Corps of Royal Engineers.

Second Lieutenant Edmund T. Ford to be First Lieutenant, vice Heatly, deceased. Dated 5th February 1833.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Nottingham.

Royal Sherwood Foresters or Nottinghamshire Regiment of Militia.

Lancelot Rolleston, Esq. to be Colonel. Dated 11th April 1833.

Whitehall, April 13, 1833.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Osborne Delano, of Enfield, in the county of Middlesex, Gent. youngest son of Henry Delano, sometime of Edmonton, in the said county, deceased, by Sarah his wife, sister of Joseph Osborne, of Park-farm, in the parish of Enfield aforesaid, Esq. deceased, His royal licence and authority that he and his issue may (in compliance with a direction contained in the last will of the said Joseph Osborne) henceforth take and use the surname of Osborne in addition to and after that of Delano, and bear the arms of Osborne quarterly with those of his own family; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 15, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the 2d day of April instant, a small box, loaded with gun-powder, was sent, through one of the coach offices in Sheffield, to Messrs. Waterhouse, Hodgson, and Co. silver-platers, of that place; and that on Mr. Edward Hatfield, resident partner of the firm, proceeding to open the same, a violent explosion took place, by which both his hands were nearly blown off and his head severely wounded;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually contrived, planned, and carried into effect the said offence) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Messrs. Waterhouse, Hodgson, and Co. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 19, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between seven and eight o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 21st day of February last, John, son of Henry Clarke, of College-street, in the city of Bristol, baker, left his father's house, and has not since been heard of; that his hat and gloves were found in a field near the River Avon, adjacent to the city of Bristol; and that there is every reason to believe the said John Clarke has been murdered by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by Henry Clarke, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.
