FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1833.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's House, St. James's, March 14, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday next the 21st instant.

The cards of those Ladies who intend to have the honour of being presented to Her Majesty, must be sent in to the Office of the Queen's Lord Chamberlain, before twelve o'clock on Tuesday the 19th instant.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 6th day of March 1833,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury do prepare a form of prayer and thanksgiving to Almighty God, for His mercy in having removed from us that grievous disease with which several places in this kingdom have been lately visited; and that such form of prayer and thanksgiving be used in all churches and chapels in England and Wales, and in the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, upon Sunday the fourteenth day of April next; which day His Majesty is hereby pleased to appoint to be observed as a day of general thanksgiving:

And it is hereby further ordered, that His Majesty's Printer do forthwith print a competent number of copies of the said form of prayer and thanksgiving, that the same may be forthwith sent round and read in the several churches of England and Wales, and of the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

From the DUBLIN GAZETTE of Thursday, February 7, 1833.

ELECTION OF A TEMPORAL PEER OF IRELAND.

IN pursuance of an Act, passed in the fortieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to regulate the mode by which the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, to serve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, on the part of Ireland, shall be summoned and returned to the said Parliament," I do hereby give notice, that writs, bearing date this day, have issued for electing a Temporal Peer of Ireland, to succeed to the vacancy made by the demise of Henry Marquess Conyngham, in the House of Lords of the said United Kingdom; which said writs are severally directed to the following Peers, who sat and voted in the House of Lords in Ireland before the Union, and whose right to vote on the election of Temporal Peers of Ireland hath, upon claims made on their behalf, been admitted since the Union by the House of Lords of the said United Kingdom; and that the said writs are ready to be delivered at this Office:

John Cummins, Deputy Clerk, Crown and Hanaper, 5th February 1833.

Whitehall, March 15, 1833.

The King has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal, granting the dignities of Viscount and Earl of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, unto John George Baron Durham, and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the names, stiles, and titles of Viscount Lambton and Earl of Durham.

St. James's-Palace, March 13, 1833.

This day Namik Pacha, Minister on a special mission from the Sublime Porte, had audience of leave of His Majesty on the termination of his mission:

To which he was introduced by Lord Viscount Palmerston, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's-Palace, March 13, 1833.

The King was this day pleased to invest Rear-Admiral Sir Thomas Baker with the ensigns of a Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

By command of the Sovereign, Rear-Admiral Sir Thomas Baker was conducted, with the usual reverences, to His Majesty, preceded by Sir William Woods (the Officer of Arms attendant upon the Knights Commanders), bearing upon a crimson velvet cushion the star, ribband, and badge of the second class of the Order.

The sword of state being thereupon delivered to His Majesty, the Rear-Admiral, kneeling, was knighted therewith; after which he had the honour to kiss His Majesty's hand. Then the Officer of Arms, on his knee, presenting to the Sovereign the ribband and badge of a Knight Commander, the King was pleased to invest Sir Thomas Baker with the same.

The Rear-Admiral having again had the honour to kiss the Sovereign's hand, and having received from His Majesty the star of a Knight Commander, retired.

St. James's-Palace, March 13, 1833.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon Lieutenant-General Henry John Cumming, Military Knight-Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order.

St. James's-Palace, March 13, 1833.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon Frederic Madden, Esq.

of the British Museum, Companion of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order.

Downing-Street, March 13, 1833.

The King has been pleased to appoint Major-General H. C. Darling to be Lieutenant-Governor of the Island of Tobago.

Whitehall, March 13, 1833.

The King has been pleased to grant unto the Rev. Francis Dawson, B. D. the place or dignity of a Canon or Prebendary of the Metropolitcal Church of Canterbury, void by the death of the Rev. Doctor William Welfitt.

Martis, 12^o die Martii 1833.

Whereas, at the last election of Knights of the Shire for the county of Carlow, Walter Blackney and Thomas Wallace, Esqrs. were returned to serve in Parliament for the said county; and whereas two petitions, signed by Henry Bruen and others, complaining of an undue election and return for the said county, have been presented to the House of Commons; which petitions are appointed to be taken into consideration upon Tuesday the 11th day of May next; and whereas the said Walter Blackney, and the said Thomas Wallace, have informed the House, by declarations in writing, severally subscribed by them, and delivered in at the table of the House, that it is not their intention to defend the said election and return;

I do, therefore, give this notice thereof, in pursuance of the Act, 9th Geo. 4, c. 22, intituled, "An Act to consolidate and amend the laws relating to the trial of controverted elections or returns of Members to serve in Parliament."

Given under my hand, the 12th day of March 1833,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

Crown-Office, March 15, 1833.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of New Malton.

John Charles Ramsden, Esq. in the room of the Honourable William Charles Wentworth Fitzwilliam, commonly called Lord Viscount Milton, who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made on the hearing of a cause wherein Edward Taylor is the plaintiff, and Edward Lawrence and John Offley Ward are the defendants, it was referred to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, among other things, to take an account of the legacies given by the will of Betty Smith, late of Evelith-Bank, in the Parish of Shiffual, in the County of Salop, Spinster, deceased, dated the 4th December 1820, whereby she, among other things, directed her Trustees therein named to pay the interest of the sum of £200 to the use and maintenance of Robert Goodman, son of the late Richard and Mary Goodman, of Wolverhampton, during his minority, and upon his attaining the age of 21 years, to pay the said sum of £200 to him, but in case he should die before attaining that age, then to pay the same to her cousin, William Smith; and whereas the said Robert Goodman, in or about the year 1828, when about the age of 15 years, was put apprentice to a Cabinet-Maker, at Wellington, in the County of Salop, of the name of Webb, with whom he remained for about two years, and then (in or about the month of September 1830) absconded and went to Liverpool, where after staying a short time he went to London, where he was in a state of extreme poverty, and has not since the month of September 1830, been heard of by any of his relations:—pursuant, therefore, to the said Decree, the said Robert Goodman, if living, or, in the event of his having attained the said age of 21 years and afterwards died, his personal representative or representatives, is or are, by his or their Solicitors, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out his or their claim to the said legacy, or in default thereof he or they (as the case may be) will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Hartley against Pendarves, the Creditors of Henry Harris, late of Roseleage, in the County of Cornwall, Esq. (who died in the month of March 1830), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Frankland against Pearson, the Creditors of William Pearson, late of Ipswich, in the County of Suffolk, Attorney at Law (who died in the month of September 1830), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 10th day of April 1833, to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Whitell versus Catherall, the Creditors of Samuel Beavan, late of Ewloe-Hall, in the Parish of Hawarden, in the County of Flint, Farmer and Master Collier, deceased (who died on or about the 27th day of February 1830), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 5th day of April 1833, to come in and prove their debts before James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in two several causes of Marshall versus Dawes, and Bate versus Dawes, the Creditors of Richard Dawes, late of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, Common Carrier (who died on the 15th day of August 1830), are to come in and prove their debts before Henry Martin, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 20th day of April 1833, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

GEORGE GARLAND'S Estate.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by indenture, bearing date the 8th day of March instant, George Garland, of Petworth, in the County of Sussex, Innkeeper, hath assigned all his estate and effects whatsoever (except certain leases or agreements therein mentioned), to William Knight, of Petworth aforesaid, Corn-Chandler, William George Johnson, of Petworth aforesaid, Woolstapler, and Benjamin Challen, of Petworth aforesaid, Brewer, Trustees upon trust, for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said George Garland who should execute the same within the space of six calendar months from the date thereof; and that the said indenture was executed by the said George Garland, William Knight, William George Johnson, and Benjamin Challen respectively, on the said 8th day of March, and witnessed by John Bowyer, of Petworth aforesaid, Solicitor, and Charles Frederick Johnson, of the same place, Draper; and the said indenture now lies at the Office of the said John Bowyer for execution by the Creditors of the said George Garland.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

THE Creditors who have executed the assignment, bearing date the 10th day of November 1827, and made by Benjamin Heward, then of Tavistock-Place, in the Parish of Bishop-Wearmouth, in the County of Durham, Ship-BUILDER, Ship and Insurance-Broker and Canvas-Manufacturer, for the benefit of his Creditors, are desired to meet the Trustees mentioned in the said assignment, on Wednesday the 27th day of March instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. Robert Wilson, Solicitor, situate in Bishop-Wearmouth aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Trustees commencing and prosecuting a suit in equity against the surviving executor of the last will and testament of William Baldwin, late of Hatchliff, in the County of Lincoln, Gentleman, deceased; and to assent to or dissent from the said Trustees defending any suit or suits in equity, or action or actions at law, to be commenced or instituted against them by the said surviving executor or the said Benjamin Heward, or either of them, or any other person or persons whomsoever; and also to authorise and empower the said Trustees to submit the matters in difference to arbitration, or otherwise to compound and agree the same as they may see fit.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Henry Porter, of Taunton, in the County of Somerset, Draper, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 25th day of March instant, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee relinquishing or paying to a person to be named at the meeting a portion of a small dividend receivable by the Bankrupt's estate.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Hodgson, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee or Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 6th day of April next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Office of Mr. John Bagshaw, Solicitor, in Brown-Street, in Manchester, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee or Assignees joining in a conveyance of certain premises at Broughton, near Manchester aforesaid, for the purpose of passing the legal or equitable interest of the said Bankrupt therein to the person or persons to whom such conveyance is intended to be made, upon such terms as the said Assignee or Assignees may deem proper.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Houghton and John Watts, of Soho-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Drapers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Monday the 25th day of March instant, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees abandoning all claim to the fixtures in and upon the Bankrupt's premises, in Soho-Square, in favour of the present Mortgagee, upon terms to be then stated.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Trancher Pinwill, and John Haydon Please, of the City of Exeter, Linen Drapers and Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on the 10th day of April next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the New London Inn, in the said City of Exeter, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee being authorised to give time to any debtor or debtors to the estate of the said Bankrupts, and to take security for the payment of any debt or debts, either altogether or by instalments, and to compromise or compound any of the said debts, and accept a reasonable part for the whole, and to submit to arbitration a reference or compromise, or settle any accounts, debts, demands, differences, disputes, or other matters relative to the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee being authorised to commence, prosecute, or defend, or to discontinue and become nonsuit in all such actions, suits, or other proceedings at law or in equity, as may be considered advisable and proper, in respect of the recovery of any debt or debts due to and in the protection of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, and to his being authorised generally to manage and conduct the affairs of the said Bankruptcy, in such manner as to the said Assignee may seem most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who shall prove their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Charles Ryland, of Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, Iron-Merchant, Dealer, and Chapman, at the first public meeting to be held under the said Fiat, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 6th day of April next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the New Royal Hotel, in New-Street, Birmingham aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing an action at law, or suit in equity, against a certain person or certain persons, who will be named at such meeting, to enforce the specific performance of an agreement, which was some time since entered into with the said Bankrupt, for granting to the said Bankrupt a lease or leases of certain land and hereditaments, situate at Northfield, in the County of Worcester, forming part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or for the recovery from such person or persons of damages for breaches of such agreement; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the leasehold property, stock in trade, household furniture, goods, chattels, and all other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, or by valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, to any person or persons whomsoever, for the best price or prices that can be reasonably obtained for the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving such credit, or taking such security or securities for the purchase-money as they shall think proper; and likewise to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging all or any part of the expenses already incurred, or to be incurred, in endeavouring to effect an arrangement with the Creditors of the said Bankrupt previously to the issuing of the said Fiat, and preparing of an assignment to certain trustees of the said Bankrupt's property, for the equal benefit of his Creditors, in the investigation and elucidation of the books, accounts, and papers of the said Bankrupt, by agents, accountants, or others, and in winding up the affairs of the said estate; and further to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any other action or actions at law, suit or suits in equity, or other proceedings, for the recovery, defence, or protection of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law, relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 14th day of March 1833, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by WILLIAM SMITH, of Lynnington, in the County of Southampton, Surgeon and Apothecary, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
