FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1832.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, September 6, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's Levees will be discontinued till further orders.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 5th day of September 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas the said disease hath extended itself to many parts of Great Britain ; and the city of Exeter, and the districts surrounding the said city have been, and now are, grievously affected by the same :

And whereas the visiting magistrates of the Devon county prison, and certain respectable inhabitants of the said city of Exeter, have represented to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that in the event of prisoners dying of the said disease of cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, within the walls of any of the prisons of the said city, there may arise great danger to the lives of the jurymen attending the inquest of the coroner held upon the bodies of such prisoners, and such jurymen have in consequence lately objected to attend thereon ; also that serious apprehensions are entertained of the increase and spreading of the said disease within and without the walls of the said prisons, inasmuch as there is no coroner resident within sixteen miles of such city, and it has frequently happened that a body has remained uninterred for three or four days, from the difficulty of procuring the attendance of a coroner at such prisons :

And whereas it does appear to the Lords of the Privy Council fit and expedient, in order to avoid the danger likely to arise to such jurors, and for the prevention of the increase and spreading of the said disease, to issue an Order, dispensing with the holding of inquests in the prisons of the said city:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), that the gaoler or keeper of every prison in the said city shall and may, and he is hereby authorised and empowered, on the certificate in writing of the gaol surgeon, that any prisoner has died of the said disease of cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, within the walls of such prison, to bury, or cause to be buried, the body of such prisoner, within twenty-four hours after his or her decease, without any coroner or jury being summoned, or an inquest held upon the same:

Provided always, that nothing in this present Order contained, shall extend, or be taken or construed to extend, to the investing of the said gaolers or keepers with any power or authority to omit, or forbid or prevent, the holding of inquests by the coroner upon the bodies of persons dying in prison, beyond the limits of the present year:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by the said gaolers and keepers, and others His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 31st day of August 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian Cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic; or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by the said disease:

And whereas it was further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which shall be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by an Order made on the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of fifty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health appointed for the town of Almondbury, to the select vestry of that place, such vestry being duly convened in the manner in the said Order of the nineteenth day of July directed; when the select vestry declined or avoided to give authority and directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide the said sum of fifty pounds, or any part thereof, such grant of money being applied for by the said Board of Health to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before-recited Act, and the measures of preparation and precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Order of their Lordships, founded thereon:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order in Council of the nineteenth day of July last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed, in discharge of the necessary expences of such precautionary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said town of Almondbury, and the sum of fifty pounds; and that the said Board of Health for the town of Almondbury shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace, living in or near the parish or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish, commanding them to pay the said sum of fifty pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which said order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 15th day of August 1832,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported in any of the British possessions in America by sea, or from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, except into or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table of the said Act of Parliament contained:

And it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or place not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports, and it is enacted, that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to the port of the island of Auguilla; His Majesty doth therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the said Act of Parliament, and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, the provisions of the said Act of Parliament respecting free ports shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the said port of the island of Auguilla:

And the Right Honourable the Lord Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Whitehall, September 7, 1832.

THE following Addresses to the King, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Gracious Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of the town of Leith, in public meeting assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Inhabitants of the town of Leith, beg to approach your Most Gracious Majesty with the most ardent feelings of loyalty and attachment to the Throne and to your Majesty's Person.

We beg to express the deep gratitude we entertain towards your Gracious Majesty for the great charter of freedom, which is contained in the acts now happily passed, for amending the representation of the people of Great Britain and Ireland, and for the success of which the country is indebted to the declaration made by your Majesty, that no Ministers should be admitted to your Councils, who would not pledge themselves to carry through an extensive reform in the representation.

And as in no part of the empire has the transition from being without any voice whatever in that representation, to the obtaining a due influence therein, been more conspicuous than in this large and populous town, we trust that in no quarter does a stronger or more anxious desire exist, that your Majesty may long continue to rule over them as the Sovereign of a free, a happy, and a united people.

Signed in name and by authority of the meeting, at Leith, this 22d day of August 1832 years, James Sceales, sen. Magistrate.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of Kirriemuir.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, Inhabitants of the burgh of barony of Kirriemuir, county of Forfar, in public meeting assembled on this day of jubilee, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty to express our gratitude and joy at the successful termination of the reform measure, which, under the sanction of your Majesty, has now become the law of the land; and, in doing so, we would humbly entreat your Majesty to continue your support to those patriotic and illustrious Statesmen, by whose instrumentality this mighty nation has been preserved from the direful consequences of those intestine commotions, which the aspect of the late struggle at one time but too plainly indicated.

Considering the lustre which this act has added to your reign, and anticipating the benefits which, national and personal, will flow from it, we cannot deny ourselves the opportunity now afforded us, of expressing our loyalty and affection for your Majesty's Person and Government; and that your Majesty, together with your Royal Consort, may long continue to sway the sceptre of these realms over a free, a loyal, and a happy people, is the most ardent and sincere prayer of your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects.

In name and in presence of the meeting,
James Angus, Chairman.
