WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of nine and ten o'clock, in the evening of Thursday the 25th day of April instant, Mr. Leach, surgeon, of Vauxhall, received a note, purporting to come from Mr. Fentiman, a gentleman residing in a retired situation near the Kennington Oval, requesting his immediate attendance; and that when he had proceeded some distance from the public road, and near to Mr. Fentiman's house, he was attacked by two men, one of whom struck him a severe blow on the head, it is supposed with a hammer, which was afterwards found on the spot, and escaped, with his accomplice, on an alarm being raised by Mr. Leach;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually struck Mr. Leach) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Leach, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Peter Auber, Secretary.

East India-House, April 25, 1833.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall street, on Friday the 3d May next, from eleven o'clock in the morning until six in the evening, for the purpose of taking a ballot, in pursuance of the following requisition, viz.

" We the undersigned, Proprietors of East India Stock, concurring generally in the terms of the resolution, which it has now been agreed shall form the main question, consider it to be of moment that an opportunity should be afforded to the Proprietors at large to pass their judgment upon it, and we therefore require that the same may be decided by ballot.—April 25, 1833.

- " Campbell Marjoribanks.
- " William Wigram.
- " William Astell.
- " Wm. Stanley Clarke.
- " Thomas Poynder, jun.
- " Thomas Halifax.
- " Richard Twining.
- " Joseph Kaye.
- " John Shore.
- " Robert Brown.
- " Joseph Sellon.
- " William Huh.
- " Patrick Hadow.
- " James Ritchie.
- " John Hicks.
- " W. Hobson.
- " Thomas Vigne.
- " James Brogden.
- " Charles Mills.
- " Robert Melville Grindley.
- " David Carruthers.
- " Henry Heath.
- " Francis M. Ommanney.
- " Henry Shank.
- " William Young.
- " George Lyall.
- " James R. Carnac.
- " Richard Jenkins."

The question upon which the ballot is to be taken being as follows, viz.

" That having attentively considered the correspondence which was laid before the Proprietors on the 25th ultimo, this Court must in the first place express their cordial approbation of the conduct of the Court of Directors, in maintaining, as they have done, with judgment, zeal, and ability, the rights and interests of the East India Company.

" That on reviewing the intimate connexion which has so long subsisted between India and the Company, this Court desire to record their conviction, that the Company can have no other object in undertaking to administer the Territorial Government for a further term, than the advancement of the happiness and prosperity of our native subjects; and that if Parliament in its wisdom should consider, as His Majesty's Ministers have declared, that that great object may be best promoted by continuing the administration in the hands of the Company, but divested of their commercial character, the Company having through the Court of Directors suggested, as it was their duty to do, the difficulties and dangers, political as well as financial, which beset the dissolution of the connexion between the territorial and the commercial branches of their affairs, will not shrink from the undertaking, even at the sacrifices required, provided that powers be reserved to enable the Company efficiently to administer the government, and that their pecuniary rights and claims be adjusted upon the principle of fair and liberal compromise.

"That the Company, however, looking to the present and prospective state of the Indian finances, to the aid which the territory derives from the trade, and to the probable difficulty of effecting remittances from India under the proposed system, are of opinion that it is not reasonable that the Company's assets, commercial and territorial, with all their possessions and right, shall be assigned to the Crown on behalf of the Territorial Government of India, in exchange, as proposed by His Majesty's Ministers, for an annuity of ten and a half per cent. for forty years, payable in England out of the territorial revenues, and redeemable at the end of that period at the rate of £100. for every £5. 5s. of annuity, except on the following conditions, viz.

"First.—That the sum to be set apart for a guarantee fund be extended to such an amount as upon reasonable calculation will be sufficient, with the accumulations during forty years, to redeem the annuity at the expiration of that term; and that in the event of India failing in any one year to remit sufficient funds to pay the dividend, the deficiency shall be supplied out of the guarantee fund, any sums which may be taken for that purpose being made good to the fund by subsequent remittances from India.

"Secondly.—That the Company exercising the same powers as they now possess under their charter, shall continue to administer the government of India for a defined period, not less than twenty years; and if deprived of it at the expiration of that term, or at any time subsequently thereto, they shall be allowed the option of demanding payment of the principal at the rate of £100. for each £5. 5s. of annuity; and whenever paid off they will be entitled, if they shall see fit, with their capital, or any portion thereof, to resume their undoubted right to trade, which it is now proposed by His Majesty's Ministers should be in abeyance.

"Thirdly.—That during the period of the Company's administration of the Territorial Government, all measures involving direct or contingent expenditure shall originate with the Court of Directors, and be subject, as at present, to the controul of the Board of Commissioners, under the restrictions of the existing law; and further, that sufficient powers be reserved to the Company to check, by a system of publicity to both Houses of Parliament, or by some other means, any acts of the Board which may appear to the Court of Directors to be unconstitutional, to militate against the principles of good government, to interfere with substantial justice to our allies, or to invalidate or impair the security for the dividend; and

"Fourthly.—That a sufficient power be retained over the commercial assets to enable the Court of Directors to propose to the Company, and ultimately to the Board for their confirmation, a plan for making suitable provision for outstanding commercial obligations, and for such of the commercial officers and servants of the Company as may be affected by the proposed arrangements.

"That the Court of Directors be requested to communicate this resolution to His Majesty's Ministers."

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.
