Bank of England, March 12, 1833.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give notice,

That a General Court will be held at the Bank on Thursday the 21st instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to consider of a dividend; and also that another General Court will be held at the Bank, on Tuesday the 16th April next, from ten o'clock in the forenoon till four in the afternoon, for the election of a Governor and Deputy Governor for the year ensuing (which will be declared that evening); and the same Court will be continued by adjournment, and held at the same place, and during the same hours, on Wednesday the 17th April next, for the election of twenty-four Directors (which will also be one of the Quarterly General Courts appointed by the Charter), and the election of the twenty-four Directors will be declared as soon as the scrutiny is over.

Printed lists of the Proprietors having votes will be ready to be delivered at the Bank on Tuesday the 2d April.

John Knight, Secretary.

N. B. By an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of George the Third, no person will be entitled to vote at the said election who shall not have been six calendar months possessed in his own right of the stock for which he shall then give his vote, unless the said stock shall have been acquired, or shall have come by bequest, or by marriage, or by succession to an intestate's estate, or by the custom of the city of London, or by any deed of settlement after the death of any person who shall have been entitled for life to the dividends of such stock.

B 2

East India-House, February 27, 1833.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, hereby give notice,

That they will be ready, at any time before the 31st of March next, unless they shall see fit to discontinue the receipt of such tenders at an earlier date, to receive tenders from persons desirous of remitting funds to Bengal, Madras, Bombay, or Canton, by means of bills to be drawn by the Court at sixty days sight, and at an exchange of one shilling and nine pence halfpenny (1s. 9½d.) the Sicca rupee, one and eight pence farthing (1s. 8¼d.) the Madras or Bombay rupee, and three shillings and ten pence (3s. 10d.) the Spanish dollar; but no tender will be received for a less amount than £100 sterling.

Persons residing in foreign countries, or at a distance from London, must nominate somebody in London as their agent, to whom the decision of the Court upon their tender will be communicated, which communication may be made within a period of fourteen days.

The tenders are to specify the amount of remittance required, and to be addressed to the Secretary, at the East India Company's House, in Leadenhall-street, and to be marked in the corner, "Tender for Bills of Exchange."

Peter Auber, Secretary.
