FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1832.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of October 1832,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the sixteenth day of October instant, be further prorogued to Tuesday the eleventh day of December next.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 10th day of October 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by two several Orders in Council, bearing date the sixth day of March and the nineteenth day of July last past, and issued by the

Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of their Lordships, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Orders described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries :

And whereas it hath been represented to their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimated statement, accounts, and vouchers of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for Lewes, to the vestry meetings of the respective parishes of Saint Peter and Saint Mary Westout, otherwise Saint Ann, Saint Michael, Saint John under the Castle, All Saints, Saint Thomas in the Cliffe, South Malling, and Southover, such several vestries being all duly convened; when the vestry of the parish of Saint Thomas in the Cliffe consented to grant to the said Board of Health the sum of fourteen pounds, being its proportionate share of the sum of ninety-four pounds, and the parish of Saint Peter and Saint Mary Westout, otherwise Saint Ann, granted the sum of eight pounds, but the vestry of the parish of Saint Michael declined to comply with the application of the Board of Health for the sum of eleven pounds, and the sum of twenty-four pounds was refused by the parish of Saint John, and the sum of twenty-one pounds by the parish of All Saints, seven pounds by South Malling parish, and eight pounds by the parish of Saint John the Baptist Southover; such several sums being the proportionate shares of the said parishes in the aggregate amount of ninety-four pounds, or a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds, applied for by the said Board of Health to discharge the necessary expences of the sanitary and precautionary measures in the before-mentioned Orders prescribed :

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the said Orders in Council, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences of such sanitary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestries as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parishes of Saint Michael, Saint John under the Castle, All Saints, South Malling, and Saint John the Baptist Southover, and the said several sums of eleven pounds, twenty-four pounds, twenty-one pounds, seven pounds, and eight pounds :

And that the said Board of Health for Lewes shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the said town, to make his five several orders, in writing, one upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the parish of Saint Michael, commanding them to pay the said sum of eleven pounds; one upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the parish of Saint John under the Castle, commanding them to pay the said sum of twenty-four pounds; one upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the parish of All Saints, commanding them to pay the said sum of twenty-one pounds; one upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the parish of South Malling, commanding them to pay the said sum of seven pounds; and one upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the parish of Saint John the Baptist Southover, commanding them to pay the said sum of eight pounds; such several sums to be paid, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parishes respectively; which said several orders such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such several sums of money in obedience to the orders of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order :

do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

W. L. Bathurst.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 6th day of October 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poor's rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same:

And whereas by two several Orders in Council, bearing date the sixth day of March and the nineteenth day of July last past, and issued by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of their Lordships, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place, for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Orders described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of the Privy Council, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate, statement, and accounts of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of five hundred pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for Oldham to the select vestry of the township of Oldham, when such vestry declined or avoided to give authority and directions to the said Board of Health, and to provide the said sum of five hundred pounds, or any part thereof; such grant of money being applied for by the said Board of Health to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before-recited Act, and the measures of preparation and precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Order of their Lordships founded thereon:

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords of the Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Council, certain of the expences proposed in the estimate and statement so submitted by the said Board of Health for Oldham to the vestry of such township as aforesaid:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the said Orders in Council, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences of such precautionary and sanitary measures to be fixed and declared by the select or parish vestry, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said township of Oldham, and the sum of three hundred pounds:

And that the said Board of Health for Oldham shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the said township, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said township, commanding them to pay the said sum of three hundred pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such township; which said last-mentioned order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things reasonably and properly done by such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.
