FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1832.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of October 1832,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to carry into effect a Convention of Commerce, concluded between His Majesty and the United States of America, and a Treaty with the Prince Regent of Portugal," divers provisions were made respecting the duties payable, and the bounties and allowances to be granted, upon the importation and exportation of goods, wares, and merchandise into or from the United Kingdom, in vessels of the United States and in Portuguese vessels, and respecting the repayment to certain corporations, bodies politic and corporate, and sundry other persons, of the amount of the sums of money of which they would be deprived by means of the said Act; and it was thereby enacted, that the said Act should continue in force so long as the Convention, therein recited, between His said late Majesty and the United States of America, and the Treaty, therein recited, between His said late Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal, and so long as any Treaty to be made with any Foreign Powers, with the similar provision therein before recited, should respectively continue in force:

And whereas, subsequently to the enactment of the said recited Act, His Majesty and His Royal Predecessors have made and concluded with divers Foreign Powers Treaties containing provisions similar to those recited in the said recited Act; and whereas by an Act, passed in the second and third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs,"

after reciting, as herein before is recited, and further reciting, that doubts had arisen whether, according to the true construction thereof, the said Act doth apply and extend to the trade and shipping of such other Foreign Powers, and that it was expedient that such doubts be removed, it is enacted and declared, that from and after the ratification of any Treaty theretofore made by His Majesty or any of His Royal Predecessors, subsequently to the enactment of the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the reign of His said late Majesty, or of any Treaty which might thereafter be made by His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, with any such Foreign Power, in which Treaty have been or shall be contained provisions similar to those recited in the said recited Act, all and every the provisions, clauses, matters, and things in the said recited Act contained did and shall apply and extend to the trade and shipping of such Foreign Powers respectively, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as to the trade and shipping of the said United States and of the said kingdom of Portugal; provided nevertheless, and it is thereby further enacted and declared, that the said recited Act doth not extend, and shall not be construed to extend, to grant to or to confer upon the trade or shipping of the said United States or of the said kingdom of Portugal, or of any other Foreign Power, or to the subjects of such States or Kingdoms, or of any such Foreign Power as aforesaid, any other or greater advantage than such as shall have been stipulated for, by and granted to the said United States, the said kingdom of Portugal, or any such other Foreign Power, by the respective Treaties subsisting and in force between them respectively and His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, but that the said Act shall be so construed and applied as to give full and complete effect to such respective Treaties so long as the same shall respectively remain in force, and is to provide such, and only such, indemnity as therein mentioned to such bodies politic and corporate, and other persons as are therein mentioned, for such losses as they shall respectively sustain by the execution on the part of His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, of such respective Treaties:

And, for the prevention of uncertainty herein, it is further enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by any Order or Orders to be by him or them made, with the advice of His or their Privy Council, and published in the London Gazette, from time to time, to declare what are the Foreign Powers with which any such Treaty or Treaties as aforesaid is or are subsisting; and that the said Act of the second and third year of His Majesty's reign, and the said Act of the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall apply, and shall be deemed, from the time of the ratification of any such Treaties, to have been applicable to the trade and shipping of such foreign countries as shall be so mentioned in any such Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, so long as any such Order or Orders shall continue unrevoked, and no longer:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth, in pursuance and in exercise of the powers and authority in Him vested by the Act so passed as aforesaid in the second and third year of His reign, declare, that the Foreign Powers with which any such Treaties as aforesaid are subsisting, are the several Powers hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, the kingdom of Portugal, the United States of America, His Majesty the King of Prussia, His Majesty (as King of Hanover), His Majesty the King of Denmark, the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, the State of Columbia, the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Lubeck, the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Bremen, and the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Hamburg, His Majesty the King of the French, His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, the United States of Mexico, His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, and the Free City of Frankfort:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council appointed for the consideration of all matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly, as to them may respectively appertain.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the ports of Liverpool and Yarmouth, in the province of Nova Scotia, should respectively be appointed free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said ports of Liverpool and Yarmouth, in the province of Nova Scotia, shall respectively be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act:

Whitehall, November 27, 1832.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Garwood, of Bilston, in the county of Stafford, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Ecclesiastical Revenues Commission, 44, Parliament-Street, November, 1832.

THE Commissioners appointed by His Majesty to enquire into the revenues of the Church, being desirous of completing their report, it was ordered at a Board which met on the 27th instant, that an advertisement be inserted in the London Gazette and other Journals, requesting that such of the Clergy as may not have received the Queries issued by the Commissioners, will apply for them, either personally or by letter, to the Secretary; and that those who have received them, and have not yet returned their answers, will do so before the 20th of December next. All letters to be sent, under cover, to "the Under Secretary of State, Home-office, Whitehall," with the words, "Ecclesiastical Revenues Commission," in the corner of the cover.

William Roberts, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to extend the term and to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making a public carriage road from Kentish-town to Upper Holloway, in the county of Middlesex;" and also of a certain other Act, made and passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and enlarging the powers of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for making a public carriage road from Kentish-town to Upper Holloway, in the county of Middlesex."—Dated this 15th day of November 1832.

Wm. Baker, Solicitor, Limehouse, Middlesex, and No. 3, Crosby-square, Bishopsgate-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a turnpike road, with proper footpaths and all necessary drains, ditches, and bridges thereto, from or near to Trinity Church, in the parish of Saint Mary, Newington, in the county of Surrey, to and across the Albany-road, in the parish of Saint Giles, Camberwell, and county aforesaid, to or near to the east end of a certain lane called Lapp's-lane, in the said parish of Saint Giles, Camberwell; and particularly to make a bridge over the Grand Surrey Canal, in the said parish of Saint Giles, Camberwell, between the District Church of Saint George, Camberwell, and the bridge over the said Canal and a certain field called the Willow-brook, in the said parish of Saint Giles, Camberwell, so as to connect the line of the said road, and to make proper approaches to the said bridge; and for levying tolls on the said road and bridge, and erecting turnpike-gates and other erections; and for borrowing money for making and completing the said road and bridge, and otherwise incidental thereto; the whole of which said road is situate in the said parishes of Saint Mary, Newington, and Saint Giles, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey.—Dated this 10th day of November 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to consolidate the powers and provisions of a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a turnpike road from Earles'-court, in the parish of St. Mary Abbott's, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, to communicate with the road called Fulham-fields-road, at North-end, in the same county, and for making another turnpike road to communicate therewith, from the high-road from London to Fulham, in the said county;" and to vest the powers, provisions, and the property and trusts, created in and by the above mentioned Act, in the Commissioners appointed for the management of the roads, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force respecting the same.

James Florance, Parliamentary Agent,
17, Fludver-street, Westminster.

ALL persons having demands against, or being indebted to, the estate of Mrs. Jane Greenfield, of Ockley, Surrey, General-Dealer, are requested forthwith to send the particulars thereof, or pay the same to William Fuller, Auctioneer, Dorking, on or before the 18th day of December next, to enable the said William Fuller and his Co-Assignee to declare a final dividend under the estate of the said Jane Greenfield.

THE Creditors (if any) whose debts yet remain unpaid of Mr. Robert Pyrke, formerly of Newnham, in the County of Gloucester, Attorney at Law, Ship-Owner and General-Merchant, who died in the year 1780, are hereby required, forthwith, to send full and accurate particulars of such debts, and of the securities they hold for the same, to either of the undersigned Solicitors to the Administrator of the unadministered effects of the said Mr. Robert Pyrke.

JAMES and SON, Newnham, Gloucestershire.
WILLIAM HENRY SUMMERS, No. 22, Great Marlborough-Street, London.

Notice to the Children of JOHN DENNIS, or their Representatives.

Cross Keys, and Coach and Horses,
Wood-Street, Cheapside.

WHEREAS a man named John Dennis, who, between forty and fifty years ago, was employed first at the Coach and Horses, and afterwards at the Cross Keys, in Wood-Street, Cheapside, in the City of London, as a Horse-Keeper, or Helper in the Stables, absented himself about the time above mentioned from his employment, and abandoned his daughter, aged about seven years (whose mother had recently died), leaving her to wander in the public streets, without friends or a home. The child was sent down to his relations, in Nottingham, but the said John Dennis has not since been heard of. At the time the said John Dennis so absented himself he was about thirty-five years of age, and a widower. If, however, he afterwards married and had children, and such children, or any of them, are now living, and they, or the legal personal representatives of such of them as have died (leaving lawful issue), since the month of January 1822, will apply at the Offices of, and furnish satisfactory evidence of their identity, to Mr. Martin Forster, Solicitor, No. 3, Lawrence-Pountney-Place, Cannon-Street, London, or to Mr. Bradshaw, Solicitor, Fletcher-Gate, Nottingham, they will hear of something to their advantage.—All letters must be post paid.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decreeal Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Peacock v. Burt, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Hare and Hounds Inn, in Fulbeck, in the County of Lincoln, on Thursday the 3d day of January 1833, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon;

A desirable and very valuable freehold estate, at Fulbeck aforesaid, consisting of a good family house, with extensive walled gardens, and commodious offices adjoining, suitable for a family of respectability; and upwards of 330 acres of land, of which about 237 acres are situate on the Heath High Fields and Cliff, and of superior quality for the growth of turnips and barley, in a very high state of cultivation, and the remainder comprises rich feeding meadow and pasture ground, and land well adapted to the growth of wheat and beans.

Fulbeck is situated on the South Cliff-Row, a delightful part of the County of Lincoln, in a good neighbourhood, abounding with game, and within a moderate ride of the Belvoir and Burton Hunts, and nearly at equal distances from Lincoln, Newark, Grantham, and Stamford.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. Lambert, Solicitor, 31, John-Street, Bedford-Row; of Mr. Samuel Taylor, Solicitor, 14, John-Street, Bedford-Row; of Messrs. Forbes and Foster, Solicitors, Slea-
