

*Office of Lord Chamberlain to the Queen,
February 5, 1833.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is expected that all Ladies attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, do appear in dresses of British manufacture.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 4th day of February 1833,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Basil Percy Fielding Earl of Denbigh and George Fitz-Clarence Earl of Munster were, by His Majesty's command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their seats at the Board accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 5th day of February 1833,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably and properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of some justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make, commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose), be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease hath extended to the parish of Tardebigg, and other parts of Great Britain have been and may be affected by the same:

And whereas by two several Orders in Council, made on the sixth day of March and the nineteenth day of July last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish, township, ecclesiastical division, district, or place, for which such Boards of Health are appointed, for authority and powers to carry into effect the sanitary purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of preparation and precaution in the said Orders described, and to provide a certain sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of the Privy Council, that a detailed statement of all the necessary expences, with accounts and vouchers for the same, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of two hundred and twenty-four pounds fifteen shillings, hath been submitted and made by the Board of Health for the parish of Tardebigg to the vestry meetings of the several parts of the said parish, situate and being in the two counties of Worcester and Warwick respectively, such vestries being both duly convened; when the vestry of the part of the parish of Tardebigg lying in the county of Worcester consented to grant its proportionate share of the said expences so incurred as aforesaid; but the vestry of the part of the same parish lying in the county of Warwick declined or avoided to comply with the application of the Board of Health for the
