps and vagrants, once daily, at some seasonable hour, and to inquire into and report upon the condition of the same, and the state of health of the persons congregated therein, and the number of persons who have died of the said disease; and all such medical inspectors, so appointed as aforesaid, are hereby authorised and empowered to enter every such house for the purposes aforesaid, at the time and in the manner hereinbefore mentioned: and with further powers for the said Boards of Health to open, cleanse, and scour any such drains, ditches, watercourses, soughs, gutters, and cesspools, and to close and cover any such open drains, ditches, and cesspools, as a majority of the said meetings in burghs and vestries shall agree to be offensive and dangerous, and to require such cleansing or covering respectively, and to have the consent of such meeting, or of a majority thereof, to the undertaking and engaging to cleanse and cover the same at the parish expence; the entire expence of the opening and cleansing, or of the closing and covering, of any such drain, ditch, or pool respectively, in no case exceeding fifty pounds for the complete accomplishment of the same; provided always, that nothing in this Order contained shall be taken or held to extend to any drains, ditches, watercourses, soughs, gutters, and cesspools, being within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners of sewers, or of trustees, or others having authority over the making or management of sewers; provided also, that the owner of the soil shall in every such case agree and consent to the scouring and cleansing, or closing and covering of the same: and with full permission and authority for every such Board of Health to purchase, inclose, and fence suitable lands for burial-grounds and cemeteries, to be used by all parishes in any city or town which shall agree to contribute a rateable proportion to the providing of such burying-grounds for cholera patients; provided always, that no lands used for any such interment shall be afterwards applied to any profane use, for the space of ten years then next ensuing: and when and so soon as any such Boards of Health, so authorised and empowered as aforesaid, shall have procured any such burying-grounds, without the walls, limits, or bounds of any city or town, but within a reasonable and convenient distance of the same, and shall have made all the necessary provisions and arrangements for the interment of bodies therein, then in every such case the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), do hereby strictly forbid, prohibit, and interdict the interment of any person whosoever, certified by a medical practitioner, to have died of the said disease of spasmodic, or Indian cholera, within the said city, in any church, church-yard, chapel, chapel-yard, cemetery, vault, burying-ground, or other place whatever used for the reception of dead bodies within the walls, limits, and bounds thereof, unless for any good and sufficient reasons which shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the said Board of Health, such Board shall determine that the regulation can be safely dispensed with in any particular excepted case, when it is further directed that the express grounds of such particular exception shall be truly and at length stated and entered in the minutes of the proceedings of such Board of Health, and a copy of such entry shall forthwith be transmitted to the Clerk in Ordinary of the Privy Council, for the information of their Lordships; and the Lords of the Privy Council do further command and order that the interment of all persons certified by any medical practitioner to have died of the said disease of spasmodic, or Indian cholera, shall take place within the space of twenty-four hours from the time of the death of every such person, and all the relations and nearest friends of every person so dying, and all other His Majesty's subjects having controul over the disposal of the respective bodies, are hereby strongly enjoined, ordered, and directed to enforce the performance of this provision, under the pain of incurring the penalties denounced in the before recited Act, against all persons guilty of disobedience to the Orders of their Lordships in Council: and every such Board of Health is hereby empowered and allowed to discharge the funeral expences of all persons dying of the said disease within the jurisdiction of the said Board, whose relations or friends shall procure the interment of the body within the before limited time of twenty-four hours after the decease of such persons, and according to the directions of the said Board of Health; also with full power and authority for every such Board of Health to burn and destroy, or cause to be burnt and destroyed, such clothes, bedding, or any other articles belonging to, or used by the deceased, in his or her lifetime as the said Board shall deem necessary to be destroyed, paying the value thereof to their legal representatives, to be charged upon the poors' rate of the parish in which such person died: but if such meetings in burghs or parish shall not agree and determine by a majority of the votes of the members then present, taken in the usual and ordinary manner of voting at such meetings, that it is salutary and expedient to confer all or any of such powers upon the Boards of Health appointed for such parishes or places respectively, or if such owners of the soil as aforesaid shall not consent to the opening and scouring, or the closing and covering of drains and ditches, and pools, at the expence of the parish as aforesaid, then it is ordered and enjoined that no such authority or powers, and no part of such powers as shall be refused or withheld by such vestries, shall be claimed or exercised by any Board of Health in any parish or place, except when such, or any other authority and powers shall, upon due consideration of the premises, be conferred and given to any such Boards of Health by any Order or Orders to be made by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, certified under the hand of one of the Clerks in Ordinary of the Privy Council:

And for defraying all and every the expences which may be necessarily incurred in carrying into effect this Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, it shall be lawful for all such Boards of Health, so constituted and empowered as aforesaid, and they are hereby authorised and directed, to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to the magistrates of the burgh, or any four of the principal heritors of the parish, to contribute and advance such sum as may be necessary, either out of the assessments by the said last-mentioned Act authorised and directed, or in the event of such assessments not then being realized, on the credit of such assessments; and all police and peace officers, all constables and headboroughs, and all others His Majesty's subjects, are hereby required to be aiding and assisting in the execution of this Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things, which may be necessarily and properly done by any such burgh magistrates and commissioners of police, Boards of Health, members of Kirk sessions, heritors, inspectors, peace officers, constables, headboroughs, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of July 1832,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place, but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order in Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension as long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by an Order in Council, made the thirteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, but that the ballot should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth of July; and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year, from the date of this Order; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year, from the date of this Order, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended, for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July instant.

C. C. Greville.

St. James's-Palace, July 25, 1832.

THE following Addresses to the King were this day presented to His Majesty at the Levee, and graciously received:

The humble Address of the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Middlesex, agreed upon at a public meeting, duly convened by the Sheriff of the said County, and held at Hackney on the 14th of July 1832,

Humbly Sheweth,
THAT your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects residing in the county of Middlesex, beg leave to express to your Majesty the feelings of indignation and regret with which they received the intelligence of the atrocious attack made upon your Majesty on the 19th ultimo, and to offer, at the same time, their heartfelt congratulations at your Majesty having escaped therefrom without any serious injury to your royal person.

Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, as aforesaid, having repeatedly assembled for the purpose of petitioning for a measure of reform in the Commons' House of Parliament, are anxious to avail themselves of the opportunity that offers on the present occasion to return their most grateful and most humble acknowledgment to your Majesty for having been most graciously pleased to take the prayers of their petitions into favourable consideration, and for the effectual measures decided upon by your Majesty in order to insure the accomplishment of that object; and it is their earnest prayer, that God will preserve to them the blessings which they enjoy, and insure to them the prospects which they entertain under your Majesty's just and mild government, and continue to watch over and protect a life so justly dear to them.

John Pirie, Sheriff.*

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Dean and Prebendaries of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ, Canterbury.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean and Prebendaries of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ, Canterbury, beg to assure your Majesty, that we have partaken largely in those feelings of indignation and alarm, which have filled the hearts of all your loyal subjects, at the imminent danger to which your Majesty was exposed, in the atrocious attempt lately made against your sacred person.

We should consider that we were wanting in duty to your Majesty, if we neglected to approach your Majesty with the testimony of our feelings on this awful occasion, and with unfeigned assurances of our ardent attachment and devotion to your Majesty's person.

We, therefore, humbly implore your Majesty to receive the homage of our fervent congratulations, on your having been preserved by Divine Providence from the desperate and execrable attempt of a traitorous assassin.

And we earnestly pray, that, under the blessing of the Almighty, your Majesty may continue for many years to reign over a loyal and dutiful people.

Unto His Most Gracious Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland KING.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Presbytery in London in Communion with the Established Church of Scotland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of London in Communion with the Established Church of Scotland, participating in the feeling of abhorrence experienced by all classes of our fellow-subjects, at the atrocious attack which was recently made on your Majesty's sacred person, beg leave to lay before your Majesty our unanimous and cordial congratulations on that merciful interposition of Divine Providence, by which your Majesty has been rescued from danger, and the blessings of the present reign are still preserved to the people of these realms.

Deeply sensible of the invaluable civil and religious privileges which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable government, it is our fervent prayer, that that Gracious and Almighty God who has hitherto shielded your Majesty's person, may ever continue to be your Majesty's defence, rendering your reign long, peaceful, and prosperous, blessing you with the joys of His salvation, and preserving you, after many days, unto His heavenly kingdom.

Signed in our presence, and by our appointment, at the Scots' Church, in Swallow-street, the 13th day of July, in the year 1832.

James Reid Brown, Moderator of the Presbytery; John Crombie, D. D. Clerk of Presbytery.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, and Council of the Royal College of Surgeons in London, beg leave to approach your Majesty to express our deep distress at the late atrocious and traitorous attack upon your Majesty's most sacred person, and our indignation that any individual in your Majesty's dominions could be guilty of contemplating so desperate an outrage.

We humbly offer our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's providential escape from so malicious an assault, and our fervent prayer that your Majesty may be long spared to reign over a loyal, happy, and united people.

Given under our common seal, at the College, this 17th day of July 1832,

John P. Vincent, President.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the county of Argyll, beg leave to approach your Majesty with feelings of the most affectionate loyalty to express our horror and indignation at the late atrocious and treasonable attack upon your Majesty's sacred person. We offer our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's safety, and our earnest prayers that your Majesty may long be spared to rule over a loyal and devoted people.

Signed in name and by appointment of the meeting, this 17th day of July 1832,

R. MacLachlan, Preses.

The humble Address of the Grand Jury of the County of Berks, appointed at Abingdon, at the Summer Assizes, July 16, 1832.

WE, the Grand Jury assembled at the Assizes for the county of Berks, at Abingdon, this 16th of July, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with sentiments of the truest loyalty and most affectionate attachment, and to offer our hearty congratulations on your Majesty's providential escape from the traitorous attack on your royal person at Ascot-heath races.

Connected with this county, which the monarchs of England have for centuries honoured with their residence, we should deem ourselves to be as deficient in loyalty as in gratitude, if we did not eagerly avail ourselves of the present occasion to declare our inviolable attachment to your Majesty's royal person, and to the illustrious house of which you are the head.

We ardently pray that Providence may continue to shield your royal person from every peril, and prolong your valuable life; not less for your Majesty's happiness than for the peace and prosperity of your people, sentiments in which we feel convinced that every inhabitant of this county warmly participates.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To His Most Gracious MAJESTY.

WE, the undersigned, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, Inhabitants and Visitors in the borough and town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, approach your Majesty's Throne, offering our most sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's escape from the attempts of a most atrocious, traitorous, and infamous assassin.

In thus offering to your Majesty these our heartfelt congratulations, we beg to assure your Majesty of our loyalty and firm attachment to your Majesty's sacred person, that of our most gracious Queen, and the other Members of your Royal House.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and the rest of the Common Council of the Town and County of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, humbly offer to your Majesty the assurance of our affection and loyalty.

Whilst we express our sincere gratitude to Providence for having preserved your royal person from the desperate and atrocious assault which has been made upon it, we pray that you may long continue to reign over a loyal and united people.

Given under our common seal, this 12th day of July 1832. Archd. Reed, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

An Address to His Majesty from the Clergy, Landholders, Proprietors of Mines, and Miners, of the Parish of Saint Agnes, in the North-East District of the County of Cornwall.

WE, the undersigned, the Clergy, Landholders, Proprietors of Mines, Captains of Mines, and Miners, of the Parish of Saint Agnes, in the North-east district of the county of Cornwall, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty, to express our indignation and abhorrence at the recent atrocious and diabolical attempt made on your Majesty's sacred person, and to congratulate your Majesty on the kind interposition of Divine Providence, that rendered the wicked design of the assassin abortive.

We also beg leave to assure your Majesty of our devoted attachment to your royal person and that of your amiable consort, our most gracious Queen Adelaide, and to offer our ardent prayers for your safety, happiness, and prosperity, and that you may long live, as you ever have done, in the hearts of a grateful and loyal people.

To His Most Excellent MAJESTY.

The humble and dutiful Address of the States of His Majesty's Island of Jersey.

May it please your Majesty,

THE late atrocious attempt on your Majesty's sacred person has filled every bosom with horror and indignation.

Your Majesty's faithful States, as the constitutional representatives of their fellow-subjects, the inhabitants of this highly-favoured island, at their first meeting since the occurrence which they deplored, beg to express their unfeigned congratulations, that a merciful interposition of Providence has watched over your Majesty in a moment of danger, and preserved your life to your royal house, and to an affectionate and devoted people.

The best, the wisest, and the most beloved sovereigns have been equally exposed to the attacks of the maniac and the assassin; but whilst history supplies so many awful instances of their fatal effects, it is with particularly heartfelt gratitude that your faithful States acknowledge, that though your Majesty, and your immediate predecessors, have also experienced those dangers, the same gracious Providence has, on every occasion, stayed the infliction of a deadly blow, and averted a truly national calamity.

In the midst of the universal solicitude and pious thankfulness of every class of your Majesty's subjects for this signal deliverance, your faithful States may, perhaps, be allowed to feel, if possible, a more than common interest, as representing a small but distinguished remnant of those extensive dominions, which were once the patrimony of your Majesty's Norman progenitors, an island whose history abound, during a long lapse of ages, with invariable recollections of the goodness and munificence of your royal predecessors, and of the enthusiastic zeal and loyalty of a brave and grateful people.

Your Majesty's faithful States are proud to represent an industrious and contented population, and to view with the most lively satisfaction the unexampled degree of prosperity which this island derives from your Majesty's paternal government. They also confidently anticipate the permanency of those blessings from their inviolable attachment to your Majesty and your Royal House, and from the ever-favourable regard of their sovereigns, to maintain them in the enjoyment of their local constitution, and the unimpaired continuance of their invaluable privileges.

Impressed, therefore, with sentiments of unbounded gratitude to Almighty God, your Majesty's faithful States offer their prayers to Him, that He may long preserve your life, and enable you, under His holy guidance, to contribute largely to the increase of the general prosperity and happiness of the British empire.

By order of the States,
Frs. Godfrey, Griffier.
Jersey, 14th July, 1832.

Whitehall, July 27, 1832.

THE following Addresses to the King, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Justices of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, in general quarter session assembled, most humbly beg leave to express to your Majesty the deep concern we have felt at the late atrocious outrage and attack committed on your Majesty's sacred person. And we further humbly offer our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's providential escape from severe injury, with our prayers that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the hearts and loyal affections of your grateful and devoted subjects, dispensing to them the inestimable blessings of your mild and paternal government.

Signed by order of the Court,
Frs. Const, Chairman.
Sessions House, Clerkenwell, July 12, 1832.

Unto His Most Excellent MAJESTY.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of your ancient royal Burgh of Ayr, Scotland, in Council assembled, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty, to express our utmost detestation and horror at the attempt lately made on the person of your sacred Majesty, by a traitor to his king and country, and loudly to express our sincere and heartfelt congratulation upon the escape of your Majesty from so diabolical and treasonable an attempt to deprive your loving subjects of your Majesty's most valuable life. That your Majesty may be long spared to reign over this free and happy people, is the devout wish of, may it please your Majesty, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of Ayr.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at the Council Table, the 18th day of July, 1832, and the town seal affixed,

W. Fullarton, Provost of Ayr.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the States of your Majesty's Island of Alderney.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Officiating Lieutenant Governor, the Judge, the Jurats, the King's Officers, the Minister, and Douzaniers of your Majesty's island of Alderney, in the States assembled, beg to approach your Majesty in their names, and in those of the Inhabitants of this your Majesty's island, to express our indignation at the late atrocious attempt on your Majesty.

The horror which the crime of one individual, in attempting so treasonable an act on your Majesty's sacred person, cannot be more deeply felt in any part of your Majesty's Dominions than by your loyal and dutiful subjects of Alderney.

In offering our thanks to Almighty God for having preserved your Majesty from injury, we dutifully convey our heartfelt congratulations to your Majesty on the protection vouchsafed to your royal person, and in our earnest supplications to the Supreme Dispenser of events, we earnestly pray that your Majesty may continue long to reign over a dutiful and loyal people.

Alderney, July 13, 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Justices of the Peace of the county of Radnor, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the expression of our sincere and heartfelt congratulations, on your Majesty's providential escape from the late atrocious attack upon your Majesty's sacred person.

We cannot refrain from expressing our confident hope, that, upon further investigation, it will appear that the violent act of the misguided offender has proceeded from aberration of mind, rather than from a deliberate design of injuring a Sovereign, whose whole conduct has been marked by benevolence and a wish to contribute, by every means in his power, to the welfare of his kingdom.

We beg to add the assurance of our firm loyalty, and of our inviolable attachment to your Majesty's person and family.

On behalf of the Magistrates of the county,

Richard Venables, Archdeacon of Carnarthen, and Chairman of the Quarter Sessions for the county of Radnor.

To His Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland KING.

The humble Address of the Magistrates, Town Council, and Deacons of Incorporations of the Royal Burgh of Lanark.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Town Council, and Deacons of the Incorporated Trades of the royal burgh of Lanark, deeply impressed with those feelings of admiration and reverence that are due to a kind and great Prince, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne, to renew our expressions of attachment to your Majesty.

In common with our fellow subjects, we most deeply deplore the late atrocious and treasonable attack upon the sacred person of your Majesty, and while we therefore now feel it peculiarly incumbent upon us to come forward with a declaration of our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty, we cannot but lament that there should have occurred an event so disgraceful in itself, and so repugnant to the feelings of a loyal and affectionate people.

We most sincerely congratulate your Majesty on your narrow and providential escape, and sincerely pray, that, under the blessing of Him who alone is able effectually to shield you from every danger, you may enjoy many years of happiness, amid the blessings of peace, prosperity, and plenty, and that you may live, as your illustrious ancestors have done, in the hearts and affections of a free, happy, and loyal people.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, and in our presence, and the seal of the said burgh is hereto affixed, at Lanark, the 20th day of July, 1832, Archd. Haddaw, Chief Magistrate.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, Magistrates of the county of Brecon, in general quarter session assembled, beg to offer your Majesty our most humble but sincere congratulations upon your Majesty's escape from the late outrageous and treasonable attack upon your sacred person; and we feel the highest indignation that any subject in your Majesty's dominions should commit so atrocious an act. And we also hope that the same omnipotent Being, who, on the late occasion, so providentially guarded your royal person, will still vouchsafe to protect your Majesty from all sublunary ills, and long continue to a free and loyal people the inestimable blessing of your kind and gracious reign.

At the request, and in the name of the before-mentioned Magistrates, Henry Allen, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Convener, Master of Hospital, Seven Deacons, and whole other Members of the Seven Incorporated Trades of the city of Aberdeen, beg leave most humbly and respectfully to approach your Majesty, for the purpose of uniting with all classes of your Majesty's subjects, in expressing unto your Majesty our horror and indignation at the late most atrocious attack which was made upon your Majesty's august person, while honouring with your royal presence the sports at Ascot Races.

Permit us, most gracious Sire, to offer unto your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt congratulations upon the merciful interposition of Divine Providence, in protecting your Majesty from the effects of so base and so treasonable an attack, which filled the minds of your Majesty's subjects in every part of the empire with indignation and alarm, and in preserving unto your people a Monarch whose reign has been characterised by every endeavour to promote their happiness and prosperity, and to whom their most loyal and grateful affections must ever flow.

That Almighty God, by whom alone Kings reign, may long continue to preserve your Majesty and your illustrious consort, Her Majesty the Queen, in health and in happiness, to reign in the esteem and affections of a loyal, a happy, and a grateful people, and that perfect loyalty and ardent attachment may ever preserve your Majesty's sacred person and government from all treasonable designs, are the sincere and fervent prayers of, Sire, your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate subjects, the Convener, Master of Hospital, Seven Deacons, and whole other Members of the Seven Incorporated Trades of the city of Aberdeen.

Signed in the name; and by the appointment of the said Seven Incorporated Trades, in Common Hall assembled, this 13th day of July, 1832 years, and their seal hereunto appended.

CONTRACT FOR IRISH BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 25, 1832.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 20th day of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; to be delivered seven eighth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in barrels, into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Cork, in such proportions as shall be hereafter agreed on, one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half on or before the 31st day of May 1833, to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contracts may be seen at this Office, or by applying to W Alves, Esq, Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of His Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; nor will any tender be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders for the beef are to be distinct and separate from those for the pork, and that every tender must specify the price in words at length.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.
