St. James's-Palace, February 5, 1833.

THIS day His Majesty proceeded in state from St. James's-Palace to the House of Peers, where he arrived about two o'clock; and was received, on alighting from his state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord President of the Council, the Deputy Lord Great Chamberlain, the Earl Marshal, the Lord Steward of the Household, Garter, and Black Rod, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

His Majesty was there robed, and having put on the imperial crown, the procession moved into the House in the usual order;—the sword of state was borne by Earl Grey, K. G. and the cap of maintenance by the Marquess of Winchester.

His Majesty being seated upon the Throne, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, Sir Augustus Clifford, Knt. the Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE period being now arrived at which the business of Parliament is usually resumed, I have called you together for the discharge of the important duties with which you are entrusted.

Never, at any time, did subjects of greater interest and magnitude call for your attention.

I have still to lament the continuance of the civil war in Portugal, which has, for some months, existed between the Princes of the House of Braganza. From the commencement of this contest, I have abstained from all interference, except such as was required for the protection of British subjects resident in Portugal; but you may be assured that I shall not fail to avail Myself of any opportunity that may be afforded Me, to assist in restoring peace to a country with which the interests of My dominions are so intimately connected.

I have also to regret that My anxious endeavours to effect a definitive arrangement between Holland and Belgium have hitherto been unsuccessful. I found Myself at length compelled, in conjunction with the King of the French, to take measures for the execution of the Treaty of the 15th of November 1831. The capture of the citadel of Antwerp has in part accomplished that object; but the Dutch Government still refusing to evacuate the rest of the territories assigned to Belgium by that Treaty, the embargo which I had directed to be imposed on the Dutch commerce has been continued. Negotiations are again commenced; and you may rely on their being conducted on My part, as they have uniformly been, with the single view of ensuring to Holland and Belgium a separate existence, on principles of mutual security and independence.

The good faith and honour with which the French

Government has acted in these transactions, and the assurances which I continue to receive from the chief Powers of Europe of their friendly disposition, give me confidence in the success of my endeavours to preserve the general peace. I have given directions that the various papers which are necessary for your information on the affairs of Holland and Belgium should be laid before you.

The approaching termination of the charters of the Bank of England and of the East India Company will require a revision of these establishments; and I rely on your wisdom for making such provisions for the important interests connected with them, as may appear, from experience and full consideration, to be best calculated to secure public credit, to improve and extend our commerce, and to promote the general prosperity and power of the British empire.

Your attention will also be directed to the state of the Church, more particularly as regards its temporalities and the maintenance of the Clergy. The complaints which have arisen from the collection of tithes appear to require a change of system, which, without diminishing the means of maintaining the Established Clergy in respectability and usefulness, may prevent the collision of interests, and the consequent disagreement and dissatisfaction which have too frequently prevailed between the Ministers of the Church and their parishioners.

It may also be necessary for you to consider what remedies may be applied for the correction of acknowledged abuses, and whether the revenues of the Church may not admit of a more equitable and judicious distribution.

In your deliberations on these important subjects, it cannot be necessary for Me to impress upon you the duty of carefully attending to the security of the Church established by law in these realms, and to the true interests of religion.

In relation to Ireland, with a view of removing the causes of complaint which had been so generally felt, and which had been attended with such unfortunate consequences, an Act was passed during the last session of Parliament, for carrying into effect a general composition for tithes; to complete that salutary work, I recommend to you, in conjunction with such other amendments of the law as may be found applicable to that part of My dominions, the adoption of a measure, by which, upon the principle of a just commutation, the possessors of land may be enabled to free themselves from the burthen of an annual payment.

In the further reforms that may be necessary, you will probably find, that, although the Established Church of Ireland is by law permanently united with that of England, the peculiarities of their respective circumstances will require a separate consideration.

There are other subjects hardly less important to the general peace and welfare of Ireland, as affecting the administration of justice and the local taxation of that country, to which your attention will also be required.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have directed the estimates for the service of the year to be laid before you: they will be framed with the most anxious attention to all useful economy. Notwithstanding the large reduction in the estimates of the last year, I am happy to inform you that all the extraordinary services which the exigencies of the times required have been amply provided for. The state of the revenue, as compared with the public expenditure, has hitherto fully realized the expectations that were formed at the close of the last session.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

In this part of the United Kingdom, with very few exceptions, the public peace has been preserved; and it will be your anxious but grateful duty to promote, by all practicable means, habits of industry and good order amongst the labouring classes of the community.

On My part I shall be ready to co-operate, to the utmost of My power, in obviating all just causes of complaint, and in promoting all well-considered measures of improvement. But it is My painful duty to observe, that the disturbances in Ireland, to which I adverted at the close of the last session, have greatly increased. A spirit of insubordination and violence has risen to the most fearful height, rendering life and property insecure, defying the authority of the law, and threatening the most fatal consequences, if not promptly and effectually repressed.

I feel confident that to your loyalty and patriotism I shall not resort in vain for assistance in these afflicting circumstances; and that you will be ready to adopt such measures of salutary precaution, and to entrust to Me such additional powers, as may be found necessary for controuling and punishing the disturbers of the public peace, and for preserving and strengthening the legislative union between the two countries, which, with your support, and under the blessing of Divine Providence, I am determined to maintain by all the means in My power, as indissolubly connected with the peace, security, and welfare of My dominions.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 21, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Friday the 22d of February next, at two o'clock; and on every succeeding Wednesday until further notice.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend His Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, BEFORE twelve o'clock on Wednesday previous to the Levee on the 22d of February, and on the Monday previous to each succeeding Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 21, 1833.

Thursday, March 21.
Thursday, April 18.
Thursday, May 16.
Tuesday, May 28.	} Being for the celebration of the King's Birth-day.
Thursday, June 20.

Office of Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, February 5, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is expected that all Ladies attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, do appear in dresses of British manufacture.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 5th day of February 1833,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmotic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make, commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose), be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poor's rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to the parish of Tardebigg, and other parts of Great Britain have been and may be affected by the same:

And whereas by two several Orders in Council, made on the sixth day of March and the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place, for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the sanitary purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of preparation and precaution in the said Orders described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of the Privy Council, that a detailed statement of all the necessary expences, with accounts and vouchers for the same, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of two hundred and twenty-four pounds fifteen shillings, hath been submitted and made by the Board of Health for the parish of Tardebigg to the vestry meetings of the several parts of the said parish, situate and being in the two counties of Worcester and Warwick respectively, such vestries being both duly convened; when the vestry of the part of the parish of Tardebigg lying in the county of Worcester consented to grant its proportionate share of the said expences so incurred as aforesaid; but the vestry of the part of the same parish lying in the county of Warwick declined or avoided to comply with the application of the Board of Health for the payment of fifty-five pounds and six pence, their proportion of the said sum of two hundred and twenty-four pounds fifteen shillings; the sum applied for by the said Board of Health to the said vestries, to provide for the just expences incurred in carrying into effect the purposes of the before-recited Act, and the measures of preparation and precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Orders of their Lordships founded thereon:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Orders in Council of the sixth day of March and nineteenth day of July last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences of such sanitary measures to be fixed and declared by such vestries as aforesaid, be, and they are hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parish of Tardebigg, and the said sum of fifty-five pounds and six pence, and the said entire amount of two hundred and twenty-four pounds fifteen shillings:

And that the said Board of Health for Tardebigg shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of that part of the parish of Tardebigg situate in the county of Warwick, to pay the said sum of fifty-five pounds and six pence, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; and upon the parish officers of that part of the parish situate in the county of Worcester, to pay the remainder of the said sum of two hundred and twenty-four pounds fifteen shillings, for the like purposes, and out of the before-mentioned fund; which said order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum or sums of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At a Court at St. James's, February 7, 1833.

CEREMONIAL of the Investiture of Admiral Sir Davidge Gould with the Ensigns of a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath; and of Admiral Sir Charles Hamilton, Bart. with the Ensigns of a Knight Commander of the said Most Honourable Military Order.

The following Knights Grand Crosses, in their mantles and collars of the Order, assembled at St. James's-Palace, viz. His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland; His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester; Lord De Saumarez; Lord Viscount Beresford; Lord Hill; Sir William Henry Clinton; the Right Honourable Sir James Kempt; Sir George Townshend Walker; the Earl of Rosslyn; the Right Honourable Sir Charles Bagot; Sir Harry Neale, Bart.; Sir Henry Fane; Sir James Hawkins Whitshed; the Right Honourable Sir John Byng; the Honourable Sir Robert Stopford; Sir Benjamin Hallowell-Carew; Sir Henry Warde; Sir James Willoughby Gordon, Bart.; Sir Thomas Masterman Hardy, Bart.; and Lord Viscount Palmerston; attended by the under-named Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, viz. the Dean of Westminster, Dean of the Order; Walter Aston Blount, Esq. Genealogist; Algernon Greville, Esq. Bath King of Arms; Sir William Woods, Clarenceux King of Arms, Deputy Register and Secretary of the Order; and George-Frederick Beltz, Esq. Gentleman Usher of the Order.

At half past two o'clock, the Knights Grand Crosses were called over, and, with the Officers of the Order, proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign in the Throne-room, with the usual reverences.

Then, by His Majesty's command, Admiral Sir Davidge Gould was introduced into the Royal Presence, between Sir Thomas Masterman Hardy, Bart.

and Lord Viscount Palmerston, the two Junior Knights Grand Crosses, preceded by Bath King of Arms, bearing the ribband, badge, and star of a Knight Grand Cross of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion, and by the Gentleman Usher of the Order.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland having thereupon received from Bath King of Arms the ribband and badge, presented them to the Sovereign, and Sir Davidge Gould, kneeling, His Majesty was graciously pleased to put the same over the Admiral's right shoulder; Sir Davidge Gould, rising, had the honour to kiss the Sovereign's hand, and, having received from His Majesty the star of the Order, withdrew.

Then, by command of the Sovereign, Admiral Sir Charles Hamilton, Bart. was conducted, with the usual reverences, to His Majesty, preceded by Sir William Woods, the Officer of Arms attendant upon the Knights Commanders, bearing upon a crimson velvet cushion the star, ribband, and badge of the second class of the Order; and by Sir Nicholas Harris Nicolas, the Secretary to the Knights Commanders.

The sword of state being thereupon delivered to His Majesty by His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, Sir Charles Hamilton, kneeling, was knighted therewith; after which he had the honour to kiss His Majesty's hand.

Then the Officer of Arms, on his knee, presenting to the Sovereign the ribband and badge of a Knight Commander, the King was pleased to invest Sir Charles Hamilton with the same.

The Admiral, having again had the honour to kiss the Sovereign's hand, and having received from His Majesty the star of a Knight Commander, retired.

The Knights Grand Crosses were then again called over, and, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign, with the usual reverences.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Humphrey Lloyd Williams, of Llanfyllin, in the county of Montgomery, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

PARDON.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, early in the morning of Thursday the 24th day of January last, a large body of armed smugglers assembled in the parish of Eastbourne, in the county of Sussex, for the purpose of effecting the landing and running a large quantity of uncustomed goods; and that violent attacks were made on that occasion by the smugglers so assembled on George Pett, chief boatman of the coast guard station there, who was killed by a shot from one of the smugglers, and on two other boatmen of the coast guard service, who were severely wounded;

His Majesty, for the better discovering the persons who have been guilty of this felony and murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the persons so assembled (except those who actually perpetrated the act) who shall discover any of the parties concerned in the felony and murder aforesaid, so that he or they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

MELBOURNE.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs are hereby pleased to offer a reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS to any person or persons who shall discover, or cause to be discovered, any of the persons concerned in the said felony and murder, so that he or they may be apprehended.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the port of Rye.

Custom-house, London, February 2, 1833.

Whitehall, February 2, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about ten o'clock on the night of Tuesday the 22d day of November last, a person called at the house of Mr. William Cox, of Dingley, in the county of Northampton, and enquired for him, and that on his making his appearance at the door, a quantity of oil of vitriol was immediately thrown in his face, by which he has been totally deprived of sight and otherwise seriously injured;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his or her accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED and TWENTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by Mr. Cox and his friends, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, February 7, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between nine o'clock on the night of Monday the 31st of December, and three o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday the 1st day of January last, Elizabeth Rayner, late of Clifton-upon-Calder, was cruelly murdered in Clifton-wood, in the township of Clifton, in the west riding of the county of York, by having her throat cut by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the Inhabitants of Clifton, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, February 7, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about two o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 30th day of January last, five men, armed with guns, were destroying game in Empingham Old Wood, in the county of Rutland, and committed a violent outrage by shooting at and dangerously wounding Thomas Peach and Jonathan Morris, two of the gamekeepers of Sir Gilbert Heathcote, Bart.;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually shot at and wounded the said gamekeepers) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to Thomas Syson, Agent to Sir Gilbert Heathcote.
