

THE Partnership between William Lyddon and John Lyddon, of Carey-Street, Lincoln's-Inn, Middlesex, Solicitors, is this day dissolved by mutual consent.—Witness their hands this 12th day of March 1833.

*Wm. Lyddon.
John Lyddon.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership between Henry Emlyn and William Ingalton, carried on at New Windsor, in the County of Berks, under the firm of Emlyn and Ingalton, was dissolved by mutual consent on the 31st day of December 1831, since which time the said business has been carried on at New Windsor aforesaid, by the said William Ingalton, on his sole account and for his own benefit, and who will in future carry on the same in like manner; and all debts due to the late Partnership are to be paid to the said William Ingalton, and all debts owing by the late Partnership will be paid by the said William Ingalton.—Given under our hands this 11th day of March 1833.

*Henry Emlyn.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made on the hearing of a cause wherein Edward Taylor is the plaintiff, and Edward Lawrence and John Offley Ward are the defendants, it was referred to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, among other things, to take an account of the legacies given by the will of Betty Smith, late of Evelith-Bank, in the Parish of Shiffual, in the County of Salop, Spinster, deceased, dated the 4th December 1820, whereby she, among other things, directed her Trustees therein named to pay the interest of the sum of £200 to the use and maintenance of Robert Goodman, son of the late Richard and Mary Goodman, of Wolverhampton, during his minority, and upon his attaining the age of 21 years, to pay the said sum of £200 to him, but in case he should die before attaining that age, then to pay the same to her cousin, William Smith; and whereas the said Robert Goodman, in or about the year 1828, when about the age of 15 years, was put apprentice to a Cabinet-Maker, at Wellington, in the County of Salop, of the name of Webb, with whom he remained for about two years, and then (in or about the month of September 1830) absconded and went to Liverpool, where after staying a short time he went to London, where he was in a state of extreme poverty, and has not since the month of September 1830, been heard of by any of his relations:—pursuant, therefore, to the said Decree, the said Robert Goodman, if living, or, in the event of his having attained the said age of 21 years and afterwards died, his personal representative or representatives, is or are, by his or their Solicitors, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out his or their claim to the said legacy, or in default thereof he or they (as the case may be) will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Hartley against Pendarves, the Creditors of Henry Harris, late of Roseteage, in the County of Cornwall, Esq. (who died in the month of March 1830), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Frankland against Pearson, the Creditors of William Pearson, late of Ipswich, in the County of Suffolk, Attorney at Law (who died in the month of September 1830), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 10th day of April 1833, to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Whittell versus Catherall, the Creditors of Samuel Beavan, late of Ewloe-Hall, in the Parish of Haywarden, in the County of Flint, Farmer and Master Collier, deceased (who died on or about the 27th day of February 1830), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 5th day of April 1833, to come in and prove their debts before James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in two several causes of Marshall versus Dawes, and Bate versus Dawes, the Creditors of Richard Dawes, late of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, Common Carrier (who died on the 15th day of August 1830), are to come in and prove their debts before Henry Martin, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 20th day of April 1833, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
