Whitehall, June 15, 1833.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Lewis-Goodin Senior, of Compton Pauncefoot, in the county of Somerset, Esq. His royal licence and authority that he may, in compliance with an injunction contained in the last will and testament of John-Hubert Hunt, late of Compton-castle, in the said county, Esq. deceased, take and henceforth use the surnames of Husey-Hunt, in lieu of the surname of Senior, and bear the arms of Husey and Hunt (Hunt in the first quarter), in lieu of those of Senior; and that such surnames and arms may be taken, used, and borne by his sons respectively succeeding to the possession of the estates devised by the said will; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Majesty has been further pleased to command, that this concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 20, 1833.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Thomas Spiers, heretofore Thomas Crossford, of the parish of Thame, in the county of Oxford, Gent. His royal licence and authority that he may, in compliance with a proviso in the last will and testament of his maternal great uncle, Thomas Spiers, late of New Thame, in the parish of Thame aforesaid, Gent. deceased, continue to use the surname of Spiers, and that he and his issue may henceforth name, stile, and write themselves by the said surname of Spiers only:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 18, 1833.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Edward Menlove, of Ellesmere, in the county of Salop, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Admiralty, June 7, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Tuesday the 2d of July next, at eight o'clock in the morning:

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. John Clark, the Clerk of Arraigns of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.

George Elliot.

South Sea-House, June 6, 1833.

THE Court of Directors of the South Sea Company give notice, that a General Court of the said Company will be held at this House, on Friday the 5th of July next, at eleven in the forenoon, for the purpose of declaring a dividend on the capital stock for the half year ending on that day.

Nathaniel Simpson, Secretary.
