TUESDAY, JULY 31, 1832.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 28th day of July 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas by another Act, passed in the same second year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, so to be made as in the said before-mentioned Act provided or sanctioned, after they are incurred by any such Order, shall, where the occasion of expence shall arise in any landward parish (or in the landward part of any parish containing any burgh, or part of a burgh), be levied by a special assessment, to be from time to time made by the heritors or their special mandatories of such parish, or landward part of a parish, upon the owners and occupants of the lands, houses, and other heritages within the said parish, or landward part of a parish, in the manner therein prescribed.

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and the parish of Stewarton hath been visited with the said disease:

And whereas an Order in Council was issued by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth day of March last past, empowering every Board of Health, constituted by virtue of an Order of His Majesty's Privy Council, to apply to the acting chief magistrate of any burgh, or the minister, or any three of the resident heritors, of any parish for which Boards of Health are appointed, to convene a meeting of the resident heritors, and agents for non-resident heritors, together with the tenants paying fifty pounds or upwards of yearly rent, and the members of the kirk sessions of every landward parish, or landward part of a parish, and to apply to such meeting for the authority and powers therein mentioned, and for funds to defray the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said meeting, and further directing the proceedings to be taken at such meeting, and the course to be pursued by such Boards of Health consequent upon the determinations of such meetings:

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that application for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Acts above recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of all necessary expences incurred for sanitary purposes, amounting in the whole to a sum exceeding two hundred pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the parish of Stewarton to the meeting of heritors, tenants, and kirk sessions, and such meeting of heritors, tenants, and kirk sessions hath declined to give any authority or directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of the Acts before recited, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, certain of the expences incurred by the Board of Health for Stewarton, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and for other sanitary purposes:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by both the before-recited Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that so much of the Order of the tenth day of March last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences, to be fixed and declared by such meeting of heritors, tenants, and kirk-sessions as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parish of Stewarton, and the sum of two hundred pounds; and the said Board of Health for Stewarton shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to apply, by their chairman or secretary, to the heritors, or their special mandatories of such parish, to raise the said sum of two hundred pounds, by a special assessment upon the owners and occupants of the lands, houses, and other heritages within the parish, to be levied in the form and manner by such last-recited Act prescribed, and which assessment such heritors are hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the power vested in them by such Acts:

And for the discharge and payment of all expences heretofore reasonably and properly incurred by the said Board of Health, not exceeding a moiety of the said sum of two hundred pounds, it shall be lawful for such Board of Health, and it is hereby authorised and empowered, to make application, by its chairman or secretary, to any four of the principal heritors of the parish, to contribute and advance such sum of one hundred pounds on the credit of such assessment:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things which may be necessarily, reasonably, and properly done by such Board of Health, and by such heritors, or their special mandatories, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

C. C. Greville.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th day of July 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poor's rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by an Order, made on the sixth day of March last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council for cities, towns, districts, or divisions of England and Wales, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of every parish or place within such city, town, district, or division, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better regulating the poor, maintaining a nightly watch, lighting, paving, and cleansing the streets, rows, and passages; providing fire-engines and firemen, and regulating the hackney coachmen, chairmen, carmen, and porters within the city of Chester," it is, amongst things, enacted, that the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, being justices of the peace, of the said city and county of the said city, for the time being, and also such charitable persons who shall from time to time be elected under the powers therein contained, and also the respective numbers therein following of the inhabitants of the said city, elected in the manner thereinafter directed, that is to say, twelve for each of the parishes of Saint John Baptist, Saint Mary on the Hill, and Saint Oswald; eight for each of the parishes of Saint Peter, the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Saint Bridget, and Saint Michael; and three for each of the parishes of Saint Martin and Saint Olave, all within the said city and county of the same, or so many of such inhabitants as should from time to time be so elected should be and were thereby declared to be incorporated by the name of "the guardians of the poor within the city and county of the city of Chester," and empowering such guardians and the governors of the said corporation to order and direct any money to be rated and raised by and out of the said separate parishes for the relief and employment of the poor thereof, and to apportion and settle the part or share of all such money and arrears, which shall be raised and paid by each parish, according to the number of each of their poor, and requiring the churchwardens and overseers of each such parish to levy the same by assessment, in the manner therein directed.

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient, in order to carry into effect the purposes of the before-recited Act, and of the Order of their Lordships before mentioned, in the most convenient manner within the said city and county of the city of Chester, that the Board of Health for such city and county should be empowered and authorised to apply for all the necessary powers and expences to the governors and guardians of the poor for such city and county, in lieu and stead of applying to the vestries of the several parishes and townships therein:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), that the Board of Health constituted for the said city and county of the city of Chester, shall and may apply to the clerk of the said corporation to convene a general meeting of the said governors and guardians of the poor for the said city and county (which court the said clerk is hereby commanded and directed forthwith to convene); and the said Board of Health, by their chairman or secretary, shall and may submit proposals, accounts, and estimates to such court, and apply for the necessary powers and authorities and for a certain sum of money to defray the reasonable expences, delivering their proposals to such governors and guardians of the poor of the said city and county, in the place and stead of making any such application to the vestries of the several incorporated parishes, as in the before-recited Order mentioned; and the said governors and guardians of the poor for the said city and county shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered (if they think proper so to do) to confer upon the Board of Health of the said city all or any of the powers and authorities mentioned in the said Order of their Lordships; and the said governors and guardians of the poor for the said city and county are further ordered and directed to ascertain and fix the amount of the sum to be allowed for carrying into effect the purposes of the before-recited Act, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon, in the place and stead of the vestries in the before-recited Order mentioned, and to use and exercise all other the functions and powers given by such Order of their Lordships to select or parish vestries:

And for all acts, deeds, matters, and things, properly done by such governors and guardians of the poor of the said city and county, and by such Board of Health and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.
