ing to Mr. Charles Wright, Solicitor, of No. 26, Little Alie-Street, Goodman's-Fields, will hear of something to their advantage.

IF Ann Hewson, formerly of Gainsburgh, in the County of Lincoln, but late of London, Spinster, daughter of William Hewson, late of Scotter, in the County of Lincoln, Miller, deceased, if living, or her personal representatives in case she be dead, will apply to Mr. J. BeMamy, Solicitor, in Gainsburgh, in the County of Lincoln, or to the undersigned, she or they may hear of something to their advantage.

CHAS. BELL, 36, Bedford-Row, London.

THE Assignees under the conveyance and assignment made by William Owbridge, late of Haxey, in the County of Lincoln, Tailor, for the equal benefit of his Creditors, bearing date the 16th day of December 1831, intend to meet on the 3d day of October next, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Mr. Richard Dawson, Solicitor, in Epworth, in the same County, to make a first and final dividend of the estate and effects of the said William Owbridge; and such of his Creditors as shall not execute such conveyance and assignment, and accept the provisions thereof, before or at the said meeting, will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Falconer v. West, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Royal Hotel, Margate, in the County of Kent, on Monday the 24th day of September 1832, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in five lots; A valuable freehold estate, consisting of five brick-built family houses, eligibly situated Nos. 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10, in Cecil-Square, Margate aforesaid.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Watson and Sons, Solicitors, Bouverie-Street, Fleet-Street; and at the Royal Hotel aforesaid.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 26th day of March 1832, made by his Honour the Vice-Chancellor, in the matter of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending the laws respecting conveyances and transfers of estates, and funds vested in Trustees and Mortgagees, and for enabling courts of equity to give effect to their Decrees and Orders in certain cases," it was ordered, that it should be referred to the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, as the Master of the said Court in rotation, to enquire and state to the Court whether the legal estate of a certain estate and premises, in the said Order mentioned, is vested in the representative or heir at law of the last surviving Trustee named in a certain deed of trust for the Parish of St. Leonard, Eastcheap, in the City of London; and if the said Master should find that it is so vested, then it was ordered, that the said Master should cause two successive advertisements to be inserted in the London Gazette, and in one or more newspapers to be circulated in the county, city, or place where the said estate is situated, giving notice that the representative or heir of the last surviving Trustee named and appointed in and by the indenture, bearing date the 16th day of September 1713, in the said Order mentioned, should, within twenty-eight days, appear or give notice of his title to the said Master, and prove his pedigree or other title as Trustee; and in case no person should appear to give such notice within twenty-eight days, or the person who might appear or give such notice should not, within thirty-one days after such appearance or notice, prove his title to the satisfaction of the said Master, then and in such case it was ordered, that it should be referred to the said Master to approve of and appoint proper persons to be appointed Trustees of the said estate and premises; and in such case also it was ordered, that the said Master should approve of a proper person to convey and assure the freehold and inheritance of the said estate and premises, in the place of the representative or heir at law of the last surviving Trustee of the said indenture of the 16th day of September 1713, to the new Trustees so to be appointed, and their heirs, upon the trusts to which the said estate and premises are now subject; the estate in question consists of three messuages or dwelling-houses, being Nos. 43, 44, and 45, on the east side of Fish-Street-Hill, and situate in the Parishes of Saint Leonard, Eastcheap, and Saint Margaret, New Fish-Street, in the City of London; and by the said indenture, dated the 16th day of September 1713, the said estate was conveyed to Charles Johnson; Abraham Parfett,
