

Danby, according to the Rule of Court, made this day Sevennight, was brought from the Tower to the Kings Bench, where his Lordships Council very Fully and Learnedly Argued his Case, insisting upon the hardship and length of his Lordships Imprisonment, which had continued now for Five years. That in the Intervals of Parliament, the Kings Bench was the Supream Court, to which the Subject could have recourse for his Liberty: And that the Law did not leave any Subject under an Indefinite Confinement, without any remedy. That besides, the Earl of Danby had His Majesties Pardon, which was produced, and offered to the Court to be read; and they concluded with a Prayer, that the said Earl might be admitted to Bail; Then the said Pardon was read, and some of the Judges desired time till the next Term to consider of his Lordships Case; which was wholly new to them; But his Lordship praying they would please to deliver their Opinions some time this Term; the Court gave leave that his Lordships Council should towards the end of the Term, move the Court to know their farther pleasure; and in the mean time his Lordship was remanded to the Tower.

Whitehall, February 4. His Majesty hath been graciously pleased to constitute Ambur Herbert Esq; Rear Admiral of England, in consideration of the many good and acceptable Services performed by him as in the Inferior Commands which he hath had in His Majesties Fleets, so more especially of late years in the Quality first of Vice-Admiral, and then of Admiral and Commander in Chief of His Majesties Fleet employed in and about the Mediterranean against the Pyrates of Argiers, and other His Majesties Enemies of Barbary.

Whitehall, Feb. 5. Thomas Archer of Lancashire in the County of Warwick, Esq; having by Warrant from His Majesties Privy Council, been sent for in custody of a Messenger, for his contempt of an Order of the Board, requiring his appearance to give an account of a Paper in the nature of a Challenge, annexed by him, or his Order, on the High Cross in Warwick, reflecting upon the Deputy-Lieutenants and Militia Officers of that County: And the said Mr. Archer attending His Majesty in Council on the First of this Month, and by his Petition humbly submitting himself to His Majesties Pleasure, and begging His Pardon; It was ordered that he should attend the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Warwick, and make such publick satisfaction to the said Deputy-Lieutenants, and Militia-Officers, as his Lordship should judge fit; and that thereupon he should be discharged from the custody of the Messenger. And accordingly Mr. Archer attended his Lordship on Monday last, and was required by his Lordship, in pursuance of His Majesties Order in Council, to make his submission to Sir Thomas Price, Sir Charles Lee, and Thomas Lucy, Esq; three of the Deputy-Lieutenants, who were there present, in the name of all the Lieutenancy of that County, which he did, expressing much sorrow for his rash act in affixing the Paper before-mentioned, and promising to behave himself with all Obedience to the King; and submission to His Officers; upon which he was discharged.

Westminster, Feb 6. This day John Hambden, Esq; came to his Tryal at the Kings Bench Barr, upon an Indictment of High Misdemeanor, to which he had pleaded the last Term, and was found Guilty of the same. The whole Tryal will very suddenly be made publick by my Lord Chief Justice his appointment.

Advertisements.

Plutarch's Morals. Translated from the Greek, by several hands. Volume I. Sold by John Gellibrand at the Golden Ball in St. Pauls Church-yard.

Mentors for the Natural History of Humane Blood, especially the Spirit of that Liquor. By the Honorable Robert Boyle Fellow of the Royal Society. This Book being translated into Latin, is now in the Press, and will be published this Term, by Samuel Smith at the Princes Arms in St. Pauls Church-yard.

Lost on Friday the First of this instant February, one of the Kings Spaniels, something large, Liver coloured, with white Feet and Breast, and a white snip down his Nose, with the Kings Collar about his Neck: Whosoever brings him to Mr. Folliard's House in Scotland yard, shall have a Guinea for his pains.

ON Saturday next, being the Ninth day of February, will come forth an Exact and Lively Map or Representation of the Booths, and all the Varieties of Snows and Humours upon the Ice on the River of Thames, by London, during the late Memorable Frost; with an Alphabetical Explanation of the most remarkable Figures cuttiously Engraven on a large Copper Plate, and printed on a large sheet of Dutch Paper; Sold by William Warner Stationer at the sign of the Talbot over against Fleet-Tine end in Fleet-street.