TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1833.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 21, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Friday the 22d of February next, at two o'clock; and on every succeeding Wednesday until further notice.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend His Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, BEFORE twelve o'clock on Wednesday previous to the Levee on the 22d of February, and on the Monday previous to each succeeding Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 21, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Drawing-Room to be held at St. James's-Palace, on Monday the 25th of February next, being for the celebration of Her Majesty's Birth-day, the Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars.

Office of Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, February 5, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is expected that all Ladies attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, do appear in dresses of British manufacture.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 4th day of February 1833,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Basil Percy Fielding Earl of Denbigh and George Fitz-Clarence Earl of Munster were, by His Majesty's command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their seats at the Board accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 5th day of February 1833,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make, commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose), be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to the parish of Tardebigg, and other parts of Great Britain have been and may be affected by the same:

And whereas by two several Orders in Council, made on the sixth day of March and the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place, for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the sanitary purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of preparation and precaution in the said Orders described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of the Privy Council, that a detailed statement of all the necessary expences, with accounts and vouchers for the same, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of two hundred and twenty-four pounds fifteen shillings, hath been submitted and made by the Board of Health for the parish of Tardebigg to the vestry meetings of the several parts of the said parish, situate and being in the two counties of Worcester and Warwick respectively, such vestries being both duly convened; when the vestry of the part of the parish of Tardebigg lying in the county of Worcester consented to grant its proportionate share of the said expences so incurred as aforesaid; but the vestry of the part of the same parish lying in the county of Warwick declined or avoided to comply with the application of the Board of Health for the payment of fifty-five pounds and six pence, their proportion of the said sum of two hundred and twenty-four pounds fifteen shillings; the sum applied for by the said Board of Health to the said vestries, to provide for the just expences incurred in carrying into effect the purposes of the before-recited Act, and the measures of preparation and precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Orders of their Lordships founded thereon:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Orders in Council of the sixth day of March and nineteenth day of July last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences of such sanitary measures to be fixed and declared by such vestries as aforesaid, be, and they are hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parish of Tardebigg, and the said sum of fifty-five pounds and six pence, and the said entire amount of two hundred and twenty-four pounds fifteen shillings:

And that the said Board of Health for Tardebigg shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of that part of the parish of Tardebigg situate in the county of Warwick, to pay the said sum of fifty-five pounds and six pence, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; and upon the parish officers of that part of the parish situate in the county of Worcester, to pay the remainder of the said sum of two hundred and twenty-four pounds fifteen shillings, for the like purposes, and out of the before-mentioned fund; which said order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens, are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum or sums of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order:

A 2

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

PARDON.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, early in the morning of Thursday the 24th day of January last, a large body of armed smugglers assembled in the parish of Eastbourne, in the county of Sussex, for the purpose of effecting the landing and running a large quantity of uncustomed goods; and that violent attacks were made on that occasion by the smugglers so assembled on George Pett, chief boatman of the coast guard station there, who was killed by a shot from one of the smugglers, and on two other boatmen of the coast guard service, who were severely wounded;

His Majesty, for the better discovering the persons who have been guilty of this felony and murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the persons so assembled (except those who actually perpetrated the act) who shall discover any of the parties concerned in the felony and murder aforesaid, so that he or they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

MELBOURNE.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs are hereby pleased to offer a reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS to any person or person who shall discover, or cause to be discovered, any of the persons concerned in the said felony and murder, so that he or they may be apprehended.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the port of Rye.

Custom-house, London, February 2, 1833.

Whitehall, February 2, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about ten o'clock on the night of Tuesday the 22d day of November last, a person called at the house of Mr. William Cox, of Dingley, in the county of Northampton, and enquired for him, and that on his making his appearance at the door, a quantity of oil of vitriol was immediately thrown in his face, by which he has been totally deprived of sight and otherwise seriously injured;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his or her accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED and TWENTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by Mr. Cox and his friends, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, February 7, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between nine o'clock on the night of Monday the 31st of December, and three o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday the 1st day of January last, Elizabeth Rayner, late of Clifton-upon-Calder, was cruelly murdered in Clifton-wood, in the township of Clifton, in the west riding of the county of York, by having her throat cut by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the Inhabitants of Clifton, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, February 7, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about two o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 30th day of January last, five men, armed with guns, were destroying game in Empingham Old Wood, in the county of Rutland, and committed a violent outrage by shooting at and dangerously wounding Thomas Peach and Jonathan Morris, two of the gamekeepers of Sir Gilbert Heathcote, Bart.;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually shot at and wounded the said gamekeepers) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to Thomas Syson, Agent to Sir Gilbert Heathcote.
