AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 17th day of August 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poor's rate of the parish nearest adjoining :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same :

And whereas by two several Orders in Council, made on the sixth day of March, and the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of preparation and precaution in the said Orders described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries :

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of one hundred and twenty-eight pounds, eight shillings, hath been made by the Board of Health for the city of Hereford to the vestry meetings of the respective parishes of All Saints, Saint Peter, Saint John, Saint Nicholas, Saint Owen, and Saint Martin, such vestries being severally, and duly, convened ; when the vestry of the parish of Saint Peter consented to grant to the said Board of Health the sum of thirty-four pounds, ten shillings, being its proportionate share of the said sum of one hundred and twenty-eight pounds, eight shillings, and the vestry of Saint John's parish granted the sum of twenty-four pounds, and the vestry of Saint Nicholas eighteen pounds eighteen shillings, and the vestry of Saint Owen's parish, twenty pounds, and that of Saint Martin seven pounds, but the vestry of the parish of All Saints declined to comply with the application of the Board for the sum of twenty-four pounds, its proportionate share of the said sum of one hundred and twenty-eight pounds eight shillings, such several sums being applied for by the said Board of Health from the different parishes aforesaid, to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before recited Act, and the measures of preparation and precaution, prescribed in the before-mentioned Orders of their Lordships founded thereon :

It is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the said Orders in Council of the sixth day of March, and of the nineteenth day of July last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences of such sanitary and precautionary measures to be fixed and declared by such vestries as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parish of All Saints, in the city of Hereford, and the said sum of twenty-four pounds :

And that the said Board of Health for the city of Hereford shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace, living in or near the parish or division, to make his order in writing upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of All Saints, commanding them to pay the said sum of twenty-four pounds for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish, which said order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act ; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such several sums of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act and to the present Order :

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 20th day of August 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poor's rate of the parish nearest adjoining.

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same :

And whereas by an Order in Council, made on the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of preparation and precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been represented to their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of thirty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for Knaresborough and Scriven with Tentergate, to the vestry meetings of the township of Scriven and the township of Knaresborough, such vestries being severally and duly convened; when the vestry of the township of Scriven consented to grant to the said Board of Health the sum of nine pounds fifteen shillings, being its proportionate share of the said sum of thirty pounds; but the vestry of the township of Knaresborough declined to comply with the application of the Board for the sum of twenty pounds five shillings; such several sums being applied for by the said Board of Health from the different townships aforesaid, to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before-recited Act, and the measures of precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the said Order in Council of the nineteenth day of July last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences of such sanitary and precautionary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestries as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said township of Knaresborough and the said sum of twenty pounds five shillings; and that the said Board of Health for Knaresborough and Scriven with Tentergate shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to, make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said township of Knaresborough, commanding them to pay the said sum of twenty pounds five shillings, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish, which said order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such several sums of money, in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 18th day of August 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and the town of Reading is at the present time afflicted with the same:

And whereas by two several Orders in Council, made on the sixth day of March and the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of preparation and precaution in the said Orders described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries.

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of two hundred and forty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the town of Reading to the vestry meetings of the respective parishes of Saint Mary, Saint Giles, and Saint

Lawrence, such vestries being duly convened in the manner in the said Order of the 19th day of July directed; when the vestry of the parish of Saint Giles declined to grant to the said Board of Health the sum of eighty-two pounds, being its proportionate share of the said sum of two hundred and forty pounds; and the vestry of the parish of Saint Mary avoided complying with the application of the said Board for the sum of ninety eight pounds; and the sum of sixty pounds was refused or avoided to be given by the vestry of the parish of Saint Lawrence; such several sums being applied for by the said Board of Health to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before recited Act, and the measures of preparation and precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Orders of their Lordships, founded thereon:

It is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before recited Act, that so much of the Orders in Council of the 6th day of March, and 19th day of July last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed, in discharge of the necessary expences of such precautionary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestries as aforesaid, be, and they are hereby revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parishes of Saint Giles, Saint Mary, and Saint Lawrence, all in the town of Reading aforesaid, and the said several sums of eighty-two pounds, ninety-eight pounds, and sixty pounds:

And that the said Board of Health for the town of Reading shall and may and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division to make his three several orders, in writing, one upon the parish-officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the parish of Saint Giles, commanding them to pay the said sum of eighty-two pounds; one upon the parish-officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the parish of Saint Mary, commanding them to pay the said sum of ninety-eight pounds; and one upon the parish-officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the parish of Saint Lawrence, commanding them to pay the said sum of sixty pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parishes respectively, which said several orders such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before recited Act, and the said parish-officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such several sums of money in obedience to the orders of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before recited Act and to the present Order :

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 14th day of August 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas by another Act, passed in the same second year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, so to be made as in the said before-mentioned Act provided or sanctioned, after they are incurred by any such Order, shall, whenever the occasion of any such expence has arisen within any city, burgh, or town, or adjacent districts having a local establishment of police, be levied and defrayed by a special assessment to be made from time to time, and as occasion may require for this purpose, by authority of the magistrates of such city, burgh, or town, upon the persons or properties within the same, or within the adjacent districts, which are now assessed for the purposes of police, and that according to the rules, methods, and proportions hitherto observed in such places in collecting such police assessments :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and the burghs of Port Glasgow and Newark have been, and are at the present time, affected with the said disease :

And whereas two several Orders in Council were issued by the Lords of the Privy Council, on the tenth day of March and the twenty-third day of July last past, empowering every Board of Health, constituted by virtue of an Order of His Majesty's Privy Council, to apply to the acting chief magistrate of any burgh to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and commissioners of police in all cities, burghs, and towns having local establishments of police, and to apply to such meeting for the requisite powers, and for funds to discharge the expences of the same, and further directing the proceedings to be taken at such meeting, and the course to be pursued by such Boards of Health consequent upon the determination of such meetings :

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, certain of the expences incurred by the Board of Health for the burghs of Port Glasgow and Newark, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and in affording relief to persons suffering by, or likely to be affected with, the said disease :

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by both the before-recited Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that such Board of Health for Port Glasgow and Newark shall and may, by their chairman or secretary, apply to the acting chief magistrate of such burghs to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and commissioners of police of such burghs; which said meetings shall accordingly be summoned and convened by the proper officers as early as can conveniently be done after intimation of the time and place of holding the same; and at such meeting the said Board of Health shall and may apply for a certain sum of money, not exceeding the amount of three hundred and seventy-five pounds, to be levied by assessment on the united burghs of Port Glasgow and Newark, for the discharge of the expences reasonably and properly incurred in providing hospitals with suitable accommodations for the reception and cure of the sick, affording relief in fuel and medical necessaries and comforts, to the distressed and destitute inhabitants, and cleansing, whitewashing, and fumigating the houses of the poor, together with other necessary past expences, allowed and sanctioned by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council; and with power to apply to the said meeting for a further sufficient sum of money, not exceeding the amount of twenty-five pounds, for the discharge of further incidental expences since incurred by the said Board of Health for sanitary purposes; such Board of Health submitting to the said meeting vouchers to shew the necessity for such further sum of money; and the said meeting fixing the amount of the sum allowed for further incidental expences beyond the sum sanctioned by their Lordships:

And for the discharge and payment of their ascertained expences, it shall be lawful for the Board of Health for the united burghs of Port Glasgow and Newark, and such Board is hereby authorised and directed to make application, by its chairman or secretary, to the magistrates of the burgh, to contribute and advance such sum as may be necessary, either out of the assessments by the last-mentioned Act directed, or in the event of such assessments not being realized on the credit of such assessments:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things, which may be reasonably and properly done, by such Board of Health, burgh magistrates, commissioners of police, and others His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poor's rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas by an Order made on the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of twenty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health appointed for the town of Hythe, to the select vestry of that place, such vestry being duly convened in the manner in the said Order of the nineteenth day of July directed; when the vestry of the parish declined or avoided to give authority and directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide the said sum of twenty pounds, or any part thereof, such grant of money being applied for by the said Board of Health to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before-recited Act, and the measures of precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Order of their Lordships, founded thereon:

It is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order in Council of the nineteenth day of July last past as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed, in discharge of the necessary expences of such precautionary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered in so far as respects the said town of Hythe, and the sum of twenty pounds; and that the said

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by two several Orders in Council, issued by the Lords of the Privy Council, on the sixth day of March, and the nineteenth day of July, last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place, for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Orders described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been represented to their Lordships that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimated statement, accounts, and vouchers of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; hath been made by the Board of Health for the town of Cheltenham to the parish vestry of that place; when the vestry of the said parish of Cheltenham declined or avoided to give authority and directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide the said sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, or any part thereof; such grant of money being applied for by the said Board of Health to discharge the necessary expences of the sanitary and precautionary measures in the before-mentioned Orders prescribed:

It is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before recited Act, that so much of the said Orders in Council as require the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences of such precautionary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered in so far as respects the said town of Cheltenham, and the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds:

And that the said Board of Health for the town of Cheltenham shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish, commanding them to pay the said sum of one hundred and fifty pounds for the purposes aforesaid; out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which said last-mentioned order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.
