

frayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining:

And whereas the said disease of cholera extended to many parts of Great Britain, and the township of Heaton Norris was affected with the same:

And whereas by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, issued on the nineteenth day of July last past, it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of the parish or place for power to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of furnishing medicines and medical assistance, nurses and other necessary attendants, to the sick poor at their own habitations:

And whereas it hath been represented to their Lordships, that a statement of the necessary expences incurred for such sanitary purposes, amounting to the sum of ten pounds, hath been submitted to the vestry meeting of the township of Heaton Norris, when the vestry declined to comply with such requisition for the sum of ten pounds, until such application should have received the approval and sanction of their Lordships:

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that such charge is reasonable and proper, and fit to be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the said township, according to the provisions of the said Act herein before recited:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the Act aforesaid, that so much of the Order in Council of the nineteenth day of July last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences of such sanitary measures, to be fixed and declared by such vestries as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said township of Heaton Norris and the said sum of ten pounds:

And that the secretary of the said Board of Health for Heaton Norris, or any member thereof, shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to, make application to some justice of the peace living in or near the township or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said township of Heaton Norris, commanding them to pay the said sum of ten pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such township, which said order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money, in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by such Board of Health, or member thereof, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.
