FRIDAY, AUGUST 17, 1832.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, August 15, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's next Levee will be held on Friday the 24th instant; it being a Collar-day, the Knights of the several Orders will wear their Collars.

The cards of Gentlemen to be presented at the Levee on the 24th instant, are to be delivered at this Office before twelve o'clock on Wednesday the 22d.

St. James's-Palace, August 16, 1832.

THIS day His Majesty proceeded in state from St. James's-Palace to the House of Peers, where he arrived about two o'clock; and, having alighted from the state coach, was received at the portico by the Great Officers of State and others, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

His Majesty was there robed, and having put on the imperial crown, the procession moved into the House in the usual order.

His Majesty being seated upon the Throne, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, the Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE state of the public business now enabling Me to release you from a further attendance in Parliament, I cannot take leave of you without expressing the satisfaction with which I have observed your diligence and zeal in the discharge of your duties during a session of extraordinary labour and duration.

The matters which you have had under your consideration have been of the first importance; and the laws in particular, which have been passed for reforming the representation of the people, have occupied, as was unavoidable, the greatest portion of your time and attention.

In recommending this subject to your consideration, it was My object, by removing the causes of just complaint, to restore general confidence in the Legislature, and to give additional security to the settled Institutions of the State. This object will, I trust, be found to have been accomplished.

I have still to lament the continuance of disturbances in Ireland, notwithstanding the vigilance and energy displayed by My Government there in the measures which it has taken to repress them. The laws which have been passed, in conformity with My recommendation at the beginning of the session, with respect to the collection of tythes, are well calculated to lay the foundation of a new system, to the completion of which the attention of Parliament, when it again assembles, will of course be directed. To this necessary work My best assistance will be given, by enforcing the execution of the laws, and by promoting the prosperity of a country blessed by Divine Providence with so many natural advantages. As conducive to this object, I must express the satisfaction which I have felt at the measures adopted for extending generally to My people in that kingdom the benefits of education.

I continue to receive the most friendly assurances from all Foreign Powers, and though I am not yet enabled to announce to you the final arrangement of the questions which have been so long depending between Holland and Belgium, and though, unhappily, the contest in Portugal between the Princes of the House of Braganza still continues, I look with confidence, through the intimate union which subsists between Me and My Allies, to the preservation of the general peace.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the supplies which you have granted Me, and it is a great satisfaction to Me to find, notwithstanding large deductions from the revenue, occasioned by the repeal of some of the taxes which pressed most heavily on My people, that you have been enabled, by the exercise of a well-considered economy in all the departments of the State, to provide for the service of the year without any addition to the public burthens.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I recommend to you during the recess the most careful attention to the preservation of the public peace, and to the maintenance of the authority of the law in your respective counties. I trust that the advantages enjoyed by all My subjects, under our free Constitution, will be duly appreciated and cherished; that relief from any real causes of complaint will be sought only through legitimate channels; that all irregular and illegal proceedings will be dis-countenanced and resisted; and that the establishment of internal tranquillity and order will prove that the measures which I have sanctioned have not been fruitless in promoting the security of the State and the contentment and welfare of My people.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's command, said:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is His Majesty's royal will and pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the sixteenth day of October next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the sixteenth day of October next.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 15th day of August 1832,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Gilbert Elliot Earl of Minto was, by His Majesty's command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 14th day of August 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty; intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas by another Act, passed in the same second year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, so to be made as in the said before-mentioned Act provided or sanctioned, after they are incurred by any such Order, shall, whenever the occasion of any such expence has arisen within any city, burgh, or town, or adjacent districts having a local establishment of police, be levied and defrayed by a special assessment to be made from time to time, and as occasion may require for this purpose, by authority of the magistrates of such city, burgh, or town, upon the persons or properties within the same, or within the adjacent districts, which are now assessed for the purposes of police, and that according to the rules, methods, and proportions hitherto observed in such places in collecting such police assessments:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and the burghs of Port Glasgow and Newark have been, and are at the present time, affected with the said disease:

And whereas two several Orders in Council were issued by the Lords of the Privy Council, on the tenth day of March and the twenty-third day of July last past, empowering every Board of Health, constituted by virtue of an Order of His Majesty's Privy Council, to apply to the acting chief magistrate of any burgh to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and commissioners of police in all cities, burghs, and towns having local establishments of police, and to apply to such meeting for the requisite powers, and for funds to discharge the expences of the same, and further directing the proceedings to be taken at such meeting, and the course to be pursued by such Boards of Health consequent upon the determination of such meetings:

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, certain of the expences incurred by the Board of Health for the burghs of Port Glasgow and Newark, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and in affording relief to persons suffering by, or likely to be affected with, the said disease:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by both the before-recited Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that such Board of Health for Port Glasgow and Newark shall and may, by their chairman or secretary, apply to the acting chief magistrate of such burghs to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and commissioners of police of such burghs; which said meetings shall accordingly be summoned and convened by the proper officers as early as can conveniently be done after intimation of the time and place of holding the same; and at such meeting the said Board of Health shall and may apply for a certain sum of money, not exceeding the amount of three hundred and seventy-five pounds, to be levied by assessment on the united burghs of Port Glasgow and Newark, for the discharge of the expences reasonably and properly incurred in providing hospitals with suitable accommodations for the reception and cure of the sick, affording relief in fuel and medical necessaries and comforts, to the distressed and destitute inhabitants, and cleansing, whitewashing, and fumigating the houses of the poor, together with other necessary past expences, allowed and sanctioned by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council; and with power to apply to the said meeting for a further sufficient sum of money, not exceeding the amount of twenty-five pounds, for the discharge of further incidental expences since incurred by the said Board of Health for sanitary purposes; such Board of Health submitting to the said meeting vouchers to shew the necessity for such further sum of money; and the said meeting fixing the amount of the sum allowed for further incidental expences beyond the sum sanctioned by their Lordships:

And for the discharge and payment of their ascertained expences, it shall be lawful for the Board of Health for the united burghs of Port Glasgow and Newark, and such Board is hereby authorised and directed to make application, by its chairman or secretary, to the magistrates of the burgh, to contribute and advance such sum as may be necessary, either out of the assessments by the last-mentioned Act directed, or in the event of such assessments not being realized on the credit of such assessments:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things, which may be reasonably and properly done by such Board of Health, burgh magistrates, commissioners of police, and others

His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 15th day of August 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian Cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by the said disease :

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same :

And whereas by an Order made on the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries :

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of twenty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health appointed for the town of Hythe, to the select vestry of that place, such vestry being duly convened in the manner in the said Order of the nineteenth day of July directed ; when the vestry of the parish declined or avoided to give authority and directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide the said sum of twenty pounds, or any part thereof, such grant of money being applied for by the said Board of Health to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before-recited Act, and the measures of precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Order of their Lordships, founded thereon :

It is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order in Council of the nineteenth day of July last past as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed, in discharge of the necessary expences of such precautionary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered in so far as respects the said town of Hythe, and the sum of twenty pounds ; and that the said Board of Health for the town of Hythe shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace, living in or near the parish or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish, commanding them to pay the said sum of twenty pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which said order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by two several Orders in Council, issued by the Lords of the Privy Council, on the sixth day of March, and the nineteenth day of July, last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place, for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Orders described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been represented to their Lordships that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimated statement, accounts, and vouchers of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the town of Cheltenham to the parish vestry of that place; when the vestry of the said parish of Cheltenham declined or avoided to give authority and directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide the said sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, or any part thereof; such grant of money being applied for by the said Board of Health to discharge the necessary expences of the sanitary and precautionary measures in the before-mentioned Orders prescribed:

It is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before recited Act, that so much of the said Orders in Council as require the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences of such precautionary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered in so far as respects the said town of Cheltenham, and the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, certain of the expences proposed in the estimate and statement so submitted by the said Board of Health for Kendal and Kirkland to such parish vestry as aforesaid:

C. C. Greville.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 13th day of August 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poor's rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by an Order made on the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of:

His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries :

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of thirty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the borough of Dartmouth, to the vestry meetings of the respective parishes of St. Saviour, St. Petrox, and Townstall, such vestries being duly convened in the manner in the said Order of the nineteenth of July directed, when the vestry of the parish of St. Saviour declined or avoided to grant to the said Board of Health the sum of fifteen pounds, being its proportionate share of the said sum of thirty pounds, and the vestry of the parish of St. Petrox avoided complying with the application of the said Board for the sum of seven pounds ten shillings, and the like sum of seven pounds ten shillings was refused by the vestry of the parish of Townstall, such several sums being applied for by the said Board of Health to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before recited Act, and the measures of precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Order of their Lordships founded thereon :

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order in Council of the nineteenth day of July last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences of such precautionary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestries as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parishes of St. Saviour, St. Petrox, and Townstall, all in the borough of Dartmouth, and the said several sums of fifteen pounds, seven pounds ten shillings, and seven pounds ten shillings :

And that the said Board of Health for the borough of Dartmouth shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make his three several orders, in writing, one upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of St. Saviour, commanding them to pay the said sum of fifteen pounds; one upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the parish of St. Petrox, commanding them to pay the said sum of seven pounds ten shillings; and one upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the parish of Townstall, commanding them to pay the said sum of seven pounds ten shillings, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parishes respectively; which said several orders such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such several sums of money in obedience to the orders of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order :
