

incurred for sanitary purposes, amounting in the whole to a sum exceeding two hundred pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the parish of Stewarton to the meeting of heritors, tenants, and kirk sessions, and such meeting of heritors, tenants, and kirk sessions hath declined to give any authority or directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of the Acts before recited, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, certain of the expences incurred by the Board of Health for Stewarton, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and for other sanitary purposes:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by both the before-recited Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that so much of the Order of the tenth day of March last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences, to be fixed and declared by such meeting of heritors, tenants, and kirk-sessions as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parish of Stewarton, and the sum of two hundred pounds; and the said Board of Health for Stewarton shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to apply, by their chairman or secretary, to the heritors, or their special mandatories of such parish, to raise the said sum of two hundred pounds, by a special assessment upon the owners and occupants of the lands, houses, and other heritages within the parish, to be levied in the form and manner by such last-recited Act prescribed, and which assessment such heritors are hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the power vested in them by such Acts:

And for the discharge and payment of all expences heretofore reasonably and properly incurred by the said Board of Health, not exceeding a moiety of the said sum of two hundred pounds, it shall be lawful for such Board of Health, and it is hereby authorised and empowered, to make application, by its chairman or secretary, to any four of the principal heritors of the parish, to contribute and advance such sum of one hundred pounds on the credit of such assessment:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things which may be necessarily, reasonably, and properly done by such Board of Health, and by such heritors, or their special mandatories, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

St. James's-Palace, August 1, 1832.

THE following Address was this day presented to His Majesty at the Levee, and graciously received:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the borough of Wallingford, in the county of Berks, with feelings of ardent attachment to your Majesty's person and government, approach your throne to express our sorrow and indignation at the recent atrocious attack on your royal person, and our humble acknowledgements to the author of all our mercies, who threw around you in the moment of peril, the shield of His Almighty protection.

We rejoice that the traitorous outrage to which we have alluded, was the isolated act of an individual unconnected with any plot or party; and assured that your Majesty reigns in the hearts and affections of your subjects, we venture most respectfully to express our hope, that your confidence in their loyalty will remain unshaken, and that time instead of impairing, will strengthen and confirm your reliance on their allegiance.

Fully appreciating the blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal sway, we implore of Him, through whom alone Kings reign, that you may long continue to be beloved at home, and respected abroad, the Sovereign of a united, grateful, and happy people.

Whitehall, August 3, 1832.

THE following Addresses to the King, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of the Presbytery of Ellon, avail ourselves of our earliest meeting to express our abhorrence of the late atrocious attack made on your Majesty's sacred person, and our thankfulness for the remarkable interposition of Divine Providence, manifested on that occasion in preserving your valuable life.

That your Majesty may long live to reign over a free, a loyal, and a happy people, is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Majesty, the Members of the Presbytery of Ellon.

Signed in name and by appointment of said Presbytery, at Tarves, the 18th of July 1832.

Ludovick Grant, Moderator, P. T.

To His Majesty the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the county of
