FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1832.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of October 1832.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Eng^land," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations; as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to many parts of Great Britain; and the parish of Sedgley hath been affected by the same:

And whereas by two several Orders in Council, bearing date the sixth day of March and the nineteenth day of July last past, and issued by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of their Lordships, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place, for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Orders described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of the Privy Council, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimated statement, accounts, and vouchers of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of four hundred and fifty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for Sedgley to the vestry meeting of that parish, such vestry having been duly convened; when such vestry virtually and in effect declined or avoided to comply with the application of the said Board of Health, and did not give the required authority and directions to such Board, or provide the said sum of four hundred and fifty pounds, or any part thereof; such grant of money being applied for by the said Board of Health to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before-recited Act, and the measures of precaution and precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Orders of their Lordships founded thereon:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the said Orders in Council, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences of such precautionary and sanitary measures to be declared and fixed by such vestries as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parish of Sedgley, and the sum of four hundred and fifty pounds:

And that the said Board of Health for Sedgley shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the said parish or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish, commanding them to pay the said sum of four hundred and fifty pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which said last-mentioned order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things reasonably and properly done by such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.
