AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 31st day of August 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian Cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by the said disease:

And whereas it was further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by an Order made on the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries :

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of fifty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health appointed for the town of Almondbury, to the select vestry of that place, such vestry being duly convened in the manner in the said Order of the nineteenth day of July directed ; when the select vestry declined or avoided to give authority and directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide the said sum of fifty pounds, or any part thereof, such grant of money being applied for by the said Board of Health to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before-recited Act, and the measures of preparation and precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Order of their Lordships, founded thereon :

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order in Council of the nineteenth day of July last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed, in discharge of the necessary expences of such precautionary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said town of Almondbury, and the sum of fifty pounds ; and that the said Board of Health for the town of Almondbury shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace, living in or near the parish or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish, commanding them to pay the said sum of fifty pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish ; which said order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act ; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order :

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poor's rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain; and the town of Bridport is at the present time afflicted with the same:

And whereas by two several Orders in Council, made on the sixth day of March and the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of preparation and precaution in the said Orders described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the said Orders in Council of the sixth day of March and of the nineteenth day of July last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed, in discharge of the necessary expences of such sanitary and precautionary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestries as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said town of Bridport and the said sum of one hundred pounds:

And the said Board of Health for the said town of Bridport shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to, make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of Bridport, commanding them to pay the said sum of one hundred pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next thereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which said order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, and in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of August 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one); by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations; or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas the said disease hath extended itself to many parts of Great Britain ; and the parish of Wednesbury, in the county of Stafford, and the districts surrounding the said parish have been, and now are, affected by the same :

And whereas the Board of Health appointed for the parish of Wednesbury, and other respectable inhabitants of the said parish have represented to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that a wake or wakes is or are intended to be holden within the parish of Wednesbury, on or about the ninth day of September in the present year, and that serious apprehensions are entertained that the spreading of the said disease may be very greatly increased by the assembling together of multitudes of persons for the purpose of holding or attending the said wake or wakes, and by the crowding together at such assemblies for the purpose of bull baiting and other amusements and by drunkenness and other debaucheries, and that it is expedient for the prevention of the spreading of the said disease, that their Lordships should issue their Order forbidding the holding or attending of the said wake or wakes, and the assembling together of any persons for the purposes of bull baiting and other amusements as aforesaid :

It is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State is one) that the chief constable and other parish officers and local authorities of the parish of Wednesbury, in the county of Stafford, shall and may, and he and they are hereby authorised and empowered and enjoined to act in this matter as to him and them shall in the exercise of their due discretion seem fit and proper :

And for that purpose the chief constable and parish officers, and local authorities of the parish of Wednesbury aforesaid, are hereby authorised and invested with full powers, and are hereby also required to forbid and prevent the holding or attending, in the present year, within the said parish, of any such wake or wakes as aforesaid, or the assembling of any persons for the purpose of bull baiting or other amusements thereat, or under pretence thereof, either on the said ninth day of September next, or on any other day or days, time or times, within the present year, and to that end the said chief constable, parish officers, and local authorities aforesaid, may do all such acts as they shall, in the exercise of their reasonable and proper discretion, consider necessary, either to prevent or disperse any such meeting or meetings, or to avert the dangers likely to arise therefrom to the public health of the inhabitants of the said parish in regard to the spreading of the disease, called cholera or spasmodic or Indian cholera :

Provided always, that nothing in this present Order of their Lordships contained shall extend, or be taken or construed to extend, to the investing of the said chief constable, parish officers, or local authorities of the parish of Wednesbury aforesaid with any power or authority (other and further than they are already by law invested) to interfere with, or forbid or prevent the holding or attending of, any such wake or wakes, or of any such crowds or assemblies as aforesaid, beyond the limits of this present year :

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by the said chief constable, parish officers, and local authorities aforesaid, in execution and furtherance of this present Order, and in the reasonable and proper exercise of the discretionary powers herein contained, this Order shall be his and their full and sufficient warrant.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of August 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented by the Lord Justice Clerk of Scotland, that the alarming prevalence of cholera in the city of Glasgow and the adjoining district, makes it desirable that the Court of Justiciary should be empowered to make an Act of Adjournal, for altering or postponing the period at which the different Autumnal Circuit Courts are now appointed to be held ; it is, therefore, hereby ordered in Council, that the said Court of Justiciary shall have power to alter or postpone the periods for holding such Circuit Courts in this present year, wherever the prevalence of contagious diseases shall render it necessary or highly expedient for the public safety that they should be so altered or postponed, and for this purpose to make such Act or Acts of Adjournal as may be necessary for settling the terms of such alteration or postponement.
