JOLLAND'S HEIRS.

A LEGACY has been bequeathed to the Heirs of Captain Jolland, who in or about the year 1782 was in the military service, at Madras,—such persons are requested to apply to Messrs. Pickering, Smith, and Thompson, No. 4, Stone-Buildings, Lincoln's-Inn, Middlesex.

ALL persons to whom the late James Thompson, of Commerce-Court, Lord-Street, Liverpool (who died in the month of February 1832), was indebted at the time of his decease, are requested to send the particulars of their demands to Mr. Thomas Davenport, Solicitor, Commerce-Court, Lord-Street, Liverpool, within one month from this date, after the expiration of which the Administratrix will make a dividend of the deceased's estate and effects.—Liverpool, 11th May 1833.

BY a Decree made in a certain cause in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, wherein William Head and wife are plaintiffs, and William Stanley Ginger and others are defendants, bearing date the 12th day of February 1833, it is amongst other things referred to Jefferies Spranger, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court whether John Pywell, in the pleadings mentioned, and who is the son of the late John and Maria Pywell, of Broughton, near Kettering, in the County of Northampton, is out of the jurisdiction of the said Court; the said John Pywell is therefore hereby required immediately to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in the Inner Temple, London, and attend the prosecution of the said Decree, which seeks for a partition of certain estates, to a portion of which the said John Pywell is entitled, or in default thereof the said Master will report him out of the jurisdiction of the said Court.—Any person acquainted with the present place of residence of the said John Pywell is requested to communicate such information to Messrs. Meyrick and Cox, Solicitors, 17, Red Lion-Square, London.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Wilden versus Andrews, it was ordered, among other things, that it should be referred to Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court who is the Heir at Law of the late plaintiff, Joseph Wilden, and also who is the Heir at Law of William Thomas, deceased, one of the children of Ann Thomas, in the pleadings of the said cause named, who was born within two years after the death of John Wilden, the testator in the pleadings of the said cause named; and whereas the said late plaintiff, Joseph Wilden, for some time previously, and up to and at the time of his death, resided in the Parish of Coreley, in the County of Salop, and died in or about the month of September 1828; and the said William Thomas for some time previously, and up to and at the time of his death, resided at Tenbury, in the County of Worcester; and the said testator, John Wilden, died in or about the month of April 1819:—Now therefore such persons or person as claim to be the Heirs or Heir at Law of the said Joseph Wilden and William Thomas, respectively, are hereby required forthwith to come in and make out their or his claims or claim as such Heirs or Heir at Law, before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Hallett against Colman, it was referred to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court what charges and incumbrances there were affecting the trust fund of £10,500, in the pleadings of the said cause mentioned, to be charged upon certain estates, situate in the Parishes of Broom, Ellingham, and Ditchingham, in the County of Norfolk, and in the Parishes of St. Andrew, Ilkeshall, and Mettingham, in the County of Suffolk, in trust, for Samuel Henry Colman, late of the City of Bath, Esq. deceased, his executors, administrators, and assigns, and which estates were vested in Rowland Wimburn and Deliverance Dacre, Esqrs. (defendants in the said cause), under and by virtue of certain indentures, bearing date respectively the 9th day of February 1810, the 10th day of May 1811, and the 10th day of May 1811, in the pleadings of the said cause more particularly mentioned, and also to take an account of what was due in respect thereof, and state their priorities:—all persons, theretore claiming any charge or incumbrance on the said trust fund, are forthwith, by their Solicitors, to come in and make out and substantiate such their claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Hallett against Colman, the Creditors of Samuel Henry Colman, late of the City of Bath, Esq. deceased (who died in or about the month of July 1826), are forthwith, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Symons against James, the Creditors and all persons having charges or incumbrances affecting the estates of George Symons, late of Axbridge, in the County of Somerset, Gentleman, deceased (who died on or about the 21st day of July 1831), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts and make out their claims before William Brougham, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes of Parker versus Banks, and Parker versus Dowling, the Creditors of Ann Banks, Spinster (commonly called Ann Halliday, Widow), heretofore of Parliament-Street, Westminster, but late of Knightsbridge, in the Parish of St. George, Hanover-Square, in the County of Middlesex (who died in the month of May 1830), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 10th day of June 1833, to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Shaw against Campbell, the Creditors of Harriot Priscilla Gordon (the Widow of Arthur Gordon, Esq. Attorney-General of East Florida, in America), who, for several years previous to her decease, resided at Lambeth, in the County of Surrey, and died in the year 1813, are, on or before the 10th day of June 1833, to come in and prove their debts before Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will peremptorily be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THIS is to give notice, that by an indenture of assignment, bearing date the 6th of May 1833, Benjamin Blencowe, of Adderbury, in the County of Oxford, Linen-Draper, hath assigned all his stock in trade, book debts, furniture, estate and effects, to Benjamin Kirby, of Buckingham, in the County of Buckingham, Linen-Draper, as a Trustee upon trust, for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said Benjamin Blencowe who shall execute the said indenture on or before the 28th day of September 1833, or within the space of fourteen days after notice to them given of the trusts therein contained; and that the said indenture of assignment was duly executed by the said Benjamin Blencowe, and by the said Trustee on the 6th day of May 1833; and the execution thereof attested by John Willcutt Cowley, of Buckingham aforesaid, Attorney at Law; and all persons having claims against the said Benjamin Blencowe, are requested to send an account thereof to the said Assignee, or John Willcutt Cowley, at whose Office the said indenture of assignment now lies for the perusal and execution of the several Creditors who shall be willing to take the benefit thereof. And notice is hereby given, that all persons who stood indebted to the said Benjamin Blencowe at the date of the said indenture are forthwith to pay their debts to the said Assignee or his Solicitor.—Buckingham, 10th May 1833.

To the Creditors of Henry Rogers, of Oswestry, in the County of Salop, Innkeeper.

WHEREAS Henry Rogers, of Oswestry, in the County of Salop, Innkeeper, hath by indentures of lease and appointment, release and assignment, bearing date respectively the 6th and 7th days of May 1833, conveyed and assigned over all his real and personal estate and effects whatsoever unto John Pierce and John Jones, both of Oswestry aforesaid, Maltsters, in trust, for the equal benefit of such of the Creditors of the said Henry Rogers as shall execute the said indenture of appointment, release, and assignment, or signify their assent thereto by letter, on or before the 7th day of July next; which said indenture of appointment, release, and assignment was executed by the said Henry Rogers, John Pierce, and John Jones, on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of, and is attested by, John Hayward, of Oswestry aforesaid, Attorney at Law, and John Broughall, his Clerk; notice is therefore hereby given, that the said deed is left at the Office of Mr. Hayward, Solicitor, Oswestry aforesaid, for the execution of such of the Creditors of the said Henry Rogers who shall think proper to execute the same; and that such of his Creditors as shall neglect to execute the same, or signify their assent thereto by letter, within the time limited for that purpose, will be excluded from any benefit to arise therefrom. All persons indebted to the said Henry Rogers are requested, forthwith, to pay the amount of their respective debts to the said Mr. Hayward, otherwise actions will be commenced against them for the recovery thereof—Oswestry 11th May 1833.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Joseph Temple, of the Lordship of Myton, in the County of the Town of Kingston-upon-Hull, Common Brewer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Thursday the 6th day of June next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. Dryden, Solicitor, in the Town of Kingston-upon-Hull, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending, any action at law, suit in equity, or other proceeding that may be thought necessary, relating to a certain contract entered into by the said Bankrupt with a certain person at such meeting to be named, for the sale of certain part of the said Bankrupt's real estate; and also to assent to or dissent from allowing the said Assignee authority to rescind such contract, or to compound or agree to certain terms to be then and there mentioned and stated respecting such contract, and for varying the terms and conditions thereof, or otherwise to submit to the arbitration of such person or persons as the said Assignee may think proper, to name all matters in difference between the said Bankrupt, his said Assignee, and the several persons at such meeting to be named; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling, by private sale or public auction, such part of the real and reversionary estates and interests of the said Bankrupt as at such meeting will be described, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon or as to the said Assignee may appear most beneficial to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also in the event of such real estate being determined to be offered for sale by public auction to authorise the said Assignee to buy in or to appoint a person on his account to buy in the same for the benefit and on the account of the said Bankrupt's estate; upon such terms and in such manner as the said Assignee shall deem most expedient; also to assent to or dissent from certain contracts already made and entered into by the said Assignee with certain persons at such meeting to be named, for the sale of the equity of redemption of part of the said Bankrupt's real estates; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee relinquishing or giving up certain public houses held by the said Bankrupt, to the owners thereof, the names and particulars whereof will at such meeting be declared; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying and allowing to certain persons, at such meeting to be named, certain remunerations for services performed for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate, and for authorising the said Assignee to continue to make such reasonable remunerations so long as such services shall be by such Assignee required; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting or defending, any action or suit at law, or in equity, for the recovery of or relating to any part of the Bankrupt's estate and effects, or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto, and now in dispute between the said Bankrupt, his Assignee, and certain other persons at such meeting to be named; and on other special affairs at such meeting to be declared.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Francis Fisher the younger and William Jepson Fisher, of the City of Bristol, Sail-Makers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Wednesday the 5th day of June next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Commercial Rooms, in the City of Bristol, for the purpose of taking into consideration a proposal which has been made to the said Assignees for the purchase, by private contract, of a certain reversionary estate or interest in a farm and lands called Rooten-Brook, in the County of Lancaster, which is considered to have vested in the said William Jepson Fisher under the will of the late Mr. William Jepson, and of authorising the said Assignees to sell and convey such estate or interest accordingly; and generally to give such authorities to the said Assignees respecting the Bankrupts' estate and interest in the said farm and lands as the said Creditors shall think fit.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Charles Butler, of Cheap-side, in the City of London, Druggist, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 24th day of May instant, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to decide whether or not it is advisable to accept an offer, which has been made to the said Assignees since the meeting of the Creditors on the 22d April last, for the purchase of their interest in the trade and business of the said Bankrupt, and also in the premises whereon his said business has been carried on; and also of the stock in trade, furniture, fixtures, and other effects thereon, and of the furniture and effects of the said Bankrupt at Ballham; and for the purpose of giving to the said Assignees such directions relative to the sale and disposition of the said property as shall in the judgment of the said Creditors appear to be most advantageous to the estate of the said Bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Lees, of Newton-Moor, near Hyde, in the County of Chester, Cotton-Spinner and Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman (trading under the firm of Joseph Lees and Son) are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Thursday the 6th day of June next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Atkinson and Birch, Solicitors, No. 3, Norfolk-Street, in Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting a suit in Chancery, or such other proceedings, either at law or in equity, as they may be advised, against certain persons, to be named at such meeting, for the recovery of £2552, the amount of a certain judgment obtained by the said Assignees in a suit instituted by them against a certain person, to be named at such meeting, for damage done to certain mills and premises, part of the estate of the said Joseph Lees, and to set aside certain conveyances or assignments alleged to have been executed by a certain person, to be named at such meeting, of his real and personal estate, or some part or parts thereof, on the ground of their being fraudulent and void, and to pay off and redeem certain mortgages and other incumbrances affecting the real and leasehold estate of a certain person, to be named at such meeting; and also to authorise and empower the said Assignees to take such other proceedings, either at law or in equity as they may be advised, for obtaining satisfaction of the said judgment; and on other special affairs.
