TUESDAY, AUGUST 20, 1833.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, August 15, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's next Levee will be on Friday the 23d instant.

Westminster, August 14, 1833.

This day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to reduce certain of the duties on dwelling-houses, and to repeal other duties of assessed taxes.

An Act to alter and amend the laws relating to the temporalities of the Church in Ireland.

An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, of the seventh and eighth years and the ninth year of King George the Fourth, as inflicts the punishment of death upon persons breaking, entering, and stealing in a dwelling-house; also for giving power to the judges to add to the punishment of transportation for life in certain cases of forgery, and in certain other cases.

An Act for the better administration of justice in His Majesty's Privy Council.

An Act to declare valid marriages solemnized at Hamburgh, since the abolition of the British Factory there.

An Act for dissolving the Saint George's Fund Society, otherwise called the Troopers' Fund in the Royal Regiment of Horse Guards, and for distributing the fund.

An Act to repeal certain Acts relating to the removal of poor persons born in Scotland and Ireland and chargeable to parishes in England, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof, until the thirty-first day of May one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament.

An Act to enable burghs in Scotland to establish a general system of police.

An Act for the further amendment of the law, and the better advancement of justice.

An Act to extend to the twenty-first day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the time for carrying into execution an Act of the first and second years of His present Majesty, for ascertaining the boundaries of the Forest of Dean, and for inquiring into the rights and privileges claimed by free miners of the hundred of Saint Briavels, and for other purposes.

An Act for raising a sum of money for the repair of Blackfriars-bridge.

An Act for the more easy and speedy recovery of small debts within the township of Hyde, and other places therein mentioned, in the county palatine of Chester.

An Act for transferring to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods and Forests the several powers now vested in the Holyhead-road Commissioners, and for discharging the last-mentioned Commissioners from the future repairs and maintenance of the roads, harbours, and bridges now under their care and management.

An Act to rectify a mistake in an Act of this session of Parliament, for more effectually repairing the road from the Canal-bridge, in Hurdfield, in the county of Chester, to the turnpike road at Randle Carr-lane-head, in Femilee, in the county of Derby, leading to Chapel in the Frith, in the same county. And three private Acts.

CONTRACT FOR IRISH BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 27, 1833.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 19th of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of Irish Salt Meat, equal to 10,000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 9000 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, seven eighth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in barrels, into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Cork, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1834, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of His Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

CONTRACTS FOR VEGETABLES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 31, 1833.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 22d of August next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's ships at Woolwich, Deptford, Falmouth, and in the Downs, with Vegetables.

The contract for Woolwich to commence on the 1st September next;

The contract for Deptford to commence on the 1st September next;

The contract for Falmouth, to commence on the 1st October next;

The contract for the Downs to commence on the 1st January 1834;

And the whole to terminate on the 31st March 1836.

Conditions of the contracts may be seen at the said Office; or on application to the Victualling Agent at Milor, near Falmouth; or to the Clerk in charge of the Victualling at Deal.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £100, for the due performance of each of the contracts.

Admiralty, Somerset-Place,
August 13, 1833.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Friday the 30th instant, at two o'clock in the afternoon, they will put up to sale, at their Office in Somerset-place, His Majesty's ships and vessels hereunder mentioned:

Lying at Woolwich.

Albatross, schooner, 67 tons burthen.
Supply, transport, 223 tons burthen.

Lying at Sheerness.

Protector, brig, 178 tons burthen.
Maria, tender, 17 tons burthen.

Lying at Portsmouth.
