Whitehall, December 20, 1832.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Wednesday the 12th day of December instant, Mr. James Spink, of the Abbey-house, near Leeds, in the county of York, while proceeding homewards in his gig, between the toll-bar at Kirkstall and his own house, was violently assaulted by several evil-disposed persons unknown, and robbed of fifteen sovereigns, two £5 notes, a small quantity of silver, and a silver watch; and that, in consequence of the severe injuries he received, he now lies in an extremely dangerous state;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually struck and wounded the said Mr. Spink) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the friends of Mr. Spink, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 21, 1832.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Saturday the 15th day of December instant, Mr. Sheppard, a clerk in the employ of Messrs. Williams and Son, of Compton-street, Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex, soap-boilers, was barbarously murdered on the premises of his employers, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the said murder) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and an additional reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by Mr. Williams, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.
