FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 1833.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, June 5, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold her last Drawing-Room for this season, on Thursday the 20th instant.

No Lady can be presented to the Queen at Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, unless the Lady who presents be actually present at the Drawing-Room.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 29, 1833.

TO prevent mistakes and misconceptions, His Majesty has been pleased to order, that at the Queen's Drawing-Rooms and Her Majesty's State Balls, the Masters of the Horse, the Master of the Buck Hounds, Equerries and Pages of Honour, and all Officers of the Navy and Army, Militia and Yeomanry, the Lords Lieutenants of Counties and Deputy Lieutenants, should appear in uniform pantaloons and boots, agreeably to regulation.

All persons belonging to their Majesties' Households, and all others who wear the civil uniform, are, on similar occasions, to appear in shoes with buckles, and breeches with knee buckles.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th day of May 1833,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that His Majesty's Order in Council of the sixth of November last, directing that no ships or vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects be permitted to clear out for any of the ports within the dominions of the King of the Netherlands until further orders; and that an embargo be laid upon all ships and vessels belonging to the subjects of the King of the Netherlands which then were, or which should thereafter come into any of the ports, harbours, or roads within any part of His Majesty's dominions; and that the commanders of His Majesty's ships of war should detain and bring into port all merchant ships and vessels bearing the flag of the Netherlands, be revoked, and the same is hereby revoked accordingly; and it is hereby further ordered, that the said embargo be taken off, and that all such ships and vessels be permitted to depart with their cargoes to their respective ports of destination:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions therein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Downing-Street, June 6, 1833.

The King has been graciously pleased to nominate and appoint Vice-Admirals John Harvey and George Parker to be Knights Commanders of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, in the room of Vice-Admirals Sir Edward James Foote and the Honourable Sir Henry Hotham, deceased.
