

Patrick Dun, in the city of Dublin, is now vacant, in consequence of the death of the late James John Leahy, M. D.; and that on Tuesday the 18th day of December next, at twelve o'clock, the electors appointed by and in virtue of said Act will proceed to the election of a Professor of the Practice of Medicine, in the room of the said James John Leahy, M. D. deceased, at the house of the Provost of Trinity College, in the city of Dublin.

The emoluments of said Professorship consist of such fees for lectures as may be regulated by the President and Fellows of the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland; said fees being at present, four guineas paid by each Student for attendance on each course of lectures on the Practice of Medicine; and of three guineas paid by each Student for each course of Clinical Lectures; and of a fixed annual salary of one hundred pounds, late Irish currency.

Said Professorship is open to persons of all nations, professing their faith in Christ, provided they shall have taken medical degrees, or shall have obtained a licence to practice from the said College of Physicians; in consequence of a testimonium under the seal of Trinity College, Dublin.

All persons intending to offer themselves as Candidates must send in their names, the places of their education, the Universities in which they have taken their medical degrees, and the places where they have practiced, both to the Registrar of Trinity College, Dublin, and to the Registrar of the King and Queen's College of Physicians, in Ireland, on or before Friday the 14th day of December ensuing, to be by them laid before the two Colleges respectively.

Robert Phipps, Registrar of Trinity College, Dublin.

David Brereton, M. D. Registrar of the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland, 12, York-street, Dublin.
