TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1833.

Dublin-Castle, September 26, 1833.

THE Marquess Wellesley, who embarked at Holyhead on the morning of the 25th of September, on board the Firebrand, steamer, arrived at Kingstown-harbour at five o'clock. His Lordship, on his arrival in Dublin this day, was received by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commons of the city of Dublin. His Lordship, attended by a squadron of dragoons, proceeded to the Castle, and the Council, having assembled at three o'clock, was introduced in form to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, who received him, sitting under the canopy of state, in the Presence-chamber, from whence a procession was made, in the usual state, to the Council-chamber; the Council sitting, his Lordship's commission was read, and the oaths being administered to him, his Lordship was invested with the collar of the Most Illustrious Order of St. Patrick, and received the sword of state from the Lord Lieutenant.

His Excellency afterwards repaired to the Presence-chamber, and received the compliments of the Nobility and other persons of distinction upon his safe arrival and taking upon him the Government of Ireland.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Philip Boulter Cooke, of the city of Gloucester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, pursuant to an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, cap. 65, intituled "An Act to enable the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom to acquire certain lands at Woolwich, in the county of Kent, for better securing His Majesty's docks there, and for the improvement of the same," they are desirous to treat and agree (for and on behalf of the King's Most Excellent Majesty) with the several owners and proprietors of, and persons interested in, or by the said Act capacitated to contract and agree for the sale of, the lands and hereditaments thereby vested, for the absolute purchase (subject to the provisions of the said Act), of the freehold and inheritance expectant on the determination of the term of ninety-nine years, in the said Act mentioned, of and in all such part of the wharf, called Trinity-wharf, otherwise Hardin's-wharf, and the slips on each side thereof, in and by the said Act firstly described and vested, as lies to the north of a straight line to be drawn through the same wharf, in continuation of, and in the same direction as the line formed by the river wall of His Majesty's Dock-yard at Woolwich aforesaid, at the western end thereof; such part of the same wharf containing by admeasurement one thousand five hundred and fifty-five square yards, be the same more or less, and being marked A. 1., and distinguished by a yellow colour in the plan hereinafter referred to; and also all such part of the same wharf and slips as lies to the south of the aforesaid straight line, and to the east of a line to be drawn at right angles thereto, at a point distant about one hundred and thirty feet from the point at which the said straight line first touches the eastern end of the same wharf, and to be continued southward for a distance of about sixty-eight feet to the road on the outside of the western boundary of the said dock-yard; such last-mentioned part of the same wharf containing by admeasurement six hundred and twenty square yards, be the same more or less, and being marked A. 2., and distinguished by a pink colour in the aforesaid plan; together with the erections and buildings now being on the lands hereinbefore described, and the rights, members, and appurtenances to the same premises belonging: and also for the purchase and extinguishment, from and after the quarter-day next ensuing, the contract for such purchase of the yearly sum of fifty pounds as the appropriate part, to be apportioned in respect of the pieces of land above described, of the yearly rent of one hundred and eighty-six pounds, mentioned in the said Act; and also for the absolute purchase (subject to the provisions of the said Act), of the inheritance in fee-simple, in possession, of and in all such part of the wharf and hereditaments, called Long's-wharf, in the said Act mentioned, as is therein particularly described and thereby vested, the same being marked B., and distinguished by a blue colour in the aforesaid plan, together with all erections and buildings thereon, and the rights, members, and appurtenances to the same belonging, which several pieces of land or ground and hereditaments are more particularly delineated and described in a plan thereof deposited in the Office of the Captain-Superintendent of the said Dock-yard, where the same may be inspected, with his permission, by any parties interested or concerned in the premises, between the hours of ten o'clock in the morning and four o'clock in the afternoon. And the several owners or proprietors, and persons interested, or capacitated, as aforesaid, are hereby required, within thirty days from the publication of this notice, to treat with the said Commissioners for the sale of their respective estates, rights, and interests in the lands and hereditaments hereinbefore described, or the respective estates, rights, and interests which they respectively are by the said Act capacitated to sell therein; and for that purpose to deliver at the Admiralty-office, Whitehall, London, under a cover addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, a full, particular, and explicit statement of such estates, rights, and interests, and of the compensation, equivalent, or satisfaction, in money or otherwise, which they claim or require for or in respect of the same, and the grounds or principles relied on in making the computation or estimate thereof.

Given under the hands of two of the said Commissioners, at the Admiralty, this 30th day of September 1833.

T. M. HARDY.

G. H. L. DUNDAS.

By command of their Lordships,
