FRIDAY, AUGUST 10, 1832.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of August 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and the city of Exeter hath been, and now is, affected by the same :

And whereas by two several Orders in Council, made on the sixth day of March, and the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council for cities, towns, districts, or divisions of England and Wales, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of every parish or place within such city, town, district, or division, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Orders described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas by several Acts of Parliament, made in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Third, the thirty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and the fourteenth, twenty-fifth, and twenty-eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, "for erecting hospitals and workhouses within the city and county of the city of Exon, for the better employing and maintaining the poor there," a Corporation, consisting of the Mayor and Aldermen of the said city for the time being, and of forty other persons to be chosen out of the honestest and discreetest inhabitants of the said city and county, as is thereby directed, and of such other charitable persons as should be elected and constituted guardians of the poor of the said city and county, in the manner therein expressed, was created and established, to continue for ever, as a body politic and corporate, to be called by the name of "the Governor, Deputy Governor, Assistants, and Guardians of the Poor of the city and county of Exon," to have the care of and to provide for the maintenance of the poor of the said city and county; and by various provisions in the said Acts contained, certain of the guardians and assistants of the said Corporation were empowered to cause a certified sum of money to be raised and levied by a general taxation of inhabitants and occupiers for the purposes therein mentioned, and to ascertain and declare what sum and sums of money should be raised and levied upon each parish and precinct within the said city and county respectively, and to authorise and require the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of each parish and precinct to assess the same respectively:

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) fit and expedient, in order to carry into effect the purposes of the before-recited Act, and of the Orders of their Lordships hereinbefore mentioned, in the most convenient manner within the said city and county of the city of Exeter, that the Board of Health for such city and county should be empowered and authorised to apply for, all the necessary powers and expences to the governors, assistants, guardians of the poor for such city and county, in lieu and stead of applying to the vestries of the several parishes and townships therein:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), that the Board of Health constituted for the said city and county of the city of Exeter, shall and may apply to the clerk of the said Corporation to convene a general meeting of the said governors, assistants, and guardians of the poor for the said city and county (which court the said clerk is hereby commanded and directed forthwith to convene); and the said Board of Health, by their chairman or secretary, shall and may submit proposals, accounts, and estimates to such court, and apply for the necessary powers and authorities, and for a certain sum of money to defray the reasonable expences, delivering their proposals to such governors, assistants, and guardians of the poor of the said city and county, in the place and stead of making any such application to the vestries of the several incorporated parishes, as in the before-recited Orders mentioned; and the said governors, assistants, and guardians of the poor for the said city and county shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered (if they think proper so to do) to confer upon the Board of Health of the said city all or any of the powers and authorities mentioned in the said Orders of their Lordships; and the said governors, assistants, and guardians of the poor for the said city and county are further ordered and directed to ascertain and fix the amount of the sum to be allowed for carrying into effect the purposes of the before-recited Act, and of the Orders of their Lordships founded thereon; in the place and stead of the vestries in the before-recited Orders mentioned, and to use and exercise all other the functions and powers given by such Orders of their Lordships to select or parish vestries:

And for all acts, deeds, matters, and things, properly done by such governors, assistants, and guardians of the poor of the said city and county, and the officers thereof, and by such Board of Health and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, August 10, 1832.

The following congratulatory Addresses to the King, on the occasion of the atrocious attack upon His Majesty at Ascot, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been

by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, in Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean and Chapter of your Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, in Westminster, beg to express to your Majesty our great and heartfelt satisfaction, that the late attack on your sacred person has failed in its atrocious object, and that so precious a life is still spared to a loyal and affectionate people.

The criminal attempt has called forth the immediate abhorrence of the nation at large, and we bless that Providence which has not only deadened the blow of the assassin, but converted the meditated evil into an occasion of public gratitude for your Majesty's preservation.

That your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, and that your personal happiness may be always accompanied with the increase and stability of the public welfare, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's servants and subjects.

Given at our Chapter-house at Westminster, under our common seal, the 1st day of August, in the year of our Lord 1832.

John Ireland, Dean.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Master, Wardens, and Court of Assistants of the Society of Apothecaries of your city of London, beg permission, with the most sincere sentiments of loyalty and affection, to offer to your Majesty our warmest congratulations on your late providential escape from the late atrocious attack on your Majesty's sacred person.

The safety of your Majesty and the security of our happy Constitution must ever be inseparable, and we most devoutly pray that your Majesty may long continue to enjoy a life of health and happiness, and be the guardian of the religion, laws, and liberties of a grateful and united people.

John Hunter, Master; Sam. Griffith, Dy. Warden; Wm. King, Dy. Warden.
