AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 27th day of September 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas by another Act, passed in the same second year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, so to be made as in the said before-mentioned Act provided or sanctioned, after they are incurred by any such Order, shall, whenever the occasion of such expence has arisen within any city, burgh, or town, be levied and defrayed by a special assessment to be made from time to time for this purpose, by authority of the magistrates of such city, burgh, or town, in the manner therein prescribed; and where the occasion of expence shall arise in any landward parish (or in the landward part of any parish containing any burgh, or part of a burgh), the same shall be levied by a special assessment, to be from time to time made by the heritors, or their special mandatories, of such parish, or landward part of a parish, upon the owners and occupants of the lands, houses, and other heritages within the said parish, or landward part of a parish, in the manner therein set forth.

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain; and the parish of Loudoun hath been, and now is, affected by the same :

And whereas two several Orders in Council were issued by the Lords of the Privy Council, on the tenth day of March and the twenty-third day of July last past, empowering every Board of Health, constituted by virtue of an Order of His Majesty's Privy Council, to apply to the acting chief magistrate of any burgh, or the minister, or any three of the resident heritors, of any parish for which Boards of Health are appointed, to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and members of the kirk sessions, and resident householders occupying houses rated to the house duty, at twelve pounds or upwards of yearly value, in any burgh, and the resident heritors, and agents for non-resident heritors, together with the tenants paying fifty pounds of yearly rent, and the members of the kirk sessions of every landward parish, or landward part of a parish, and to apply to such meeting for the authority and powers therein mentioned, and for funds to defray the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said meeting, and further directing the proceedings to be taken at such meeting, and the course to be pursued by such Boards of Health consequent upon the determinations of such meetings :

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences for sanitary purposes, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of fifty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the parish of Loudoun, to the meeting of burgh magistrates and resident householders in the parish of Loudoun, and to the heritors and tenants of the landward parish, or landward part of the parish, of Loudoun, when the heritors and tenants at such meeting declined or avoided to give authority and directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide for the proportionate share of the expences of carrying into effect the precautionary purposes of the Act before recited, and the Order of their Lordships founded thereon.

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State is one), proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, certain of the expences incurred by the Board of Health for the parish of Loudoun, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease :

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by both the before-recited Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that so much of the Order of the tenth day of March last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences, to be fixed and declared by such meeting of magistrates and householders for burghs, and of heritors, tenants, and kirk sessions for every landward parish, or landward part of a parish, as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parish of Loudoun, and the sum of fifty pounds; and that the said Board of Health for the parish of Loudoun, shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to apply, by their chairman or secretary, to the magistrates and heritors, to raise the said sum of fifty pounds by a special assessment upon the owners and occupants of the lands, houses, and other heritages within the parish, to be levied in the mode of the poor rate assessment, or in such other manner and form as is by such last-recited Act prescribed; and which assessments such magistrates and heritors are hereby required to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by such Act; and with power to apply to a like meeting of magistrates, commissioners, heritors, and tenants, for a further sum of money, not exceeding the amount of thirty pounds, for further incidental expences since incurred by the said Board of Health for sanitary purposes; such Board of Health submitting to the said meeting vouchers to shew the expenditure of such further sum of money; and the said meeting fixing the amount of the sum allowed for further incidental expences beyond the sum sanctioned by their Lordships :

And for the discharge and payment of past expences, such Board of Health shall and may, and it is hereby empowered and authorised, by its chairman or secretary, to make application to any two of the principal heritors of the parish, to contribute and advance such sum of fifty pounds, on the credit of such assessments as before directed :

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things, which may be properly done by the said Board of Health, burgh magistrates, heritors, or their special mandatories, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 22d day of September 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas the said disease hath extended itself to many parts of Great Britain; and the town of Manchester, and the New Bailey Prison of the said town have been, and now are, grievously affected by the same :

And whereas the committee of visiting magistrates of the said New Bailey Prison, by a memorial, bearing date the twentieth day of September instant, and the surgeon to the said prison, in a report accompanying the said memorial, have represented to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that notwithstanding all proper precautionary measures had been taken to prevent the introduction of the said disease of cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, therein, such disease had broken out within the walls of the said prison, and the number of prisoners attacked with the said disease was daily increasing; and the ordinary prison hospital, with the addition of a temporary hospital furnished for the purpose, was found quite insufficient for the reception of those who applied for admission thereto; and further stating, that it is quite impossible to provide within the prison sufficient accommodation for the prisoners already affected with the said disease, so as to give them a fair chance of recovery, but that in the cholera hospital of the town such patients might receive the attendance and comforts essential to their situation under safe confinement; and further representing, that there are at present five hundred and twenty prisoners in the same gaol, to all of whom, from want of sufficient space to effect a separation of sick from healthy prisoners, the said disease may extend:

And, whereas it doth appear to the Lords of His Majesty's Privy Council, under all the circumstances of this case, fit and expedient, in order to afford accommodation and relief to persons suffering under the said disease, and to avoid the danger to which the other inmates of the prison are exposed, and for the prevention of the increase and spreading of the said disease, to issue an Order, authorising the said committee of visiting magistrates to remove all such persons as are, or hereafter may be, affected with the said disease, as occasion shall require, from the said prison to the cholera hospital of the said town:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), that the committee of visiting magistrates for the said prison shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, on the certificate of the gaol surgeon, that any prisoner is affected by the said disease of cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, to require and direct, by an order in writing, signed by the chairman of the said committee, the removal of every such prisoner to the cholera hospital of the said town; and the gaoler and keeper of the said New Bailey Prison is hereby commanded and enjoined to pay due and ready obedience to the orders and directions of the said visiting magistrates touching the matter aforesaid: and when the purpose for which the said prisoners shall have been so removed shall be answered, and the disease shall have ceased to exist within the said prison, it shall and may be lawful for the said magistrates, by a like order in writing, to direct the said gaoler or keeper of such prison to remove back to the New Bailey Prison, from whence the prisoners came, all such prisoners as shall then remain in custody, such prisoners being fully restored to health and fit to be removed:

Provided always, that nothing in the present Order contained shall extend, or be held or taken to extend, to prevent the secure guarding and keeping of all such prisoners removed under the authority of the present Order within the cholera hospital of the said town, or to interfere with or prevent the due exercise of the sheriff's or other officer's authority to secure the safe return of all such prisoners to their proper custody in the said New Bailey Prison, when and so soon as the before-mentioned causes of their removal shall be determined:

Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to investing the said visiting magistrates with any new power or authority for the removal of prisoners beyond the limits of the present year:

And all turnkeys and tipstiffs, all police and peace officers, all constables and headboroughs, and all other His Majesty's subjects, are hereby required to be aiding and assisting in the execution of this present Order:

And the Lords of His Majesty's Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things which may be necessarily, reasonably, and properly done by the said visiting magistrates, sheriff, gaolers or keepers of the said prison, turnkeys, tipstiffs, constables or peace officers, and others His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of September 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof; or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas by another Act, passed in the same second year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is amongst other things enacted, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred in carrying into effect any Order or Orders of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, so to be made as in the said before mentioned Act provided, or sanctioned after they are incurred by any such Order, shall, whenever the occasion of such expence has arisen within any city, burgh, or town, be levied and defrayed by a special assessment to be made from time to time for this purpose by authority of the magistrates of such city, burgh, or town, in the manner therein prescribed, and where the occasion of expence shall arise in any landward parish (or in the landward part of any parish containing any burgh, or part of a burgh), the same shall be levied by a special assessment, to be from time to time made by the heritors, or their special mandatories, of such parish, or landward part of a parish, upon the owners and occupants of the lands, houses, and other heritages within the said parish, or landward part of a parish, in the manner therein set forth :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain; and the burgh and parish of Kilmarnock have been, and now are, affected by the same :

And whereas two several Orders in Council were issued by the Lords of the Privy Council, on the tenth day of March and the twenty-third day of July last past, empowering every Board of Health, constituted by virtue of an Order of His Majesty's Privy Council, to apply to the acting chief magistrate of any burgh, or the minister or any three of the resident heritors of any parish for which Boards of Health are appointed, to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and members of the kirk sessions, and resident householders occupying houses rated to the house duty at twelve pounds or upwards of yearly value, in any burgh, and the resident heritors, and agents for non-resident heritors, together with the tenants paying fifty pounds of yearly rent, and the members of the kirk sessions of every landward parish, or landward part of a parish, and to apply to such meeting for the authority and powers therein mentioned, and for funds to defray the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said meeting, and further directing the proceedings to be taken at such meeting, and the course to be pursued by such Boards of Health, consequent upon the determinations of such meetings :

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences for sanitary purposes, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of six hundred pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the burgh and parish of Kilmarnock, to the meeting of burgh magistrates and resident householders in the burgh of Kilmarnock, and to the heritors and tenants of the landward parish, or landward part of the parish, of Kilmarnock; when such meeting consented to give authority and directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the precautionary purposes of the Act before recited, and the Order of their Lordships founded thereon; but the landward part of the parish hath since declined or avoided to bear its proportionate share of such necessary expences :

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, certain of the expences incurred by the Board of Health for the burgh and parish of Kilmarnock, in taking measures for the prevention of the spread of the said disease, and in affording relief to persons suffering by, or likely to be affected with, the said disease :

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by both the before-recited Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Board of Health for Kilmarnock, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to apply, by their chairman or secretary, to the heritors, or their special mandatories in such parish, to raise any sum of money, not exceeding the amount of two hundred and sixty-three pounds eleven shillings and sixpence three farthings, its proportionate share of all such necessary expences, by a special assessment upon the owners and occupants of the lands, houses, and other heritages within the parish, to be levied in the mode of the poor rate assessment, or in such other manner and form as is by such last recited Act provided; and which assessment such heritors are hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in them by such Acts :

And for the discharge and payment of certain expences heretofore reasonably and properly incurred by the said Board of Health, not exceeding a moiety of the said sum of two hundred and sixty-three pounds eleven shillings and sixpence three farthings, such Board of Health shall and may, and it is hereby empowered and enabled to make application, by its chairman or secretary, to any two of the principal heritors of the parish, to contribute and advance such sum of one hundred and thirty pounds and upwards, on the credit of such assessment :

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things which may be properly done by the said Board of Health, burgh magistrates, heritors, or their special mandatories, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

NAVIGATION OF THE BRISTOL CHANNEL.

Trinity-House, London, August 23, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given that, in conformity with the intention expressed in the advertisement from this House, bearing date the 2d ultimo, the lights in the two Light-houses which have been erected by this Corporation upon the Nash Point, in the county of Glamorgan, will be exhibited on the evening of Saturday the 1st day of September next, and thenceforth continued every night from sun-set to sun rise, for the greater facility of navigation.

Further particulars, with sailing directions, will be forthwith published.

By order,

J. Herbert, Secretary.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

NASH LIGHTS.

Trinity-House, London, September 6, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Light Towers recently erected upon the Nash Point, in the county of Glamorgan, are situated from each other, S. 58° E. and N. 58° W. distant 1000 feet; and that the lights exhibited therein are fixed or stationary—the eastern, or upper light, burning 167 feet, and the western, or lower light, 123 feet above the level of the sea at high water, the brilliancy of which respectively will be visible; the high light, from S. E. b. S. to N. W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W. and the low light, from S. b. E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E. to N. b. W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W. but in particular states of the atmosphere, and when not distant from them, they may be seen faintly beyond those bearings.

Masters of vessels and others, sailing up the Bristol Channel in the fairway, will make these lights as two separate and distinct lights, and to prevent the possibility, under peculiar circumstances, of mistaking them for those upon St. Ann's Point, it may be well to observe, that in making the lights upon the Nash Point from the south westward, the high light will be seen to the right, or southward, of the low light; whereas in making the St. Ann's Lights from the same quarter, the high light will be observable to the left, or northward, of the low light.

These lights, in a line, lead to the southward of the Sands lying to the westward of the Nash Point; but from the proximity of the Nash Sand to that Point, they must, of a consequence, carry near the south eastern part of that Sand, and at the distance of half a mile from the Point, not more than a cable's length from it.

Masters of vessels are, therefore, cautioned to keep the high light open to the southward of the low light, when approaching the Nash Point; and in proceeding to the eastward, the high light upon a bearing of N. W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  N. will lead clear of the Foul Ground off Breaksea Point, and between the One Fathom Bank and Culver Sand, until the Flatholm Light is brought upon a bearing, to enable them to steer to the eastward, as heretofore.

By order,

J. Herbert, Secretary.

*Admiralty, Somerset-Place,
September 26, 1832.*

HALF-PAY TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the receipt in the Wages Department at the Admiralty-office, Somerset-place, of the affidavit required from each Officer by His Majesty's Orders in Council, a bill for the amount of the half-pay due will be made out in this Department, which will be payable by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, on the following days, viz.

On the 15th, 16th, and 17th of October, to Admirals, Captains, Commanders and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

On the 18th and 19th of October, to Lieutenants at 7s. and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 22d, 23d, 24th, and 25th of October, to all other Lieutenants, and their Attorneys.

On the 26th and 29th of October, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

After which the half-pay will be payable on the first and third Wednesday in every month.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay in person, are requested to transmit their affidavits to the Secretary of the Admiralty immediately on the expiration of each quarter; also those employing agents should as promptly furnish their agents with their affidavits, as unless such documents are early delivered into this Office, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce their letters of leave, or attested copies thereof, before the half-pay can be paid.

Or (under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy) in any of the following modes, viz.

1st. By drawing a bill for the amount.

2d. By a remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence.

3d. By extract, upon which those Officers who reside in the neighbourhood of a Dock-yard, where there is an establishment of Pay Clerks, may be paid:

If they wish to receive it by bill of exchange, they are to give notice thereof, by letter, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked, in the corner, "Half-pay, Accountant-General," and thereupon the proper form will be sent to them.

If they wish to have it remitted to them, they must give a like notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked in the same manner, and a bill will thereupon be made out and transmitted to them.

If they reside near a Dock-yard, and desire to receive it there, they are to give notice of such desire to the Superintendent, in order that the necessary measures may be taken for obtaining the requisite extract from the Half-pay List, and the consequent authority for payment.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.
