TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1832.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of October 1832,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as, if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the ports of Liverpool and Yarmouth, in the province of Nova Scotia, should respectively be appointed free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said ports of Liverpool and Yarmouth, in the province of Nova Scotia, shall respectively be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of October 1832,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the sixteenth day of October instant, be further prorogued to Tuesday the eleventh day of December next.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 10th day of October 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be pos"sible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poor's rate of the parish nearest adjoining.

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same :

And whereas by two several Orders in Council, bearing date the sixth day of March and the nineteenth day of July last past, and issued by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of their Lordships, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Orders described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries :

And whereas it hath been represented to their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimated statement, accounts, and vouchers of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for Lewes, to the vestry meetings of the respective parishes of Saint Peter and Saint Mary Westout, otherwise Saint Ann, Saint Michael, Saint John under the Castle, All Saints, Saint Thomas in the Cliffe, South Malling, and Southover, such several vestries being all duly convened; when the vestry of the parish of Saint Thomas in the Cliffe consented to grant to the said Board of Health the sum of fourteen pounds, being its proportionate share of the sum of ninety-four pounds, and the parish of Saint Peter and Saint Mary Westout, otherwise Saint Ann, granted the sum of eight pounds, but the vestry of the parish of Saint Michael declined to comply with the application of the Board of Health for the sum of eleven pounds, and the sum of twenty-four pounds was refused by the parish of Saint John, and the sum of twenty-one pounds by the parish of All Saints, seven pounds by South Malling parish, and eight pounds by the parish of Saint John the Baptist Southover; such several sums being the proportionate shares of the said parishes in the aggregate amount of ninety-four pounds, or a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds, applied for by the said Board of Health to discharge the necessary expences of the sanitary and precautionary measures in the before-mentioned Orders prescribed :

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the said Orders in Council, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences of such sanitary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestries as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parishes of Saint Michael, Saint John under the Castle, All Saints, South Malling, and Saint John the Baptist Southover, and the said several sums of eleven pounds, twenty-four pounds, twenty-one pounds, seven pounds, and eight pounds :

And that the said Board of Health for Lewes shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the said town, to make his five several orders, in writing, one upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the parish of Saint Michael, commanding them to pay the said sum of eleven pounds; one upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the parish of Saint John under the Castle, commanding them to pay the said sum of twenty-four pounds; one upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the parish of All Saints, commanding them to pay the said sum of twenty-one pounds; one upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the parish of South Malling, commanding them to pay the said sum of seven pounds; and one upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the parish of Saint John the Baptist Southover, commanding them to pay the said sum of eight pounds; such several sums to be paid, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parishes respectively; which said several orders such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act ; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such several sums of money in obedience to the orders of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

W. L. Bathurst.

Foreign-Office, October 16, 1832.

The King has been graciously pleased to approve of Mr. Henry Kaeser, as Consul at Gibraltar for His Majesty the King of Bavaria.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Oxford.

Thomas Augustus Wolstenholme Parker, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant. Dated 21st August 1832.

Whitehall, October 16, 1832.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Monday the 8th day of October instant, or early on the following morning, a stack of hay, the property of Richard Hayward Alexander, of Corsham, in the county of Wilts, Esq. standing, with other stacks of hay, in a paddock adjoining his dwelling-house and premises, in the town of Corsham, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—£100 of such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury; and £100 by the said Richard Hayward Alexander and the Chippenham Prosecution Society, on application at the offices of Mr. Locke, in Chippenham.

MELBOURNE

Admiralty-Office, January 11, 1832.

NAVAL HALF-PAY.

TO avoid the inconvenience and delay which has sometimes occurred in the payment of Naval Half-pay, by the irregular transmission of affidavits; the Commissioned and Warrant Officers of His Majesty's Navy, residing within the United Kingdom, and receiving their Half-pay through Agents, are hereby desired to transmit their affidavits to such Agents within ten days, at most, after the expiration of each quarter, so as to enable the Agents to receive the amount due on the days regularly appointed for the payment of the respective ranks.

George Elliot.

Rye Harbour:

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills in order to obtain an Act or Acts to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of an Act, passed in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for discontinuing the new Harbour of Rye, in the county of Sussex, and for repealing several Acts relating thereto, and for providing for the discharge of debt accrued on account thereof, and for making reparation for certain losses, and for the improvement of the old Harbour of Rye;" and also to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of an Act, passed in the forty-first year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for more effectually improving and maintaining the old Harbour of Rye, in the county of Sussex;" and also to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of another Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the forty-first year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act for the more effectually improving and maintaining the old Harbour of Rye, in the county of Sussex, and to appoint new Commissioners, and to enable the Commissioners to raise additional funds on the tolls, by way of mortgage, or otherwise;" and to empower the Commissioners of the said harbour to alter, vary, enlarge, diminish, straighten, and improve the course of the present harbour channel, from a place called Scot's-float-sluiice, on the eastern side of the town of Rye, and from a place called Tillingham-sluiice, on the western side of the said town, to the mouth of the said harbour, and to rebuild or repair the said last-mentioned sluiice, and bridge over it; and to embank certain salt marshlands, respectively situated in the several parishes of Rye, Winchelsea, Icklesham, Guildford (otherwise Guldeford, or East Guldeford), Playden (otherwise Playdon), and Iden, all in the county of Sussex, and to receive a compensation in money from the several owners or occupiers of such lands respectively for the doing thereof; and to empower the said Commissioners to allow such compensation to be secured upon the said lands, by mortgage thereof, and to make, erect, do, and maintain such other works as may be necessary for the better preservation and improvement of the said harbour; and also to empower the Commissioners of the Brede Levels, in the county of Sussex, to put in a dam at that part of the Channel called Bridge Point (leading from the Brede Channel to the Rock Channel); and also to empower the said Commissioners of the Brede Levels to alter, repair, or rebuild the sluice called the Bridge Point-sluice, so as to make the same a navigable tidal sluice, in order that a navigation, free of toll, may be had up the said channel to a bridge called Brede-bridge, and to erect, build, and maintain a bridge, and to make a carriage road, over the said last-mentioned sluice, and also to make and maintain a road over the said dam, and to make a public carriage road for all vehicles, cattle, and persons to pass, without paying toll, from a certain part of the high road leading from Rye to Winchelsea, opposite the Martello-tower, on the north side of the said road, numbered 30, to the said bridge to be erected over the said Bridge Point-sluice, and from thence to the mouth of the said harbour, on the western side thereof, which said road will pass over, through, or in the parishes of Rye and Icklesham, or one of them, in the said county of Sussex, and for appropriating so much of the rates and dues of the said harbour as may be necessary for making and keeping the said road in repair on each side of the bridge intended to be erected over the said Bridge Point-sluice, and to alter and increase the duties payable on the tonnage of ships or vessels trading to or from or using the said port and harbour; and also to authorise and empower the said Commissioners to purchase the light-houses belonging to the Corporation of Rye, situate in the parish of Winchelsea, and to make such compensation as they may consider fair for the wharfs adjoining the said harbour to the owners thereof; and also to empower the said Commissioners to appoint proper persons for pilots, with such qualifications, and subject to such regulations, as the said Commissioners may consider necessary; and also to authorise and empower body or bodies politic or corporate to sell such of the lands to be embanked as belong to such body or bodies politic or corporate; and for other purposes relating to or connected with the said harbour.—Dated this 1st day of October 1832.

David Manset, Clerk to the Commissioners of Rye Harbour.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, October 1, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply

BEEF and MUTTON, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned Counties and Island,

Gloucester, Rutland,
Hauts, Warwick,
Isle of Wight,

In the several Counties in North Britain;

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 1st day of December next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Wednesday the 7th day of November next; but none will be received after eleven o'clock on that day.

Proposals must be made separately for each county and island, except for the several counties in North Britain, which must be included in one tender; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied by virtue of the same, the amount of the stamps on the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, will be repaid to him.

N. B. It is particularly desired that persons wishing to tender will not make use of any forms but those recently printed, which may be had upon application at this Office, between the hours of ten and four.
