

many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas an Order in Council was issued by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth day of March last past, empowering every Board of Health, constituted by virtue of an Order of His Majesty's Privy Council, to apply to the acting chief magistrate of any burgh, or the minister, or any three of the resident heritors, of any parish for which Boards of Health are appointed, to convene a meeting of the resident heritors, and agents for non-resident heritors, together with the tenants paying fifty pounds or upwards of yearly rent, and the members of the kirk sessions of every landward parish, or landward part of a parish, and to apply to such meeting for the authority and powers therein mentioned, and for funds to defray the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said meeting, and further directing the proceedings to be taken at such meeting, and the course to be pursued by such Boards of Health consequent upon the determinations of such meetings:

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences for sanitary purposes, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to upwards of fifty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the parish of Kirkmabreck and burgh of Creetown, to the meeting of burgh magistrates and resident householders in the burgh of Creetown, and to the heritors and tenants of the landward parish, or landward part of the parish, of Kirkmabreck; when such meeting declined or avoided to give authority and directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the precautionary purposes of the Act before recited, and the Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by both the before-recited Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that so much of the Order of the tenth day of March last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences, to be fixed and declared by such meeting of magistrates and householders for burghs, and of heritors, tenants, and kirk sessions for every landward parish, or landward part of a parish, as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parish of Kirkmabreck and the said burgh of Creetown, and the sum of fifty pounds; and that the said Board of Health for the parish of Kirkmabreck and the burgh of Creetown shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to apply, by their chairman or secretary, to the magistrates and heritors, to raise the said sum of fifty pounds, by special assessments to be levied in the form and manner by such last-recited Act prescribed, and which assessments such magistrates and heritors are hereby required to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by such Act:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things which may be properly done by the said Board of Health, burgh magistrates, heritors, or their special mandatories, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.
