Whitehall, December 14, 1832.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, early in the morning of Tuesday the 27th day of November last, the premises of Mr. W. Hickman, gold and silversmith, No. 89, High-street, Southwark, were burglariously broken and entered by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, who stole therefrom a variety of gold and silver watches, plate, and jewellery;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr.
Hickman, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

*Church Commissioners'-Office,
July 10, 1832.*

HIS Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, in pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," do hereby give notice, that upon a representation from the said Commissioners, His Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the 30th day of May, in the year 1832, to order that the parish of St. Luke, Chelsea, in the county of Middlesex, and diocese of London, should be divided into two distinct and separate parishes, under the 16th section of the above-mentioned Act, and that the said parishes should be named respectively the parish of St. Luke, Chelsea, and the parish of Upper Chelsea; that the chapel called Holy Trinity Chapel should be the parish church of the said parish of Upper Chelsea; and that the boundaries of the said parish of Upper Chelsea should be as follows:

The boundary to commence in the centre of the road called Blackland's-lane, where the parish of Chelsea joins the parish of Kensington; and proceeding, in a north east direction, along the boundary which separates the parishes of Chelsea and Kensington, crossing Sloane-street; and from thence eastward along the boundary which separates the parishes of Chelsea and St. Margaret's, Westminster, to where the parish of Chelsea joins the parish of St. George, Hanover-square; from thence to proceed, in a southwardly direction, along the boundary which separates the parishes of Chelsea and St. George's, Hanover-square, crossing Pont-street, and continuing along the same boundary, to the Ranelagh Sewer, and along the same boundary, in the centre of Ranelagh Sewer, to the line of the west side of the road belonging to the east court of Chelsea Hospital; from thence to proceed northward on such line of the side of the road, until it reaches the road; from thence along the centre of the said road, passing Franklin's-row, and continuing along the centre of the roadway called Whiteland's-lane, crossing the King's-road and Colville's nursery ground; and from thence northward along the centre of the roadway called Blackland's-lane, to the point where the boundary commenced; which district was more particularly described in the plan.

And the description of the said boundaries has been since enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and registered in the Office of Registry of the Lord Bishop of London.

CONTRACTS for the Purchase of WHEAT, PEAS, OATMEAL, and WILLOW RODS, and for the Sale of EMPTY SUGAR CASKS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, December 12, 1832.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 27th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the following articles, namely:

2000 Quarters of Red, and 500 Quarters of White Wheat, weighing not less than 60 lbs. per Bushel, but any excess of weight to be paid for at the contract price; to be delivered by the 20th January 1833

500 Quarters of Peas, and 40 Tons of Oatmeal; half to be delivered by the 20th January next, and the remainder by the 15th February following.

600 Mille of Willow Rods, for Coopers' Twigs; to be delivered by 31st March 1833, in equal monthly proportions.

Samples of the wheat, peas, oatmeal, and rods (500 great tale), must be produced by the persons tendering; and no tender will be received for less than 100 mille of rods.

The Commissioners will at the same time be also ready to treat for the sale and removal of such

Empty Sugar Casks,

as shall accumulate in the said stores between the 1st January next and the 31st March 1834.

The conditions of the contracts may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per centum on the value of the oatmeal, for the due performance of the contract.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

THE Creditors of James Dunn, late of Wycomb-Place, Kent-Street, Southwark, in the County of Surrey, Theatrical-Proprietor, an Insolvent Debtor, are requested to meet the Assignee at the Office of Mr. Virgo, Solicitor, Change-Alley,
