VICE-CHANCELLOR.—Thursday the 28th day of February, in the third year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, 1833, between Henry Bellw, Esq. and others, Plaintiffs; Richard Vyryan, Esq. Defendant.

UPON opening of the matter this present day unto this Court by Mr. Jeremy, of Counsel for the plaintiffs, it was (amongst other things) alleged, that it appears by the affidavit of William Dean, Agent for the plaintiffs, that the Bill in this cause was filed on the 8th day of February 1832, and that the said deponent did, on the 13th day of the same month of February 1832, personally serve the said defendant with a subpoena in this cause; that, on the 28th day of March 1832, he caused an attachment, directed to the Sheriff of Middlesex, to be issued against the defendant, for want of an appearance; that he hath made great exertions and diligent inquiries for the purpose of ascertaining and discovering, if possible, the place of abode of the said defendant since he left Trewan, in the Parish of St. Columb-Major, in the County of Cornwall, at which place, as he the said deponent believes, he formerly resided, and of which place he is described in a certain indenture, of the 3d day of August 1822, in the Bill in this cause mentioned; and that he hath not been able to discover or ascertain that the said defendant, since he left Trewan aforesaid, hath had any fixed place of residence or abode whatever; and that the said attachment has been returned, non est inventus, by the said Sheriff: and that it appears by the affidavit of Francis Camborne Paynter, that he well knew the said defendant Richard Vyryan, who, in or about the year 1822, resided at Trewan aforesaid, and that he, the said defendant, is not now residing at Trewan aforesaid, which was his usual place of abode, but that he left the same in or about the year 1823, since which time he has not, to the deponent's knowledge, had any fixed residence or place of abode; that he has heard and believes that the defendant has, for some time past, been in, and in the neighbourhood of, London, and that he was seen a few months since at Bayswater, and lately at Islington; and that it appears by the affidavit of James Woodman, Clerk to the said William Dean, and Thomas Whitaker, of No. 12, Chancery-Lane, Middlesex, Officer to the Sheriff of Middlesex, filed on this 28th day of February 1833, that the said James Woodman hath, during the months of December and January last, and this present month, very actively exerted himself in endeavouring to find out the defendant's place of residence; and that in December last he made very diligent inquiries for that purpose in, and in the neighbourhood of, London, and at length discovered that one Richard Vyryan and his wife were lodging at No. 12, Princes-Street, Cavendish-Square, London; that the description he there received of the name, person, age, county, and connexions of the said Richard Vyryan entirely answered to those of the defendant in this cause; that he has persevered in making frequent and diligent inquiries in order to see the said Richard Vyryan at the said No. 12, Princes-Street aforesaid, from December last to the present time, but that the said Richard Vyryan has always been denied to the said deponent, under an excuse, from time to time, that he was gone into the country; that the last occasion upon which he, the said deponent, renewed his application at No. 12, Princes-Street aforesaid, was on the 14th instant, when he was informed by a woman there that the said Richard Vyryan was not yet returned, and that she believed he kept away for fear of being arrested; that the appearance of the said defendant hath not yet been entered in this cause; and the said deponent verily believes that the said defendant has left the said lodgings, in Princes-Street, in consequence of his said residence having been so discovered as aforesaid, and that he hath absconded and is concealing himself for the purpose of avoiding process in this cause: that the said Thomas Whitaker saith, that he accompanied the said James Woodman, with a warrant granted on another attachment thereon as aforesaid, issued in this Court, in order to capture the defendant, who the said deponent was informed, and verily believes, is, or was lately, lodging at No. 12, Princes-Street, Cavendish-Square, and has also been there several times by himself, and that he hath been unable to capture the said defendant, who the said deponent verily believes has kept out of the way in consequence of the inquiries so made for him as aforesaid; and saith, that the last occasion on which he applied at No. 12, Princes-Street aforesaid, to see the said Richard Vyryan was the latter part of last week, when he received for answer that he was not there; and the said deponent believes it impossible to take the said defendant: it was therefore prayed that the defendant may be ordered to appear to the plaintiffs' Bill:—whereupon, and upon hearing the said affidavits, and an affidavit of John Smith, read, this Court doth order that the defendant do appear to the plaintiffs' Bill, on or before the 28th day of March 1833.—I. C.

Entd. J. R.
