NOTICE.

Dundee, December 25, 1832.

ON the 2d of January 1826, Mr. William Sandeman, Merchant, in Dundee, and Bleacher, at Douglas-Field, executed a trust disposition and assignation, whereby he conveyed his whole estate, heritable and moveable, to Trustees, of whom Alexander Balfour, James Brown, David Martin, and William Hackney, all Merchants, in Dundee, were the only acceptors for behoof of all his Creditors, to whom he had become indebted at and preceding that date. Notice of this trust was given in the Gazettes, and in the local Newspapers, and two several dividends were declared and paid.

On 12th March 1828 (while the voluntary trust was still existing), Mr. Sandeman's estate was sequestrated under the Act 54. Geo. III. cap. 137: and afterwards an offer of composition having been made under the sequestration, subject to a declaration, that with certain exceptions specified in the offer, the whole estate and effects, heritable and movable, of which he was possessed at the date of the said voluntary trust, and which were conveyed to the said Trustees under the said deed, and remained vested in them, undisposed of, should be reserved for behoof of all his just and lawful Creditors interested in the foresaid trust, according to their respective rights and preferences; the offer under this reservation was accepted, and was afterwards, viz. on 4th February 1829, approved of by the Court, and a discharge granted. Since that date Mr. Sandeman has (as appears to the said Trustees from the writings shewn to them) satisfied every Creditor for his interest in the said trust-subjects, heritable and moveable, and has himself acquired right to their respective claims, and so is entitled to have the whole trust-estate and effects reconveyed to him, as the only person having right thereto, or interested therein.

The said Trustees, therefore, hereby give notice, that it is their intention to denude of the whole trust-estate and effects to and in favour of the said William Sandeman himself, for his own behoof, unless interpellated; and they require any person having, or pretending to have, any claim or interest under the said trust, not already discharged or transferred to Mr. Sandeman, to lodge a written statement of the claim, with an oath of verity, and the voucher, in the hands of the said James Brown, within one month from this date; certifying to all concerned, that on the expiration of that period, the deeds in favour of Mr. Sandeman, for re-investing him in his trust-property, will be immediately executed, without farther notice or delay.

By order of the Trustees,
(Signed) C. and J. KERR, Agents.
