Church Commissioners-Office, November 13, 1832.

HIS Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, in pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," do hereby give notice, that upon a representation from the said Commissioners, His Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the 1st day of August, in the year 1832, to order that the parish of St. Augustine in the city and diocese of Bristol, should be divided, into two distinct and separate parishes, under the 16th section of the above-mentioned Act, and that the said parishes should be named respectively the parish of St. Augustine, and the parish of St. George, Brandon-hill; that the chapel called St. George, Brandon-hill Chapel, should be the parish church of the said parish of St. George, Brandon-hill; and that the boundaries of the said parish of St. George, Brandon-hill, should be as follows:

The boundary to commence at the top of Park-street, and continue on the north and west sides of the parish of St. Augustine, in the line now separating the said parish from Clifton and St. Michael's, to Jacob's-well, along Woodwell-lane and premises connected with a dock in Clifton, heretofore called Osborne's-dock, and now the Lime, Kiln dock, to a point in the Floating-harbour on the south and in a line, so far separating the parish of St. Augustine and city of Bristol from the parish of Clifton, in Gloucestershire; thence eastward and in the said Floating-harbour, in a line extending about 460 feet, and separating the said parish and city from the parish of Bedminster, in Somersetshire; thence northward on the east of the Oil Gas-works, in a straight line to Anchor-lane, and along the said lane to the west side of a garden and cottage on the north of the said lane, belonging to the Deanery of Bristol; and from thence in a direct line at the back part of houses and premises in the Lower College-green, being the property of the Dean and Chapter of Bristol, to the back part of the said Deanery; thence continuing the line, having the property of the said Dean and Chapter, on the east side, to Little Frog-lane, and through the middle thereof to the bottom of Park-street, and up the middle of the said street to the before stated commencement of the said boundary, excepting so much of the cemetery or burying-ground on the north east side of the said chapel, in a straight line from Charlotte-street to Great George's-street, being fifty-four feet in breadth on the north west end, next Charlotte-street, and seventy-six feet in breadth on the south east end, next Great George-street, and in length two hundred and seventy-one feet, or nearly thereabout, left uncoloured on the map, to be used for burying the inhabitants of St. Augustine parish till such time as a more convenient burying-ground can be obtained for the said parish of St. Augustine, reserving to the Vicar of St. Augustine's church, or his officiating Assistant free access thereto.

And the description of the said boundaries has been since enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and registered in the Office of the Registry of the Lord Bishop of Bristol.

Geo. Self, Secretary.

Admiralty, October 24, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Tuesday the 27th of November next, at eight o'clock in the morning:

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. John Clark, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.

George Elliot.

POST HORSE DUTIES.

Stamp-Office, London, October 30, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by virtue of an Act, passed in the second and third years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to repeal the duties, under the management of the Commissioners of Stamps, on stage carriages and on horses let for hire in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof, and also to consolidate and amend the laws relating thereto," the Commissioners of Stamps will put up the Duties by the said Act granted on horses let for hire, at the Crown and Anchor Tavern, in the Strand, on Wednesday the 12th day of December next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, subject to such conditions as will then be produced, to be let to farm at yearly rents, for the term of three years, from the 1st day of February next inclusive, in the several divisions or districts following, that is to say:

No. DISTRICTS.

1. North Britain.
2. Northumberland (with the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne), Cumberland, Westmorland, and Durham.
3. Yorkshire (with the city of York, and town of Kingston-upon-Hull).
4. Lancashire, Cheshire (with the city of Chester), Derbyshire, Staffordshire (with the city of Lichfield, and the whole of Tamworth).
5. Lincolnshire (with the city of Lincoln), Nottinghamshire (with the town of Nottingham), Leicestershire, Rutlandshire.
6. Northamptonshire (except Wansford Inn), Warwickshire (with the city of Coventry, excepting Tamworth), Oxfordshire.
7. Worcestershire (and city of Worcester), Gloucestershire (with the city of Gloucester, excepting the city of Bristol), Wiltshire.
8. Norfolk (with the city of Norwich), Suffolk, Essex, Cambridgeshire.
9. Bedfordshire, Buckinghamshire, Hertfordshire; Huntingdonshire (with Wansford Inn).
10. Surrey.
11. Middlesex (with the cities of London and Westminster, and the town of Barnet).
12. Kent (with the city of Canterbury, and the Cinque Ports), Sussex.
13. Hampshire (with Southampton), Berkshire.
14. Cornwall, Devonshire (with city of Exeter), Dorsetshire (with the town of Poole), Somersetshire (with the city of Bristol).
15. North Wales, and Shropshire.
16. South Wales (with Herefordshire and Monmouthshire).

The person declared to be the farmer of any district will be required to pay down immediately, in Bank notes, seven and a half per cent. upon the annual rent of such district as a deposit.

The farmer of each district will be required to give bond, with three or more sureties, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Stamps, in the penalty of half the annual rent, for securing the payment of the rent and the performance of the contract.

All persons intending to bid for any of the said duties are to notify their intention in writing, addressed to the Commissioners, at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-place, at least three days previous to the said 12th day of December next, signed with their names, stating the places of their abode, and specifying the district or districts for which they intend to bid.

And no persons licenced to let horses for hire, nor any one for their use, can be admitted to contract for any of the said duties.

By order of the Commissioners,
Charles Pressly, Secretary.

Guildhall, London, October 31, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for obtaining power to widen and improve the streets called Holborn-hill, Holborn-bridge, Snow-hill and Cow-lane (otherwise called King-street), on the north and west sides thereof, from Union-court, on Holborn-hill, to John's-court, near Cow-lane, both inclusive, and to form a new street in the course of the River Fleet, to commence at Holborn-bridge, opposite to the north end of the present street called Farringdon-street, so as to form a new line of communication as far as Coppice-row; afterwards the said street or road to be continued northward through streets already formed, called Coppice-row and Guildford-place (severally), and then passing on the eastern side of a tavern, called the Union, in a direction abutting on the south west-side of the new church, in Sharpe's-square, the said new road then to be continued over lands, the property of the New River Company, in the direction of Rodney-street, Pentonville, where, crossing the Pentonville-road, it is intended to pass down Rodney-street, to be continued across the end of the Tunnel of the Regent's-canal, and finally to form a communication with the new turnpike road leading from King's-cross to Holloway; also to widen Charles-street, Hatton-garden, and to make a carriage road, or street, from the east end of Charles-street aforesaid to Cow-cross, so as to form a carriage communication between Charles-street, Hatton-garden, and the City; also to make a new street, or carriage road, from Hatton-wall to the Sessions-house for the county of Middlesex, on Clerkenwell-green; also to widen Little Warner-street, at the south end thereof, for obtaining a new line of communication with the north western part of London, by forming a new street, in continuation of Great Warner-street, on the western side of the House of Correction, Cold-bath-fields, to communicate with Guildford-street and the Calthorpe estate; also to abate the nuisance of the River Fleet, to divert, alter, widen, and improve, such parts of the present streets, lanes, courts, alleys, and passages, as will form entrances into the intended new streets, or any of them, and to make other such new streets, ways, and passages as may be necessary to connect the said intended new streets, or improved streets, with each other, or otherwise improve the same; and generally to improve the site, circumscribed by Snow-hill and Bleeding Hart-yard, Kirby-street, Hat and Tun-yard and Little Saffron-hill, on the west Ray-street, and Coppice-row on the north, Ray-street, Clerkenwell-green, Cow-cross-street, Smithfield-bars, Smith-other public passages and places within that part of the parish of Clerkenwell, called St. James's, and removing obstructions and annoyances therein, for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-green to the parish church, and for watching and lighting certain highways within the said parish, for repairing the highways in the said parish and cleansing the said part of the said parish, for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-close to Rosoman-street, and from Rosoman-street to St. John-street, and for building a chapel in the said parish;" and also to enlarge, alter, and amend the powers and provisions of another Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of two Acts, passed in the fourteenth and seventeenth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for paving, repairing, lighting, cleansing, and watching that part of the parish of Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex, called St. James's;" and also to enlarge, alter, and amend the powers and provisions of another Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving, repairing, cleansing, lighting, and watching the streets, squares, lanes, and other passages within the parish of Saint John, Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex, and for removing obstructions and annoyances therein;" and in which Bill provision is intended to be made for altering or increasing the present rates now authorised to be collected and received by the said Acts, or some or one of them.—Dated the 3d day of November 1832.

Geo. Selby, Solicitor, St. John-street-road.

St. Giles, Camberwell, Surrey.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, enlarge, and render more effectual the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better assessing and collecting the poor and other rates in the parish of St. Giles, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, and regulating the affairs thereof, and for enabling the inhabitants to raise money for repairing or rebuilding the parish work-house, and purchasing ground for a cemetery or burial-ground, and for other purposes relating thereto;" and particularly to provide for the more effectually rating, assessing, and collecting the poor, church, and highway rates, in regard to houses or tenements let at low annual rents or for shorter periods than a year, or let out in lodgings, by a composition with, or an assessment upon, the landlords or owners thereof, instead of the tenants or occupiers; and to vest the trust estates of the parish in the vicar and parish officers for the time being, with power to manage and let the same, with the sanction of the vestry; and where no specific appropriation of the rents of such estates has been directed by the donors, to appropriate the same, with the like sanction, in the erection and endowment of alms houses. And that it is also intended by the said Bill, to take power to enable the parish officers to pay the parish constables, out of the poors' rates, upon occasions when they are called upon to do extra duty, such remuneration not to exceed 5s. a day; and also to authorise the vestry to appoint a treasurer of the moneys raised for the repair of the highways, and of a surveyor or surveyors of the highways, with a salary; such treasurer and surveyor to give security for all moneys that may come to their hands; and for the better regulating the duties of such surveyor or surveyors in making and levying rates, by requiring him or them to call a vestry for the purpose of fixing the number of days statute duty (or in other words), the amount of the rate, and in obtaining and purchasing materials for the repair of the highways; and also to authorise the vestry to appoint an assistant overseer, with a salary; and also to continue the liability of the sureties of all persons called upon to give security, notwithstanding the annual or other re-election of such person, and to enable such sureties, upon giving due notice, to withdraw from their responsibility; and also to enable the parish officers to take securities, and to sue and be sued in their capacity of parish officers; and also to authorise the vestry, in case more than two rates shall be made in the course of one year, to pay the collectors a commission, not exceeding 6d. in the pound, instead of 4½d. as limited by the present Act; and also to subject the inhabitants of houses, which have been occupied after a rate has been made, to a proportionate part of the said rate; and also to better regulate the duties of persons who may contract to remove the dust, &c. under the provisions of the present Act, and to increase the penalties in case of the non-performance of such contracts, and to enable the parish officers, in certain cases, to employ proper persons to remove such dust, &c.; and such other powers and provisions as shall be requisite or necessary for the better regulation and management of the affairs of the said parish, with the sanction of the inhabitants in vestry assembled.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, November 17, 1832.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 13th of December next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract (under separate contracts) for supplying

The Royal Marine Barracks at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, with all such

of one or other of the following sorts, as shall from time to time be demanded of them, between the 1st day of January 1833 and the 31st March 1834:

- Deptford, Woolwich, and Chatham—Lambton's, or Stewart's, or Hetton's, or Russell's Walls End Coals.
- Portsmouth—Russell's High Main, or Stobart's Walls End Coals.
- Plymouth—Russell's High Main, or Stobart's Walls End, or Springwell's Walls End, or Usworth's Main, or Newport Coals.

Persons tendering must state which of the sorts they intend to supply.

A form of the tender and the conditions of the contracts may be seen at the said Office, or on application to the Barrack-Masters at the respective ports.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £200, for the due performance of each of the contracts for Deptford and Woolwich, and in the sum of £400, for each of the other contracts.

VICE-CHANCELLOR.—Saturday the 10th day of November, in the third year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, 1832, between Edward Nathaniel Cook, James Bruce and Mary Ann his Wife, Hannah Eaton, Miles Stanley and Charlotte his Wife, Plaintiffs; John Reeve, Defendant.

UPON opening of the matter this present day unto this Court by Mr. Phillimore, of Counsel for the plaintiffs, it was alleged, that it appears by the affidavit of Simon Batley Jackaman, of Ipswich, in the County of Suffolk, Gentleman, Attorney for the said plaintiffs, and John Fenton, of Colchester, in the County of Essex, Sheriff's Officer, that the said Simon Batley Jackaman caused a subpoena to be regularly issued out of this Court, to be left at the dwelling-house of the said defendant, in Colchester aforesaid, for the said defendant to appear at the return of such subpoena, and answer the said plaintiffs' Bill filed in this Court; and that the defendant did not, nor hath he yet, as the said deponent verily believes, appeared to answer the said Bill; and that he did, by his Agent, cause thereon several writs of attachment to be issued out of this Court against the said defendant for contempt, in not answering the said Bill; and that upon finding the said defendant had not appeared to the said subpoena, and that he could not be found, the said deponent hath, since the 1st day of June, and up to the 18th day of September, now last past, been in correspondence with Mr. William Wallis Francis, of Colchester aforesaid, as (the said deponent believes) the Attorney of the said John Reeve, and has also had two several interviews with the said William Wallis Francis, on the subject of the said suit, and he hath been informed by the said William Wallis Francis that he, the said William Wallis Francis, had gone to the residence of the said John Reeve, in Colchester aforesaid, in consequence of such application from the said deponent, and had found the said John Reeve at home, but that, upon ascertaining the business on which the said William Wallis Francis came, he invariably refused to see the said William Wallis Francis, saying "if it is upon Cook's business I will not see him;" and that in the last communication he had with the said William Wallis Francis, on the 18th day of September last, the said William Wallis Francis informed the said deponent he did not know where the said John Reeve was, and that he thought there was no chance of finding him, the said John Reeve; and he believes the said John Reeve has left his residence to prevent the service of the attachment obtained as aforesaid against the said John Reeve, to compel his appearance to the subpoena of this Court; and that the said John Fenton is an Officer to the Sheriff of the said County of Essex, and that he did at different times receive three warrants from the Under Sheriff of the said County of Essex, to take the said defendant for contempt, in not having entered an appearance or answered the said Bill, the last of which he received on the 19th day of August last; and that he did use every possible means to execute each of the said warrants, but was unable to do so, in consequence of the said defendant having absconded from his late dwelling-house, at Colchester aforesaid; and that the last time he endeavoured to arrest the said defendant was on the 25th day of October last, and he verily believes that the said defendant hath left his said late residence to avoid being attached on the process of this Court; and that he had endeavoured, but ineffectually, to find out the now residence of the said John Reeve; and that after repeated applications at the dwelling-house of the said John Reeve, and being always denied admittance, the said deponent made application to Mr. William Wallis Francis, of Colchester aforesaid, the Attorney of the said John Reeve, and had requested the said William Wallis Francis to see the said John Reeve, and inform him that the said deponent had an attachment against him, issuing out of this Court, at the suit of the plaintiffs; and the said deponent believes the said William Wallis Francis endeavoured to see the said John Reeve, but he understood from him he was unable to do so, when he learnt the business upon which the said William Wallis Francis attended the said John Reeve; and the said deponent verily believes the said defendant left Colchester at night, from conversation he has had with the friends of the said John Reeve; and the said deponent verily believes the said John Reeve so left for the purpose of avoiding being attached at the suit of the said plaintiffs to the above-named Bill; it was therefore prayed that the defendant may be ordered to appear to the plaintiffs' Bill:—whereupon, and upon hearing the said affidavit read, this Court doth order that the defendant do appear to the plaintiffs' Bill, on or before the 8th day of December next.

T. A. R.—Entd. J. R.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Thomson against Waller, the Creditors of James Gutteridge, formerly of Eaton-Green, but late of Luton, in the County of Bedford, Gentleman, deceased (who died on or about the 11th day of July 1831), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.

2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom his Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 4, c. 61, sec. 11, as the case may be.

THE Creditors of Thomas William Parkin, late of Dudley, in the County of Worcester, Miner, an Insolvent Debtor, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, on the 12th day of December next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Chambers of Mr. Burn, No. 25, Tokenhouse-Yard, Lothbury, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting a composition in discharge of a debt due to the estate of the said Insolvent from the estate of Benjamin Hughes, deceased.

THE Creditors of Frederick Hildebrand Tolfrey, formerly of Hans-Place, Sloane-Street, Chelsea, in the County of Middlesex, then of Brussels, in Flanders, Gentleman, then of Quebec, in America, then of the Island of Guernsey, Clerk of the Cheque in the Ordnance Department, then of the Island of St Christophers, in the West Indies, Ordnance Store-Keeper, then of Hans-Place aforesaid, and late of No. 63, George-Street, Portman-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, an Insolvent Debtor, who was discharged from the King's Bench Prison in or about the 6th day of December 1827, are requested to meet at the Office of Messrs. Bartlett and Beddome, No. 27, Nicholas-Lane, Lombard-Street, on the 27th day of November instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon of the same day precisely, for the purpose of choosing an Assignee or Assignees of the said Insolvent's estate and effects.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Assignee of the estate and effects of Augustus George, formerly of Quebec, in North America, and late of Langton-Terrace, in the City of Bristol, Merchant, an Insolvent Debtor, who was discharged from His Majesty's Gaol of the City and County of Bristol, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will, on Saturday the 22d day of December next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, attend at the Offices of Henry Gillard, Solicitor, 6, Bridge-Parade, in the said City of Bristol, to declare the amount of balance in hand, and make a Dividend out of the same amongst the Creditors of the said Insolvent whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the said Insolvent; and if the said Insolvent, or any of his Creditors, intend to object to any debt or debts mentioned in the said schedule, such objections are at the same time and place to be made.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of John Armstrong, late of Easington-Lane, in the County of Durham, out of business, an Insolvent Debtor, lately a prisoner in the Gaol of Durham, in the County of Durham, hath caused an account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee at the Office of Mr. William Kell, Attorney, High-Street, Gateshead, in the said County, on the 27th day of December next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.
