NOTICE TO MARINERS.

NAVIGATION INTO HARWICH HARBOUR.

Trinity-House, London, September 19, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that this Corporation has caused a buoy, painted black, and marked on the head "West Altar," to be laid on the Western Elbow of the Shoal named the Altar, in the entrance to Harwich Harbour.

The buoy lies in twelve feet at low water spring tides, with the following marks and compass bearings, viz.

Harwich High Light-house, its apparent width open Northward of the Low Light-house, bearing N. W. by N.

The First Martello Tower, Eastward of Langguard Fort, on with the extreme Southern outworks of that garrison, bearing E. by S. $\frac{1}{4}$ S.

By order,

J. Herbert, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable John Perkins, of Bletchingley, in the county of Surrey, Esq. to erect a new and extensive market-place, shops, slaughter-houses, abattoirs, stables, stalls, lofts, granaries, sheds, houses, pens, out-houses, beast-houses, and such other buildings adapted for the like purposes, upon a certain piece or parcel of land or ground situate and being in or near the Lower-road, Islington, in the parish of St. Mary, Islington, in the county of Middlesex; and, if necessary, to purchase, either by contract or the inquisition of a jury, certain houses, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, rights of way, paths, and passages, and other premises, in the said parish, for the above purposes, and to take effectual conveyances thereof from corporations and incapacitated as well as capacitated persons and trustees; and to make, dig, sink, lay, and erect all proper, convenient, and necessary vaults, cellars, reservoirs, engines, pumps, drains, pipes, culverts, and watercourses, and to complete the drainage therefrom; and to make necessary and convenient roads, avenues, and approaches to, from, through, and out of the said market and buildings, and to contract for the making and completion of the said several works; and also to establish and enable the said John Perkins, the proprietor of the said hereditaments and premises, and his heirs and assigns, to hold a market upon the said premises for the sale of live cattle, beasts, calves, sheep, lambs, and pigs; as also hay, straw, meal, malt, hops, and all other descriptions of grain and forage; and all other marketable commodities; and to authorise the slaughtering and dressing of cattle, beasts, calves, sheep, lambs, and pigs; and also to set and let for hire, and to sell and dispose of, any part or parts of the said market and other buildings and premises; and to make regulations for the government and regulation of the said market and premises, and the persons using the same; and to fix and levy certain rates, tolls, stallages, duties, and assessments upon or in respect of the live cattle, beasts, calves, sheep, lambs, and pigs, and all other the goods and commodities brought or exposed for sale, and stock sent for sale or slaughtered, in the said market and premises, or otherwise for or in respect of the use or occupation thereof; and to set
