

“ Committee required the Counsel for the petitioners, and the Counsel for the voters of the said borough, who were admitted as parties by an order of the House, dated the 14th of March last, to defend the return of Sir John Poo Beresford, to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee statements, in writing, of the right of election for which they respectively contended:—that in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the petitioner delivered in a statement as follows: that all the freemen of the Corporation of Coleraine were, previously to the Irish Reform Act, legally entitled to vote in the election of Members to serve in Parliament for the borough of Coleraine; and that since the said Act, all the said freemen (subject to the provisions of the Act of 1st and 2d Will. 4, c. 88, as to residence and registry), and also all other persons, qualified under the said Act, are now legally entitled to vote at the election of Members for the said borough:—that the Counsel for the said voters delivered in a statement as follows: that the right of voting in the borough of Coleraine, before the passing of the Irish Reform Bill, was in the Mayor, twelve Aldermen, and twenty-four Burgesses only:—that upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the petitioner, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said borough:—that upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the said voters, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said borough:—that the said Committee have determined, that all the inhabitants of the town of Coleraine, and the jurisdiction and liberty of the same, being admitted to their freedom of the said town, were, before the Irish Reform Act, entitled as Burgesses of the said town, as well as the Mayor, Aldermen, and twenty-four Burgesses, to vote in the election of Members to serve in Parliament for the borough of Coleraine; and that since the said Act, and subject to the provisions thereof, the Mayor, Aldermen, and all the Burgesses hereinbefore mentioned, and all other persons, qualified under the said Act, are now legally entitled to vote at every election of Members for the said borough:”

I do hereby give this notice, in pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “ An Act to consolidate and amend the laws relating to the trial of controverted elections or returns of Members to serve in Parliament.”

Given under my hand, the 17th day of May 1833,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

Crown-Office, May 21, 1833.
