TUESDAY, JUNE 4, 1833.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 30, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will not hold a Levee on Wednesday next.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 29, 1833.

TO prevent mistakes and misconceptions, His Majesty has been pleased to order, that at the Queen's Drawing-Rooms and Her Majesty's State Balls, the Masters of the Horse, the Master of the Buck Hounds, Equerries and Pages of Honour, and all Officers of the Navy and Army, Militia and Yeomanry, the Lords Lieutenants of Counties and Deputy Lieutenants, should appear in uniform pantaloons and boots, agreeably to regulation.

All persons belonging to their Majesties' Households, and all others who wear the civil uniform, are, on similar occasions, to appear in shoes with buckles, and breeches with knee buckles.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th day of May 1833,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that His Majesty's Order in Council of the sixth of November last, directing that no ships or vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects be permitted to clear out for any of the ports within the dominions of the King of the Netherlands until further orders; and that an embargo be laid upon all ships and vessels belonging to the subjects of the King of the Netherlands which then were, or which should thereafter come into any of the ports, harbours, or roads within any part of His Majesty's dominions; and that the commanders of His Majesty's ships of war should detain and bring into port all merchant ships and vessels bearing the flag of the Netherlands, be revoked, and the same is hereby revoked accordingly; and it is hereby further ordered, that the said embargo be taken off, and that all such ships and vessels be permitted to depart with their cargoes to their respective ports of destination:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions therein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Whitehall, June 3, 1833.

The King has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal, granting the dignity of a Baron of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, unto Charles Marquess of Queensberry, K. In the affairs of Joseph Brackenbury, late of Spilsby, in the County of Lincoln, Esq. deceased, and the affairs of the late firm of Joseph and Langley Brackenbury, of Spilsby aforesaid, Solicitors.

ALL persons having any claims or demands against the estate and effects of the late Joseph Brackenbury, or the late firm of Joseph and Langley Brackenbury, are requested, within one month from the date hereof, to forward the particulars of the same to me the undersigned, in order to an examination and discharge thereof, otherwise the same will not be paid; and all persons indebted to the estate and effects of the said Joseph Brackenbury, or the late firm of Joseph and Langley Brackenbury, are requested to pay the same to me the undersigned, within one month from the date hereof, otherwise proceedings will be instituted for the recovery of the same without further notice.

By order of the Executors of the late Joseph Brackenbury, and as the surviving Partner of the late firm of J. and L. Brackenbury.

LANGLEY BRACKENBURY, Solicitor.
Spilsby, May 28, 1833.

CORSE, GLOUCESTERSHIRE.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Creed, precisely at Three o'clock in the Afternoon of Thursday the 27th day of June 1833, at the Feathers Inn, Corse (by order of the Trustees appointed under the will of Mr. Thomas Hulls, formerly of the Parish of Corse, deceased), in lots, and subject to conditions of sale to be then produced;

All those two pieces of arable land, called Red Hill, containing about 16 acres.

Also all that brick barn, sheds, fold, rick-yard, and three pieces of arable land, containing about 22 acres.

Also all that cottage and garden, barn, stable, sheds, wagon-house, fold, rick-yard, one piece of pasture and seven pieces of arable land, containing about 84 acres.

The whole of the above premises are redeemed from land-tax, are tithe-free, and were formerly part of the Common, called Corse Lawn, and lie altogether between the turnpike-roads leading from Gloucester to Ledbury, and from Gloucester to Upton-on-Severn.

Also all that cottage and garden, barn, stables, and mill-house, called Horridge Cottage; together with five pieces of most excellent pasture and orcharding, well planted with choice cider fruits, in good bearing, containing about 16 acres.

Also all that cottage, called Chestnut Cottage, at Horridge-Street, with the garden, barn, stable, fold, rick-yard, and orchard, planted with fruit-trees, containing about 5 acres; together with five pieces of good arable, meadow, and pasture land, called Twackleys, lying a short distance from the last mentioned premises, containing about 18 acres; which last mentioned five pieces of land lie adjoining a farm, called Pitt's Mill, the property of Sir Anthony Lechmere, Bart.

Also all those two pieces of arable land, called Stone Reddings, containing, by estimation, 18 acres.

Also all that piece of arable land, called Typings, containing about 3 acres, and near to the last mentioned two pieces.

The whole of the above property is freehold of inheritance, contains an excellent tract of land, and has for many years been farmed by one of the Proprietors, who has done every thing necessary for its improvement, and the situation, as regards roads and markets, as good as can be required. The whole is situate in the Parish of Corse, in the County of Gloucester, and about 8 miles from Tewkesbury and Ledbury, 7 miles from Gloucester, 9 from Upton, and 12 from Cheltenham, and in the occupation of Mr. Henry Hulls.—Possession may be had at Michaelmas or Lady-day next.

Also all that freehold piece of pasture land, containing about 3 acres, situate at Hasfield, in the County of Gloucester, in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Roberts.

For view of any of the above premises apply to Mr. H. Hulls, Chestnut Cottage, Corse.

Further particulars may be had of Mr. R. W. Hulls, Attorney, Westgate-Street, Gloucester; or Messrs. White and Whitmore, Solicitors, Bedford-Row, London.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Beal versus Ridge, with the approbation of Sir Giffin Wilson, Knt. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Royal Clarence Hotel, in Exeter, on Thursday the 6th day of June 1833, between the hours of Four and Five in the Afternoon, in two lots;

A newly built freehold brewhouse or warehouse, and three lofts over, situate behind St. Lawrence's Church, in Exeter, in the occupation of Mr. Jeffery; and A freehold dwelling-house in Bedford-Place, in the Parish of St. Lawrence, in the occupation of Mr. Balle, Hellier; late the property of Thomas Gooch, deceased.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. Fairbank, Solicitor, Staple-Inn, London; and of Mr. Drake, Solicitor, Exeter.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Crouch v. Pitman, it was, amongst other things, referred to John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court, who was or were the heir or heirs at law of the testatrix, Mary Crouch, late of Andover, in the County of Southampton, Spinster, deceased, living at the time of her death (which happened in the month of October last), and who was or were then such heir or heirs at law, and also to enquire and state to the Court, who was or were the next of kin of the said testatrix living at the time of her death, and in case any of them were since dead, who was or were the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying. Therefore, any person or persons claiming to be such heir or heir at law as aforesaid, or claiming to be such next of kin, or the personal representative or representatives of any such deceased next of kin as aforesaid, is or are, forthwith, to come in and prove such claim, or respective claims, before the said Master, Mr. Dowdeswell, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or, in default thereof, such person or persons will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery in England, bearing date the 26th day of March 1835, made in a cause of Cuthbert v. Purrier, and other causes, it is referred to the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court, whether Fyzum Meerum, in the said Order mentioned, is living or dead, and if dead, when she died, and whether any persons or person are or is her legal personal representative or representative. Therefore, the said Fyzum Meerum, if living, or if dead, any persons or person claiming to be her legal personal representative or representative, is or are, forthwith, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out her, his, or their claim, or, in default thereof, they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.—Edward Alexander Cuthbert, formerly of Allahabad, in the East Indies, Esq. deceased, by his will, dated the 26th day of December 1808, and proved in Calcutta on the 30th day of July 1810, and in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, in England, on the 8th day of May 1811, bequeathed to the said Fyzum Meerum a sum of 230 rupees monthly, which it has been ascertained she received from his Executor, William Hollings, up to the 30th of August 1815. The said Fyzum Meerum is described in the will of the said Edward Alexander Cuthbert as being then in Calcutta. She afterwards resided at Cawnpoor and Allahabad, and was last heard of at Calcutta.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Distin, of Bridgwater, in the County of Somerset, Ironmonger, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 25th day of June instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Offices of Mr. Edward Rankin, Solicitor, Bristol, in order to take into consideration an offer of composition made by the friends of the said Bankrupt; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's stock in trade and effects, by private contract or otherwise, on credit or for cash payment, as may by the said Assignees be deemed most to the interest of the Creditors; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law, relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney, or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such

" act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed ;
 " and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of
 " Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days
 " next after such insertion in case such Commis" sion is to be executed in London, or before the " expiration of eight days next after such inser" tion in case such Commission is to be executed
 " in the Country : " — Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 3d day of June 1833, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

WILLIAM LUCAS PEARCE, of Dartford, in the County of Kent, Ironmonger, Tinsman, and Smith, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Robert Ashby and Samuel Ashby,
