Westminster, May 17, 1833.

This day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to repeal the duties on personal estates, continued by an Act of the present session of Parliament.

An Act to reduce the duty payable on cotton wool imported into the United Kingdom.

An Act for repealing the duties and drawbacks of Excise on tiles.

An Act to provide for the execution of the duties performed by the Barons of Exchequer in Scotland in relation to the public revenue, and to place the management of the assessed taxes and land tax in Scotland under the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes.

Veneris, 17^o die Maii 1833.

Whereas, the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of William Taylor Copland, Esq. complaining of an undue election and return for the borough of Coleraine, have this day reported to the House of Commons, "That it appeared to the said Committee that the merits of the petition did depend, in part, upon the right of election; and that, therefore, the said

“ Committee required the Counsel for the petitioners, and the Counsel for the voters of the said borough, who were admitted as parties by an order of the House, dated the 14th of March last, to defend the return of Sir John Poo Beresford, to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee statements, in writing, of the right of election for which they respectively contended:—that in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the petitioner delivered in a statement as follows: that all the freemen of the Corporation of Coleraine were, previously to the Irish Reform Act, legally entitled to vote in the election of Members to serve in Parliament for the borough of Coleraine; and that since the said Act, all the said freemen (subject to the provisions of the Act of 1st and 2d Will. 4, c. 88, as to residence and registry), and also all other persons, qualified under the said Act, are now legally entitled to vote at the election of Members for the said borough:—that the Counsel for the said voters delivered in a statement as follows: that the right of voting in the borough of Coleraine, before the passing of the Irish Reform Bill, was in the Mayor, twelve Aldermen, and twenty-four Burgesses only:—that upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the petitioner, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said borough:—that upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the said voters, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said borough:—that the said Committee have determined, that all the inhabitants of the town of Coleraine, and the jurisdiction and liberty of the same, being admitted to their freedom of the said town, were, before the Irish Reform Act, entitled as Burgesses of the said town, as well as the Mayor, Aldermen, and twenty-four Burgesses, to vote in the election of Members to serve in Parliament for the borough of Coleraine; and that since the said Act, and subject to the provisions thereof, the Mayor, Aldermen, and all the Burgesses hereinbefore mentioned, and all other persons, qualified under the said Act, are now legally entitled to vote at every election of Members for the said borough:”

I do hereby give this notice, in pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “ An Act to consolidate and amend the laws relating to the trial of controverted elections or returns of Members to serve in Parliament.”

Given under my hand, the 17th day of May 1833,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.
