

told that several of the other Electors have made the like representation to his Imperial Majesty. There is a discourse that a Conference will be suddenly held at Hamburg between the Ministers of the King of Denmark, the Elector of Brandenburg and the Princes of Lunenbourg, but the occasion is not said. This week parted from hence the Baron Dorffing Marechal de Camp General of his Electoral Highnesses Troops, to take a review of them in the most considerable places of this Country.

Copenhagen, January 1. The King of Denmark has given out Commissions for the raising five Regiments of Horse, and we are told that there will be likewise a new Levy of Foot. The beginning of the last week arrived here an Express from Paris, who, it's said, brought his most Christian Majesties Ratifications of the Treaty of Alliance now renewed between the two Crowns. There is a discourse that our King intends to take a Journey for Holstein the next month, or the beginning of March; before which time it's hoped the Treaty of Accommodation between his Majesty and the Duke of Holstein Gottorp will be concluded through the Interposition of the Princes that do interest themselves therein. The Sieur Cojet Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sweden, is gone to pass the Holidays at a House he has in Schonen. It is said that his most Christian Majesty will send hither a Squadron of Men of War in the Spring.

Vienna, Jan. 9. The Levies that are making in the Hereditary Countries for the recruiting the Imperial Regiments, advance with good success, and according to all appearance the Officers will have completed them by the time limited. The Prince of Savoy passed some days ago through this place in his way to Hungary to visit his Regiment, lately commanded by the Count de Kuffstein, which is quartered at Newsol. The Count de Schorffsenberg and the Baron Dispendall, who commanded the Imperial Troops that lately took Leuschau, are arrived here from Hungary, and after some days stay in this place, will continue their journey for Lintz. The news we had of the Poles having made themselves Masters of the Town and Castle of Zeben, is confirmed; They took it by assault, and in their first fury put all they met with to the Sword. The Count de Humani and Count Bargotzi, having obtained the Emperor's Pardon, are come in with their Troops, and have undertaken to observe the Forces of Count Tecsekley, and to hinder their passing the Tibisque. The Letters from Gran say, that some persons came thither from the Turkish Territories, reported that the Grand Visier continued at Belgrade, having sent Officers into all the Provinces of the Ottoman Empire to raise Men, and to make other provision for the War. And from Newsol they write that the Turks at Newheusel are in great want of Provisions, and that their Parties were frequently abroad to see what they could get from the Country people.

Francfort, January 15. The Prince of Lubomirski is by this time arrived at Lintz to receive his Commission, as well as Money, for the raising a Regiment of Cuirassiers; and it's believed he will be advanced to some Eminent Command in the Emperor's Army for the good Services he performed during the last Campaign. Our Letters from Hungary tell us, that Count Tecsekley hath not been able to accomplish the design he had (and wherein he solicited the Turks to join with him,) of sal-ling upon the Imperialists in their Winter-quarters; and that after having passed to and fro among the Turks, he was returned with 600 men to a strong Castle in Hungary on the other side of the Tibisque, having this displeasure to see his Party become every day weaker by the desertion of those that have been the chief support of it. From Ratisbonne they write, that the Electoral Colledge had communicated to the Count de Creey, the French Minister there, their last Conclusion, by which they declare their adherence to their former resolutions for the excepting the Conditions proposed by his Most Christian Majesty to establish a firm Peace or a Truce between the Empire and that Crown.

Strasbourg, January 11. The 5th Instant the Count d'Alcyms Envoy from the Emperor to the most Christian King, passed through this place in his return home. The seventh arrived here Prince Louis of Baden, accompanied with several Persons of Quality, who came to the Fair that's now kept here; Our Governor the Marquis de Chamilly went with two Coaches with six Horses, and several led Horses to meet him, and at his entrance into the Town, he was saluted with the Cannon of the Fort of Kiel and the Citadel. Here hath been great rejoicing for the Birth of the Duke d'Anjou.

Hague, January 23. The Polish Resident here hath given the Prince of Orange an account of the King of Poland's return to Cracow, and of his having left the greatest part of his Forces to Winter in Hungary. The Heer Van Hairen Ambassador from this State to the King of Sweden, will now very suddenly begin his Journey.

Wells, January 19. On Monday last was brought hither the new Charter which His Majesty hath been Graciously pleased to Grant unto this Corporation. The Mayor, with several Gentlemen of Quality, and the most considerable Inhabitants of this place, making together 300 Horse, went several miles out of Town to receive it; And about half a mile from hence the Lord Bishop of this Diocese, being attended with all the Clergy, was pleased to meet this Company in his Coach, and to accompany them to the Town Hall, where the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen were Sworn; after which they returned to their several homes, the People expressing their Joy and Satisfaction, with repeated Shouts and Acclamations, and the whole Corporation manifesting the sense they have of His Majesty's Grace and Goodness towards them.

Three Commissions of Bankrupt having about seven years since been taken out against Page, Farrington, Nelthorp, and Thompson, the last being prosecuted near three years and half, was at the request of many of the Creditors afterward Superfeded, and Liberty granted to Farrington (Page and Nelthorp being dead, and Thompson not appearing) to go abroad and to get in the Estate to comply with an Agreement he made with them, which he has made that use of, that he has since paid and satisfied a very considerable Sum, and doth publish this to the end he may pay and satisfy all such other Creditors as are willing to take what the Estate in his hand will afford them. If they please to resort to Mr. John Greens Office, an Attorney in Ships Court in St. Bartholomew-Lane near the Royal Exchange, London.

Lost about the 5th Instant, a small Pocket Picture of a Gentleman, the same was in a little Tin Box with a piece of Crystal in order to be set. Whoever has taken it up, are earnestly desired to bring it to Mr. Richard Wheelers in York-Buildings in the Strand, or to Mr. Mann, or Mr. Winn at the Orphaner in Lombard-street, and they shall have a good Reward for their pains.
