FRIDAY, AUGUST 3, 1832.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 28th day of July 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas by another Act, passed in the same second year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, so to be made as in the said before-mentioned Act provided or sanctioned, after they are incurred by any such

Order, shall, where the occasion of expence shall arise in any landward parish (or in the landward part of any parish containing any burgh, or part of a burgh), be levied by a special assessment, to be from time to time made by the heritors or their special mandatories of such parish, or landward part of a parish, upon the owners and occupants of the lands, houses, and other heritages within the said parish, or landward part of a parish, in the manner therein prescribed.

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and the parish of Stewarton hath been visited with the said disease:

And whereas an Order in Council was issued by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth day of March last past, empowering every Board of Health, constituted by virtue of an Order of His Majesty's Privy Council, to apply to the acting chief magistrate of any burgh, or the minister, or any three of the resident heritors, of any parish for which Boards of Health are appointed, to convene a meeting of the resident heritors, and agents for non-resident heritors, together with the tenants paying fifty pounds or upwards of yearly rent, and the members of the kirk sessions of every landward parish, or landward part of a parish, and to apply to such meeting for the authority and powers therein mentioned, and for funds to defray the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said meeting, and further directing the proceedings to be taken at such meeting, and the course to be pursued by such Boards of Health consequent upon the determinations of such meetings:

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that application for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Acts above recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of all necessary expences incurred for sanitary purposes, amounting in the whole to a sum exceeding two hundred pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the parish of Stewarton to the meeting of heritors, tenants, and kirk sessions, and such meeting of heritors, tenants, and kirk sessions hath declined to give any authority or directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of the Acts before recited, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, certain of the expences incurred by the Board of Health for Stewarton, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and for other sanitary purposes:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by both the before-recited Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that so much of the Order of the tenth day of March last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences, to be fixed and declared by such meeting of heritors, tenants, and kirk-sessions as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parish of Stewarton, and the sum of two hundred pounds; and the said Board of Health for Stewarton shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to apply, by their chairman or secretary, to the heritors, or their special mandatories of such parish, to raise the said sum of two hundred pounds, by a special assessment upon the owners and occupants of the lands, houses, and other heritages within the parish, to be levied in the form and manner by such last-recited Act prescribed, and which assessment such heritors are hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the power vested in them by such Acts:

And for the discharge and payment of all expences heretofore reasonably and properly incurred by the said Board of Health, not exceeding a moiety of the said sum of two hundred pounds, it shall be lawful for such Board of Health, and it is hereby authorised and empowered, to make application, by its chairman or secretary, to any four of the principal heritors of the parish, to contribute and advance such sum of one hundred pounds on the credit of such assessment:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things which may be necessarily, reasonably, and properly done by such Board of Health, and by such heritors, or their special mandatories, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

St. James's-Palace, August 1, 1832.

THE following Address was this day presented to His Majesty at the Levee, and graciously received:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the borough of Wallingford, in the county of Berks, with feelings of ardent attachment to your Majesty's person and government, approach your throne to express our sorrow and indignation at the recent atrocious attack on your royal person, and our humble acknowledgements to the author of all our mercies, who threw around you in the moment of peril, the shield of His Almighty protection.

We rejoice that the traitorous outrage to which we have alluded, was the isolated act of an individual unconnected with any plot or party; and assured that your Majesty reigns in the hearts and affections of your subjects, we venture most respectfully to express our hope, that your confidence in their loyalty will remain unshaken, and that time instead of impairing, will strengthen and confirm your reliance on their allegiance.

Fully appreciating the blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal sway, we implore of Him, through whom alone Kings reign, that you may long continue to be beloved at home, and respected abroad, the Sovereign of a united, grateful, and happy people.

[Here follow the signatures.]

Whitehall, August 3, 1832.

THE following Addresses to the King, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of the Presbytery of Ellon, avail ourselves of our earliest meeting to express our abhorrence of the late atrocious attack made on your Majesty's sacred person, and our thankfulness for the remarkable interposition of Divine Providence, manifested on that occasion in preserving your valuable life.

That your Majesty may long live to reign over a free, a loyal, and a happy people, is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Majesty, the Members of the Presbytery of Ellon.

Signed in name and by appointment of said Presbytery, at Tarves, the 18th of July 1832.

Ludovick Grant, Moderator, P.T.

To His Majesty the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the county of Forfar, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with feelings of unabated loyalty and respect, to express our horror and indignation at the atrocious attack lately made upon your Majesty's sacred person at Ascot races.

We humbly offer our most sincere congratulations on your Majesty's safety, and our fervent prayer that you may long reign over a free, loyal, and affectionate people.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the county, assembled in a general meeting this day.

Forfar, July 24, 1832.

Airlie.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace for the County of Kincardine, in general meeting assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty, humbly to express our detestation of the atrocious attack which has lately been made on your royal person. We lament that even the idea of an action, so truly base and wicked, could for a moment have entered into the mind of any one individual in your Majesty's dominions.

Accept, Sire, of our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's fortunate and providential escape from an attempt, which has excited the deepest feeling of horror in every part of the empire.

Most grateful to an all-wise and over-ruling Providence, for having held the shield of the Divine protection over your Majesty's sacred person in an hour of danger, we fervently pray that it may please the Almighty to grant your Majesty many happy years to reign over this great nation, in the continued enjoyment of the blessings of prosperity, peace, and concord.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at Stonehaven, the 11th July 1832, by the Viscount Arbuthnott, Lord-Lieutenant of the county, Preses of our meeting.

Arbuthnott.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of the University and King's College of Aberdeen, beg leave most humbly to approach the Throne, and to present our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's late providential escape from the atrocious attempt upon your Majesty's royal person.

We cannot, in any case behold, without indignation, the passions of ignorant and misguided men stirred up to deeds of violence, under the pretext that they are the victims of real or supposed injuries; and with the utmost detestation must we regard an attack on the life of a Sovereign so justly endeared to his people, by his ardent desire to promote the happiness of his subjects of every rank in the State.

That the Almighty Governor of the Universe may, in time to come, as in the days that are past, avert from your Majesty every danger, and enable your Majesty to persevere in the performance of every royal duty, is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects.

Aberdeen, Chancellor; Arbuthnott, Rector; William Jack, Principal.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculty, Principal and Professors of the Mareschal College and University of Aberdeen, have heard, with the greatest grief and indignation, of the atrocious attack lately made upon your sacred person.

We beg leave humbly to assure your Majesty, that we feel the utmost abhorrence of this outrage, and the sincerest joy and thankfulness that your Majesty was preserved from injury. We fervently trust that the Divine Providence, which has watched over your Majesty's safety on this occasion, will continue always to protect, and long to preserve your Majesty, as a blessing to your subjects.

We beg leave sincerely to assure your Majesty, that we shall continue, as far as in our power, to promote the cultivation of sound learning and science, and to instil into the minds of the youth committed to our care, those principles which will lead them to form a correct estimate of the great blessings which we, in common with all our fellow-subjects, enjoy under your Majesty's government.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, by Gordon, Chancellor; Michael Bruce, Rector; George Glennie, D.D., and Professor of Moral Philosophy.

C. G. J. ARBUTHNOT and JOHN KIKLAND, Agents appointed by the Trustees to distribute the said Booty.

ARMY PRIZE-MONEY.

With reference to the foregoing notice, intimation is hereby given, for the information and guidance of such Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers, and of the representatives of such Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers, as may desire to receive their shares in England, that the distribution, which will commence at this Office on Tuesday the 7th day of August instant, must (according to the Act 54th George Third, cap. 86) cease on Wednesday the 7th day of November next, and that the shares then remaining unclaimed will be paid over by us to Chelsea Hospital, or to the East India Company; —that is to say, the shares unclaimed belonging to Officers or Soldiers of His Majesty's army will be paid over to the Treasurer of Chelsea Hospital; and the shares unclaimed belonging to the forces of the East India Company will be paid over to the said Company, for the purpose of distribution at the respective Presidencies, viz. Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, and subject to future instructions.

All persons belonging to His Majesty's forces whose shares (not having been claimed from us) shall be paid over to Chelsea Hospital, must apply for payment to the Deputy Treasurer of that establishment, pursuant to the Act of Parliament already referred to.

It will, therefore, be to the advantage of all concerned, especially to persons belonging to the forces of the East India Company, to apply for their shares as soon as possible.

In order to save claimants the expence of powers of attorney, et cetera, we now apprise them, that any Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, or Soldier, entitled so participate in this prize-money, may (if in London) receive the amount due to him in person from us, on satisfying us that he is the person entitled to it; or (if at a distance from London) he may draw upon us for the amount, according to the following forms and instructions; but all such bills must be presented to us on or before the 7th day of November next.

When the signatures of Officers who may draw bills for prize-money are not known to us, it will be necessary for them to adopt measures to satisfy us of their authenticity, previous to our accepting them.

It will also be necessary for the representatives of deceased Officers to produce to us the probate of will, or letters of administration (as the case may be), before we can pay to them, or to their order, the shares due to those they represent.

And with respect to the shares of Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers of His Majesty's forces, the Act of 58th George Third, cap. 73, directs, that the distributing agents shall not pay the share of any Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, to any person or persons whatsoever other than the Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier entitled to the same, or to the next of kin, or executor, or administrator of such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, or to the agent of some regiment, battalion, or corps of His Majesty's army or militia, duly authorised by the party entitled thereto to receive the same.

All bills drawn in Great Britain and Ireland by Officers must be on stamps of the usual value; and all orders drawn by Non-commissioned Officers and Privates must, according to Act of Parliament, be upon a shilling stamp, when the amount of the share exceeds forty shillings.

Receipts are exempt from stamp duty.

As much injury may be done to Soldiers and their representatives entitled to prize-money, by certificates being signed in favour of persons not entitled thereto, it is requested that great caution may be used on the present occasion; and it is declared by the Act 54th George Third, cap. 86, that if any person shall utter or publish as true, or shall aid or assist in uttering or publishing as true, or shall cause or procure to be uttered or published as true, any false, forged, or counterfeit letter of attorney, bill, ticket, order, certificate, or assignment, last will, or any other power or authority whatsoever, in order to receive prize-money due, or supposed to be due, to any Officer or Soldier or other person, with intent to defraud any person or corporation whatsoever, knowing the same to be false, forged, or counterfeited, every such person being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be deemed guilty of felony.
