The King has been pleased to appoint Henry Brown, Esq. Surgeon and Apothecary in Ordinary to His Majesty's Household at Windsor.

Admiralty, June 20, 1833.

Description of the Uniforms which, in pursuance of His Majesty's Pleasure, are to be worn in the Royal Navy.

ADMIRAL OF THE FLEET.

Dress Uniform.

Coat—Blue cloth, with two rows of buttons down the front, ten in each row, and three inches apart across the breast, from the front of the button-hole to the centre of the button. Scarlet collar, sloped off with one row of two-inch gold lace, Navy pattern, along the top and front edges, and one row of one-inch lace along the bottom edge, coming partly on the coat. Scarlet cuffs, with two-inch lace round the top; and blue slash pointed flaps in the sleeve, with three small buttons, and one and a quarter-inch lace round the edge. Pointed flaps in the skirts, with three buttons under, and one row of two-inch lace all round the flaps, and one row of one and a quarter-inch lace to encircle the hip buttons, and form a point at the top, one button at the bottom of each plait. The skirts to begin at one sixth the circumference from the front edge, and to be lined with white kerseymere.

Buttons—Raised, gilt, and one inch in diameter, indented with a round rim, and within, an anchor and a cable, and a crown over, between two wreaths of laurel. The small buttons to be half an inch in diameter.

Epaulettes—Two gold epaulettes with forty bullions each, over a bonnet and a crescent, and edging to the strap, with silver anchor and crown, and three silver stars, two upon the crescent and one above.

Trowsers—Blue cloth, with gold lace of the same width as that on the coat down the outside seams, to be worn over boots between the 15th October and the 30th April; and white duck, over boots, between the 1st of May and 1st of October. Whenever blue trowsers are worn in full dress, those of Commissioned Officers, and of Warrant Officers ranking with them, shall have gold lace of the same width as that of their coats down the outside seams.

Cravat or Stock—Black silk.

Hat—Cocked; the flaps ten inches in the back, eight and a half inches in the front, six inches at each corner, bound with gold lace two and a half inches wide, showing one inch and a quarter on each side. Black silk cockade, six inches wide, looped with six gold bullions, three and a half eighth of inches wide, and the two centre twisted, with a button of the same size and pattern as that on the coat; and tassels with five gold and five blue bullions each.

Sword—The hilt solid, half basket guard, with raised bars and crown and anchor badge, lion head back piece, white fish-skin gripe, bound with three gilt wires; outside length, five inches and three quarters; inside length, four inches and a half.

The blade slightly curved, with a round back, thirty-one inches and a quarter long, one inch and three eighths wide at the shoulder, with a double-edged spear point.

Scabbard—The top and middle lockets to be four and three inches and a half long respectively; to have loops and rings, and to be ornamented with embossed oak leaves in bas-relief; the chape to be seven inches and a half long, and to have oak leaves, as above, round the upper part, and a honeysuckle ornament at the end.

Sword Knot—Blue and gold rope, twenty-three inches long, with ditto ditto vellum basket-work head, and twelve gold bullions; a piece of the same sort of cord, fourteen inches and three quarters long, is to be fixed to the hilt, to which the knot is attached.

Sword Belt—Blue morocco leather, lined, full one inch and a half wide in the girdle; single, one inch wide, sword slings on carriages; the whole embroidered in gold, with oak-leaves and acorns down the middle, and margined with a straight line near each edge. Gilt mountings with circular fronts, two inches diameter, laurel embossed edges, crown, anchor, and laurel on the centre; embossed carriage-buckles, plain, girdle-buckles and rings, the latter one inch and three quarters diameter in the centre; and plain studs under the carriage-buckles, for the more easily attaching and detaching the sword, superseding the use of swivels; a plain strong, gilt hook attached to the ring, to suspend the sword short.

The belt to be worn over the coat.

Undress Uniform.

Coat—Blue lapelled coat as formerly worn, with stand and fall collar; eight buttons and holes in front, regular; pointed flaps, with three notched holes, and buttons under. Round cuffs, with three notched holes, and buttons of the larger size, and four rows of five eighth inch distinction lace round the cuffs, across the holes below the buttons.

Buttons—The same pattern as in full dress.

Epaulettes—The same as in full dress, but the bullions to be left loose, without the bonnet; and this rule to apply to the undress epaulettes of all Officers entitled to wear them.

Waistcoat—Single-breasted, white cloth or kerseymere, with small buttons.

Trowsers—Blue cloth, without lace.—In warm climates, or on the home station in summer, Officers may wear white duck.

Cravat or Stock—Black silk.

Hat—With or without lace.

Sword—The same as in full dress.

Scabbard—The same as in full dress.

Sword Knot—The same as in full dress.

Sword Belt—Black patent leather, of the same width as in full dress, but without embroidery; the mountings and edges to be also the same as in full dress, but the carriage-buckles to be plain instead of embossed.

ADMIRAL.

Dress Uniform.

The same uniform and appointments as the Admiral of the Fleet, except that there are to be three stars only on the epaulettes.

Undress Uniform.

The same as the undress uniform and appointments of the Admiral of the Fleet, with three rows only of distinction lace on the cuffs.

Plain gilt buttons, with an anchor and cable engraved thereon.

Waistcoat—White.

Cravat or Stock—Black.

Hat—Plain round.

Sword—Of the same pattern and length as Commissioned Officers, but the back-piece of the handle is to be plain, with a flute round the top and down the back; with a black fish-skin gripe bound with three gold wires; the etchings on the blade not blue or gilt.

Sword Knot—Of blue silk, mixed with gold fringe, but no bullion.

Sword-Belt—The same as Mates.

MIDSHIPMEN.

The same as Mates, with a white turn-back on each side of the collar, but the coat not to be edged with white, nor to have the gold button-hole.

Swords—Of the same pattern as Lieutenants, but of such length as may be convenient.

Sword Belts—The same as Mates.

VOLUNTEERS OF THE FIRST CLASS.

The same as Midshipmen, but instead of the white turn-back, a button-hole of white twist on the collar, with a corresponding button, and to wear dirks instead of swords.

MASTERS' ASSISTANTS AND VOLUNTEERS OF THE SECOND CLASS.

The same uniform as Volunteers of the First Class, and the button-hole on the collar to be blue twist.

MEMORANDA.

Full dress is always to be worn on state occasions and at courts martial.

On all occasions of full dress, Officers shall wear white trousers over boots between the 1st of May and the 14th of October, and blue trousers between the 15th of October and the 30th of April.

The great coats for Officers in the Royal Navy are to be of blue cloth; double or single breasted, according to the uniform assigned to their respective ranks, with stand and fall collar; the number and arrangement of the buttons to be according to their undress uniform—to be worn with or without epaulettes, as convenient.

The blue morning coat now in use is abolished. All Officers may wear in undress, on board their ships, a round jacket without skirts, with their appropriate buttons, and a round black hat, with a narrow black silk band and a black buckle, and a black silk or leather cockade, with a loop of the same material and half the width of the lace of their respective coats, or if they have no lace on their coats, of black silk riband (except Midshipmen,

Masters-Assistants, and Volunteers, who are to have a loop of gold twist; or a blue cloth cap, with a band round it, of half the width and material of the lace of their coats; Officers who have no lace to their coats, to have a band of gold lace, half an inch wide, round their caps.

Patterns or drawings of each article of dress are to be seen at this Office, and at the Offices of the several Port Admirals.

The old uniform may be worn until the 1st January 1834.

By command of their Lordships, George Elliot.

ecute or accede to the said indenture, of the third part; the said John Tucker hath appointed certain freehold hereditaments and premises, situate in Lymington aforesaid, and hath also assigned all his personal estate and effects unto the said William Heberd and James Corbin, upon trust, for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said John Tucker, who by themselves or their respective Attorneys duly authorised shall execute or accede to the said indenture within three calendar months from the date thereof; and that the said indenture was executed by the said John Tucker, William Heberd, and James Corbin, on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of Anthony Gay, of Lymington aforesaid, Attorney at Law, and William Upward, of the same place, Law Writer. And notice is hereby also given, that the said indenture is lodged at the Office of the said Anthony Guy, in Quay-Street, Lymington, for the perusal of all the said Creditors, and for execution by such of them as shall accede thereto within the period aforesaid.—Dated this 29th day of June 1833.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS AND CREDITORS.

WHEREAS William Carter, of Fleckney, in the County of Leicester, Farmer and Grazier, hath by indentures of lease and of release and assignment, dated respectively the 24th and 25th days of May 1833, conveyed and assigned all his real and personal estate and effects, whatsoever and wheresoever, unto William Wayte, of Great Peatling, in the said County, Farmer and Grazier, and Francis Breedon the younger, of Saddington, in the said County, Farmer and Grazier, in trust, for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said William Carter, which said indentures of lease and release and assignment were executed by the said William Carter on the said 25th day of May 1833, and his execution thereof was attested by Samuel Berridge, of Leicester, Attorney at Law, and John Marston, Clerk to the said Samuel Berridge; and the said indenture of release and assignment was executed by the said William Wayte and Francis Breedon respectively on the said 25th day of May, and their execution thereof was attested by the said Samuel Berridge and John Marston. Notice is hereby given, that the said indenture of release and assignment now lies at the Office of Messrs. Berridge, Berridge, and Macaulay, in Leicester, for execution by such of the Creditors of the said William Carter who think proper to avail themselves of the benefit thereof.—All persons having any claim or demand upon the estate and effects of the said William Carter are requested forthwith to send the particulars thereof, and the nature of their securities, if any, to the said William Wayte and Francis Breedon, or one of them; and all persons standing indebted to the estate of the said William Carter are required immediately to pay their respective debts to one of the said Trustees.

By order of the said Trustees,

BERRIDGE, BERRIDGE, and MACAULAY, their Attorneys.

WHEREAS James Hackney, of Cobridge, in the County of Stafford, Earthenware-Manufacturer, hath by an indenture, bearing date the 13th day of May instant, assigned over all his estate and effects to John Hales, of Cobridge aforesaid, Gentleman, and George Robins Booth, of Hanley, in the County of Stafford aforesaid, Colour-Maker, for the equal benefit of themselves, and such other of his Creditors as shall come in and execute the said indenture on or before the 10th day of August next; notice is therefore hereby given, that the said deed of assignment now lies at my Office at Shelton, in the County of Stafford, for the inspection and signature of such of the Creditors of the said James Hackney as may be willing to execute the same, and accept the provision thereby made for them in discharge of their respective debts within the time limited for that purpose; and all persons who stand indebted to the said James Hackney, are requested forthwith to pay the amount of their several debts to the said George Robins Booth, or legal proceedings will be commenced for recovering the same.—Shelton, 15th May 1833.

JNO. SPARROW TAYLOR, Solicitor to the said Trustees.

WHEREAS Charles Greenfield, of Burringham, in the County of Lincoln, Gentleman, hath by indentures of lease and appointment, release and assignment, bearing date respectively the 26th and 27th days of June 1833, conveyed and assigned over all his real and personal estates and effects unto Francis Gamble, of Gainsburgh, in the said County of Lincoln, Merchant, and William Forrest, of the same place, Druggist, in trust, for the equal benefit of such of the Creditors of the said Charles Greenfield as shall execute the said indenture, or signify their assent thereto in writing, on or before the 27th day of August next; which said indenture of appointment release, and assignment, was executed by the said Charles Greenfield, Francis Gamble, and William Forrest, on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of, and is attested by, Benjamin Codd, of Gainsburgh aforesaid, Attorney at Law, and Joseph Guy, of the same place, Gentleman. Notice is therefore hereby given, that the said deed is left at the Office of Messrs. Codd and Heaton, Solicitors, in Gainsburgh aforesaid, for execution by such of the Creditors of the said Charles Greenfield as shall think proper to execute the same; and that such of his Creditors as shall neglect to execute the same, or signify their assent thereto in writing, within the time limited for that purpose, will be excluded from any benefit to arise therefrom.—All persons indebted to the said Charles Greenfield are requested forthwith to pay the amount of their respective debts to the said Francis Gamble and William Forrest, or to Messrs. Codd and Heaton, otherwise actions will be commenced against them for the recovery thereof.—Gainsburgh, 26th of June 1833.
