NOTICE TO MARINERS.

LISMORE, BARRAHEAD, AND GIRDLENESS LIGHT-HOUSES, ON THE COAST OF SCOTLAND.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses hereby give notice, that the three new light-houses above mentioned have been erected, and will be lighted upon the night of Tuesday the 15th day of October next. The lights will continue thereafter to be exhibited every night from the going away of day-light in the evening till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following Specification of the Positions of these Light-Houses, and of the Appearance of the Lights, is given by Mr. Stephenson, Engineer to the Commissioners:

LISMORE LIGHT-HOUSE.

Lismore Light-house is erected on the small island called Mousedale or the Lady's Isle, at the western extremity of Lismore Island, in the county of Argyll, in lat. 56. 30. North, and in long. 5. 40. West. This light opens the two channels, leading along Lismore to the Caledonian Canal by Fort William, and also the Sounds of Loing, Islay, and Mull. The light-house bears from Seaskerry Rock, S. S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. distant $1\frac{1}{4}$ mile; from the southern entrance of the Sound of Mull, S. S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. distant 3 miles; from the Lady Rock, E. N. E. distant 1081 yards; from the northern entrance of the Sound of Islay, N. E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. distant 38 miles; and from Dunolly Castle, at the western entrance to Oban, N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. distant 7 miles. These bearings are taken by compass, and the variation is 27. West.

This light will be known to mariners as a fixed light from oil with reflectors; and will be seen like a star of the first magnitude at the distance of 12 miles, and at intermediate distances, according to the state of the atmosphere. The lantern is elevated 103 feet above the medium level of the sea.

BARRAHEAD LIGHT-HOUSE.

Barrahead Light-house is erected on the most southern extremity of the groups of islands called Barra, Uist, Harris, and Lewis, and known to mariners as the Long Island. It is situate in the county of Inverness, in lat. 56. 48. North, and in long. 7. 33. West. It bears from the Island of Muldonich, one of the Barra Isles, W. S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. distant 9 miles; from Hysker, off the Islands of Cana and Rum, W. by N. distant 35 miles; from the Rock Skerryvore, N. distant 37 miles; from Stevenson's Rocks, N. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. distant 38 miles; from Tory Island Light, in the county of Donegal, N. E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. distant 93 miles; and from the Island of St. Kilda, S. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. distant 68 miles. The bearings are by compass, and the variation is 28. West.

This light will be known to mariners as an intermittent light, suddenly appearing like a star of the first magnitude, and continuing two minutes and a half in view, when it is suddenly eclipsed for half a minute. The entire effect is thus produced in three minutes. The light will be from oil, with reflectors. The lantern is elevated 680 feet above the medium level of the sea, and is glazed or open from N. by E. to E. N. E. and intermediate points westerly and southerly. In clear weather the light will be seen at the distance of 33 miles, and at intermediate distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

GIRDLENESS LIGHT-HOUSE.

Girdleness Light-house is placed on the headland of that name, in the county of Kincardine. It is situate in lat. 57. 8. North, and in long. 2. 3. West; and immediately off it lies the sunken rock called the Girdle. This light-house bears from the North Pier of Aberdeen S. by W. distant 1220 yards; from Buchanness Light-house, S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ West, distant 25 miles; and from the Bell Rock Light-house, N. E. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. distant 43 miles. The two lanterns at this station are open or glazed from N. N. E. to W. S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. and intermediate points, easterly and southerly. The bearings are taken by compass, and the variation is 26. 45. West.

Girdleness will be known to mariners as a double light, exhibiting from the same tower two fixed lights like stars of the first magnitude, the one over the other; but to a distant observer the lights will appear as one, having an elongated form. These lights will be from oil, with reflectors, placed in lanterns, elevated respectively 115 and 185 feet above the medium level of the sea, and will be seen at the distance of 13 and 16 miles, and at intermediate distances, according to the state of the weather.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses, C. Cunningham, Secretary.

MRS. MARTHA TYLER, deceased.

ALL persons having any claim or demand on the estate of Mrs. Martha Tyler, late of No. 23, Holland-Place, Kennington, in the County of Surrey, deceased, who have not already sent in their accounts are requested so to do, addressed to her Executor, at No. 23, Holland-Place, Kennington, on or before the 1st of October next, in order to the same being examined and discharged.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Wilson versus Evans, it was ordered that it should be referred to the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, as the Master of the vacation, to enquire and state to the Court whether Charles Wilson, nephew of Anthony Wilson, late of the City of Bristol, Esq. deceased, the testator in the pleadings of the said cause named (and which said Charles Wilson is stated in the said testator's will to be the son of his late brother, John Wilson), is living or dead, and if dead, whether he, the said Charles Wilson, died before or whether he died after the said testator, and who is his legal personal representative; therefore the said Charles Wilson if living, or his legal personal representative if dead, is forthwith to come in and make out his claim before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof he will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The said testator, Anthony Wilson, died in or about the month of June 1824.

The said Charles Wilson was a native of Swansea, in South Wales, and afterwards resided at Bristol, from whence he sailed in the West India trade, and the last letter received from him was dated at St. Helena, November 3, 1821, in which he stated his arrival on that Island from the Isle of France on the 22d of August preceding, being one of the crew belong- ing to a trading ship, called the Egfrid, Brown Master, which vessel was sold and broken up at St. Helena. The said Charles Wilson was employed by Mr. Brabazon, Master Attendant of the Port, in assisting to break up the ship, until the 15th day of March 1822, when it is supposed he quitted St. Helena, and has not since been heard of.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Heather against Winder, the Creditors of John Cook, late of Sparling-Street, Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Cooper (who died in the month of February 1827), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 12th day of November 1833, to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will peremptorily be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Tonbridge-Wells, Kent.—One Fifth Share of the Stone-House Estate, delightfully situate on Mount Ephraim.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Cockerell, at the Royal Kentish Hotel, Tonbridge-Wells, on Friday October 11th, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, before Francis Gregg, Esq. one of the Registrars of the Court of Bankruptcy, pursuant to an Order of the Honourable Court of Review, and by direction of the Assignees of Mr. R. Delves;

The estate is freehold, and consists of a fifth share of two large houses, various sheds and buildings, about five acres of land, extensive right of common, and other advantages, very eligibly situated in one of the most favoured parts of the Wells.

May be viewed until the sale, and descriptive particulars had of Mr. George Smith, Solicitor, 31, Basinghall-Street, London; and at the Sussex and Kentish Hotels, Tonbridge-Wells; the Rose and Crown, at Tonbridge; the Royal Oak, at Seven Oaks; the Star, at Maidstone; the St. Leonards, at Hastings; Ship, at Brighton; and of the Auctioneer, Mount Zion, Tonbridge, and Blackman-Street, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an indenture, bearing date the 11th day of September 1833, Henry Howard, of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, Boot and Shoemaker, hath conveyed and assigned all his estate and effects to Richard Lewis, of the City of Bristol, Currier, and Ralph Hauxwell, of Great Newport-Street, in the City of Westminster, in trust, for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said Henry Howard executing such indenture within two calendar months from the date thereof; and that the said indenture was duly executed by the said Henry Howard, Richard Lewis, and Ralph Hauxwell, on the same 11th day of September; and the execution thereof by them attested by John Bland Winterbotham, Solicitor, Cheltenham.

TO CREDITORS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by indenture of assignment, bearing date the 20th day of August 1833, and made between John Pawlby, of the Parish of Stoke Damerell, in the County of Devon, Merchant, of the first part; William Hodge, Esq. and John Hearle, Plumber, of the same Parish, and John Pope, of Turnchapel, near Plymouth, in the same County, Ship-Builders (being respectively Creditors of the said John Pawlby, and also Trustees named and appointed on behalf of themselves and other the Creditors of the said John Pawlby for the purposes thereafter expressed), of the second part; and the several other persons, Creditors of the said John Pawlby, who by themselves, their agents, or attorneys, had executed, or should thereafter execute, the said indenture, of the third part; the said John Pawlby hath conveyed and assigned all his estate and effects whatsoever to the said William Hodge, John Hearle, and John Pope, their executors, administrators, and assigns, in trust, for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said John Pawlby; and that the said indenture of assignment was duly executed by the said John Pawlby on the said 20th day of August 1833, in the presence of, and attested by, Charles Thomas, of Devonport, in the County of Devon, Doctor of Medicine, and Philip Moysey Little, of the same place, Attorney at Law; and that the said indenture was executed by the said William Hodge, John Hearle, and John Pope, on the 26th day of the said month of August, in the presence of, and attested by, the said Philip Moysey Little and William Henry Bastard Edgecombe, of the Parish of Stoke Damerell aforesaid, Clerk to the said John Pawlby; and the same indenture now lies at the Office of Messrs. Leach, Little, and Woolcombe, Solicitors, in Devonport aforesaid, for the execution of such Creditors as have not yet signed the same.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by indenture of assignment, bearing date the 7th day of September instant, John Fillmer, of Boughton Malherbe, in the County of Kent, Victualler, hath conveyed and assured all and singular his stock in trade, farming stock, household furniture, debts, and effects, and the money to arise from the sale of his real estate, unto George Prentis, of Maidstone, in the said County, Wine-Merchant, and William Edmest, of the same place, Draper, in trust, for the benefit of themselves and such other the Creditors of the said John Fillmer as should execute the said deed previous to the distribution of a final dividend; and which deed was duly executed by the said John Fillmer, George Prentis, and William Edmest, on the said 7th day of September instant, in the presence of, and attested by, John Monckton, of Maidstone aforesaid, Attorney at Law, and Thomas Lissenden, of Grafty-Green, Lenham, in the said County, Cordwainer; and the same now lies for execution by the Creditors at the Office of the said John Monckton.—All persons standing indebted to the said John Fillmer are requested forthwith to pay the amount of their respective debts into the hands of the said John Monckton and the several Creditors intending to execute the said deed are requested to send in the particulars of their demands.—Maidstone, 7th September 1833.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Evan Owen Jones, of the City of Gloucester, and of Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, Timber-Merchant, Dealer and Chapuan, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 15th day of October next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Offices of Messrs. Bevan and Brittan, Small-Street, in the City of Bristol, in order to assent to and confirm a certain arrangement some time since made and entered into between the said Assignees on the one part, and Owen Williams, Hugh Robert Hughes, Owen Edward Williams, and George Brydges Granville, of Chester, Bankers, Mortgagees of certain freehold and leasehold hereditaments and premises, ships, or shares of ships, part of the estate of the said Bankrupt, of the other part, by which said arrangement it was agreed that such parts of the said mortgaged hereditaments and premises, ships or vessels, as could not be sold and disposed of by auction, under and by virtue of the Commissioners' order for the sale thereof, made on the prayer of the said Mortgagees, should be sold by private contract, and the proceeds thereof, after payment of the costs, charges, and expences of, and incident to, the said order and sales respectively, be received by the said Owen Williams, Hugh Robert Hughes, Owen Edward Williams, and George Brydges Granville, as such Mortgagees, towards satisfaction of their mortgage debt, and that they the said Mortgagees should prove any balance of their said mortgage debt, including the said costs, charges, and expences, against the estate of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to and confirm the sale or sales of the said mortgaged estate and effects, made in pursuance of the said last mentioned agreement, to the said Mortgagees, who became the purchasers thereof by private contract; and to assent to their proving the balance of their said mortgage debt, including costs, charges, and expences, under the said Commission; and also to assent to or dissent from the payment, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, of certain costs, charges, and expences, paid or incurred by the said Assignees in obtaining discoveries of certain property and moneys of the said Bankrupt, secreted and concealed and incident to the obtaining possession thereof, and of and attending certain prosecutions instituted against the said Bankrupt and others concerned in the secretion thereof, and incident to the proceedings under such prosecutions; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing, by public auction or private contract, any of the outstanding debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate which they have hitherto been unable to get in, or any securities for the same, and either for ready money or payment at a future day, and with or without security as to the said Assignees may seem meet; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Joseph Brecknell, of Blackbrook Park, and of Skenfrith, in the County of Monmouth, Miller, Horse-Dealer, Dealer and Chapuan, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 14th day of October next, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, at the Crown Inn, in the City of Worcester, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees effecting a policy of assurance on the life of the said Bankrupt, to the amount to be then agreed upon, unless such policy shall be previously obtained, and then to sanction; allow, and confirm, what the said Assignees may have done relating thereto, or otherwise for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the annuity or life interest of the said Bankrupt in certain moneys bequeathed to him by his uncle, or any real or personal estate of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, and if by public auction with liberty for the Assignees to buy in and resell the same without being answerable for any loss or expence, and in such lots, at such time or times, place or places, to such person or persons, for such price or prices, in money or otherwise; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees conducting such sale and sales as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees calling upon certain Trustees and other persons, to be named at such meeting, to account for and give up and pay over any moneys in their hands, or to be in their hands, belonging to the estate of the said Bankrupt, and to authorise the said Assignees to commence, prosecute, or defend, any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or prosecute or oppose any petition or petitions, against any person or persons, to be named at such meeting, or any other person or persons whomsoever, for the recovery, discovery, getting in, defending, or protecting, of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate or effects, or otherwise relating thereto; or to compound, submit to arbitration, or otherwise agree to any matter or thing relating thereto; also to discuss any proposition that may have been made by the said Bankrupt to supersede the said Fiat, on any terms that shall be then stated; and to assent to or dissent from the same, or otherwise to authorise and give the said Assignees power to fully act therein, and to consent or otherwise to the adjourning or enlarging the Bankrupt's last examination; and on various other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date the 28th day of March 1833, awarded and issued forth against Seth Stevens, of Brierley-Hill, in the Parish of Kingswinford, in the County of Stafford, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 18th day of October next, at the Bush Inn, in Dudley, in the County of Worcester, to consider and determine as to the expediency of retaining possession of certain freehold property belonging to the Bankrupt, and agreed by him to be sold, before the date and issuing forth of the said Fiat, to a person, at such intended meeting to be named, and of defending any action at law or suit in equity which may be commenced and prosecuted against the said Assignee, for the purpose of recovering possession of the same premises; or whether the said Assignee shall proceed to complete the sale and execute a conveyance of the said premises, in pursuance of the agreement so made by the said Bankrupt as aforesaid; and also to consider and determine at such intended meeting on other special matters relative to the said Bankruptcy.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Butson Chard, of Clutton Inn, in the County of Somerset, Innkeeper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 12th day of October next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Offices of Mr. Henry Gillard, Solicitor, No. 6, Bridge-Parade, in the City of Bristol, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling all or any part of the stock in trade, household furniture, goods, chattels, and other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by private contract or by valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, to any person or persons whomsoever, for the best price or prices that can be reasonably obtained for the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee giving such credit, or taking such security or securities for the purchase-money, or any part thereof, as he shall think fit; and to ratify and confirm any sale or sales by private contract, valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, which he the said Assignee may have caused to be made of the said stock in trade, household furniture, goods, chattels, and other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee discharging, out of the Bankrupt's estate, the costs, charges, and expences incurred in an attempt to effect an arrangement of the said Bankrupt's affairs previous to the opening of the said

Fiat; and further to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, or other proceedings, for the recovery, defence, or protection of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise, of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to assent to or dissent from the vesting in the said Assignee discretionary power in matters relating to the estate of the said Bankrupt, and for the adjustment, settlement, or beneficial arrangement of the said Bankrupt's affairs.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date on or about the 17th day of July 1833, was awarded and issued forth against Sarah Maggs and James Maggs, of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester; Mercers and Copartners, Dealers and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Fiat is, by order of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, rescinded and annulled.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date on or about the 7th day of November 1832, was awarded and issued forth against William Jarvis, of Peterborough, in the County of Northampton, Victualler and Retail Dealer in Beer and Tobacco, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Fiat is, by an order of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, bearing date the 2d day of September instant, rescinded and annulled.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Gad Southall and William Milnes, both of Pedlars'-Acre-Wharf, Lambeth, in the County of Surrey, Coal-Merchants, Copartners, Dealers and Chapman, and they being declared Bankrupts are hereby required to surrender themselves to Robert George Cecil Fane, Esq. a Commissioner of His Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 27th day of September instant, at half past Nine in the Forenoon precisely, and on the 1st of November next, at Ten in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of their estate and effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose Assignees, and at the second sitting the said Bankrupts are required to finish their examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of their certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupts, or that have any of their effects, are not to pay or deliver the same, but to whom the Commissioner may appoint, and give notice to Mr. Parker, Solicitor, St. Paul's Church-Yard, or to Mr. William Turquand, 2, Copthall-Buildings, the Official Assignee.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against George Owles, of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Robert George Cecil Fane, Esq. a Commissioner of His Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 4th day of October next, at Three in the Afternoon precisely, and on the 1st of November following, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose Assignees, and at the second sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners may appoint, but give notice to Messrs. H. C. and C. Berkeley, 3, Lincoln's-Inn, or to Mr. William Whitmore, 17, Austin-Friars, the Official Assignee.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against John Sale Gadd, of Woolwich, in the County of Kent, Linen-Draper, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Robert George Cecil Fane, Esq. one of His Majesty's Commissioners of the Court of Bankruptcy, on the 5th of October next, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon precisely, and, on the 1st day of November following, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners may appoint, but give notice to Mr. D. Jones, Solicitor, Size-Lane, London, or to Mr. William Turquand, 2, Copthall-Buildings, the Official Assignee.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Richard Lloyd Laws, of South-Street, Greenwich, in the County of Kent, late Master of the Ship Barretto, jun. Master-Mariner, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Edward Holroyd, Esq. a Commissioner of His Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 2d day of October next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, and on the 1st day of November following, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate.
