NOTICE TO MARINERS.

LISMORE, BARRAHEAD, AND GIRDLENESS LIGHT-HOUSES, ON THE COAST OF SCOTLAND.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses hereby give notice, that the three new light-houses above mentioned have been erected, and will be lighted upon the night of Tuesday the 15th day of October next. The lights will continue thereafter to be exhibited every night from the going away of day-light in the evening till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following Specification of the Positions of these Light-Houses, and of the Appearance of the Lights, is given by Mr. Stephenson, Engineer to the Commissioners:

LISMORE LIGHT-HOUSE.

Lismore Light-house is erected on the small island called Mousedale or the Lady's Isle, at the western extremity of Lismore Island, in the county of Argyll, in lat. 56. 30. North, and in long. 5. 40. West. This light opens the two channels, leading along Lismore to the Caledonian Canal by Fort William, and also the Sounds of Loing, Islay, and Mull. The light-house bears from Seaskerry Rock, S. S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. distant $1\frac{1}{4}$ mile; from the southern entrance of the Sound of Mull, S. S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. distant 3 miles; from the Lady Rock, E. N. E. distant 1081 yards; from the northern entrance of the Sound of Islay, N. E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. distant 38 miles; and from Dunolly Castle, at the western entrance to Oban, N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. distant 7 miles. These bearings are taken by compass, and the variation is 27. West.

This light will be known to mariners as a fixed light from oil with reflectors; and will be seen like a star of the first magnitude at the distance of 12 miles, and at intermediate distances, according to the state of the atmosphere. The lantern is elevated 103 feet above the medium level of the sea.

BARRAHEAD LIGHT-HOUSE.

Barrahead Light-house is erected on the most southern extremity of the groups of islands called Barra, Uist, Harris, and Lewis, and known to mariners as the Long Island. It is situate in the county of Inverness, in lat. 56. 48. North, and in long. 7. 33. West. It bears from the Island of Muldonich, one of the Barra Isles, W. S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. distant 9 miles; from Hysker, off the Islands of Cana and Rum, W. by N. distant 33 miles; from the Rock Skerryvore, N. distant 37 miles; from Stevenson's Rocks, N. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. distant 38 miles; from Tory Island Light, in the county of Donegal, N. E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. distant 93 miles; and from the Island of St. Kilda, S. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. distant 68 miles. The bearings are by compass, and the variation is 28. West.

This light will be known to mariners as an intermittent light, suddenly appearing like a star of the first magnitude, and continuing two minutes and a half in view, when it is suddenly eclipsed for half a minute. The entire effect is thus produced in three minutes. The light will be from oil, with reflectors. The lantern is elevated 680 feet above the medium level of the sea, and is glazed or open from N. by E. to E. N. E. and intermediate points westerly and southerly. In clear weather the light will be seen at the distance of 33 miles, and at intermediate distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

GIRDLENESS LIGHT-HOUSE.

Girdleness Light-house is placed on the headland of that name, in the county of Kincardine. It is situate in lat. 57. 8. North, and in long. 2. 3. West; and immediately off it lies the sunken rock called the Girdle. This light-house bears from the North Pier of Aberdeen S. by W. distant 1220 yards; from Buchanness Light-house, S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ West, distant 25 miles; and from the Bell Rock Light-house, N. E. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. distant 43 miles. The two lanterns at this station are open or glazed from N. N. E. to W. S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. and intermediate points, easterly and southerly. The bearings are taken by compass, and the variation is 26. 45. West.

Girdleness will be known to mariners as a double light, exhibiting from the same tower two fixed lights like stars of the first magnitude, the one over the other; but to a distant observer the lights will appear as one, having an elongated form. These lights will be from oil, with reflectors, placed in lanterns, elevated respectively 115 and 185 feet above the medium level of the sea, and will be seen at the distance of 13 and 16 miles, and at intermediate distances, according to the state of the weather.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses, C. Cunningham, Secretary.

The Gale Print-Works, near Littleborough.

TO be sold by auction, duty free, under and by virtue of an Order of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, made in the matter of Mr. James Hudson, a Bankrupt, on the application of Messrs. R. and W. M. Millington, the Mortgagees, at the House of Mr. George Trewhitt, the Wellington Inn, in Rochdale, in the County of Lancaster, on Monday the 21st day of October instant, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, pursuant to such conditions as shall be then and there produced, and together, or in such lots and manner as shall in the particulars of sale hereinafter referred to, or otherwise be expressed or determined upon;

The very valuable and important stone-built print-works used and employed for the printing of calicoes, with spacious and convenient buildings of every description for carrying on and completing the business of calico printing, in all its branches, on a most extensive scale, situate at Gale, near Littleborough, in the Parish of Rochdale aforesaid, and called or known by the name of the Gale Print Works, with the excellent steam engine, of sixteen horse power, and reservoirs of water connected therewith; together with the mansion-house and premises near thereto, now inhabited by Mr. James Hudson, and the several closes or inclosures of well cultivated land and plantations, adjoining or surrounding the same, containing together ten acres, or thereabouts (save and except the messuage or dwelling-house adjoining or near to the said mansion-house, and some time ago erected and built upon part of the said land, by Robert Millington, Esq. with the out-buildings and appurtenances thereto belonging).

The above premises (except as herein excepted), were, previous to his Bankruptcy, in the possession or occupation of the said James Hudson, and are held for the residue of a term of twenty years, commencing on the 29th day of September 1835, and will be offered for sale as far as regards the said mansion-house, and a considerable portion of the land occupied therewith, subject to such right and interest as Mr. John Hudson has or is entitled to therein under and by virtue of a sub-lease thereof, granted to him by the said James Hudson, for the term of fourteen years, commencing on the 1st day of May 1831, at the yearly rent of £45.

The print works are most desirably situated within a quarter of a mile of the improving village of Littleborough, adjoin upon the New Turnpike-Road from Todmorden, and are in the immediate vicinity of the Rochdale Canal, and the Halifax and Manchester Turnpike-Road.

Printed particulars of the estate as divided into lots, with plans annexed, may be had, ten days previous to the sale, at the Albion Hotel, Manchester; the Wellington Hotel, Rochdale; the Falcon Inn, Littleborough; at the Offices of Mr. Hammerton, Solicitor, Burnley; and at the after mentioned places.

Applications for further information may be made to Messrs. Walker and Jesse, of Manchester, the Solicitors to the Assignees; Mr. Henry Wood, of Brown-Lodge, near Littleborough, Surveyor; and also at the Offices of Messrs. Alexander, Solicitors, Halifax, where the sale plan may be inspected.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Fergus, at the Commercial Rooms, Bristol, on Thursday the 10th day of October instant, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon precisely, by order of the Commissioners under a renewed Commission of Bankruptcy issued against Mr. Benjamin Loscombe, deceased, and with the concurrence of the surviving Executors and Trustees under the will of the late John Curtis, Esq. surviving Partner of the late firm of Peach, Fowler, Curtis, and Loscombe, Bankers, at Bristol;

A leasehold dwelling-house, in Castle-Street, in Castle Precincts, in the City of Bristol, with a warehouse in Queen-Street.

The house consists of a china-shop, a parlour, with marble chimney-piece, kitchen, with pump and furnace, and two warehouses and cellars; on the first floor is a drawing-room and bed-room; two bed-rooms on the second floor, and two garrets; and the premises are occupied by George Gould and John and James Tyler.

These premises are held under the Corporation of Bristol by lease for 99 years, determinable with the life of Henry Robert Fowler, aged 35, and Henry George Fowler, aged 34, subject to the rent of £3. 5s. per annum.

The property can be viewed twenty-one days prior to the sale, and further particulars obtained on application to Messrs. White and Carter, Solicitors to the Executors of the surviving Mortgagees, No. 11, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, London; or to Messrs. Clarke and Jones, Solicitors to the Assignees, Broad-Street, Bristol.

TO be sold, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Charles Frederick Davis, now or late of Nailsforth, in the County of Gloucester, Clothier, Engine-Maker, Dealer and Chapman, at the George Inn, in the Town of Stroud, Gloucestershire, on Saturday the 26th October instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, subject to conditions to be then produced;

A policy of Assurance, No. 2583, effected with the Atlas Assurance Company, and dated 7th June 1821, for securing the payment of £1200. on the death of the said Bankrupt.

Further particulars may be had by application to Mr. S. E. Donne, Solicitor, 80, Cornhill, London; Messrs. White and Whitmore, Solicitors, 11, Bedford-Row, London; and to Mr. W. B. Wells, Dursley, Gloucestershire, Solicitor to the said Commission.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Packer the elder, of the Parish of Woolston, in the County of Gloucester, Farmer and Farmer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on Thursday the 31st day of October instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Ram Inn, in the City of Gloucester, to decide upon accepting or refusing any offer of composition then and there to be made to them by the said William Packer the elder, or his friends.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Lockwood, of Dursley, in the County of York, Cloth-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 25th day of October instant, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Offices of Messrs. Baily and Hesp, in Huddersfield aforesaid, to confirm or disallow certain sales made of certain parts of the freehold estate of the said Bankrupt; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees executing proper conveyances thereof to the respective purchasers; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees disposing of the residue of the said Bankrupt's real estate by public auction or private contract, or for any price or sum of money that may be mentioned at the said meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Moore, of Dursley, in the County of Gloucester, Ironmonger, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 25th day of October instant, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Mr. John Baker, Accountant, No. 16, Castle-Street, Bristol; in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling all or any part of the stock in trade, household furniture, goods, chattels, and other estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, or by valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, to any person or persons whomsoever, for the best price or prices that can reasonably be obtained for the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving such credit, or taking such security or securities, for the purchase money, or any part thereof, as they shall think fit; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee, carrying on the business of the said Bankrupt and selling the stock by retail for the benefit of the estate until a sale thereof can be effected, and to their employing and paying any person or persons for that purpose as well as for collecting and getting in the debts and effects due or belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending, any suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to their compounding with any debtor or debtors to the said Bankrupt's estate, and taking any reasonable part of such debt or debts in discharge of the whole; or to the submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relative thereto; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and allowing, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, certain costs and charges incurred prior to the issuing of the said Fiat, incident to the preparing an assignment of the said Bankrupt's personal estate for the benefit of his Creditors, and endeavouring to effect an arrangement with the Creditors at large; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees also paying and allowing certain other costs and charges attending the preparing and executing certain letters of attorney for voting in the choice of Assignees so as to procure proper persons to be appointed Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate, as well as the journey expences of Mr. Thomas Buckby Lefevre from Birmingham to Dursley, on behalf of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, and also the costs and charges attending the meeting hereby advertised; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law, relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed;

"and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 2d day of October 1833, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by THOMAS HOBSON, of No. 86, High Holborn, in the County of Middlesex, Bookseller and Stationer, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 3d day of October 1833, by

JOSEPH ZACHARIAH PULBROOK, of No. 171, Great Surrey-Street, Blackfriars-Road, in the County of Surrey, Boot and Shoe-Maker, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

PURSUANT to an Order made by the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, for Enlarging the Time for Hiam Emanuel, Simon Emanuel, and Ezekial Emanuel, of No. 14, Leman Street, Goodman's-Fields, in the County of Middlesex, Furriers and Cap-Makers, Chapmen and Dealers (Bankrupts), to surrender themselves and make a full discovery and disclosure of their estate and effects, from the 24th day of September last until the 29th day of October instant; this is to give notice, that Edward Holroyd, Esq. the Commissioner authorised to act under the Fiat, will sit on the 29th day of October instant, at One in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London; when and where the said Bankrupts are required to surrender themselves, and make a full discovery and disclosure of their estate and effects, and finish their examination; and the Creditors, who have not already proved their debts, may then and there come and prove the same, and with those who have proved their debts, are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of their certificate.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Charles Waud, of No. 38, New Bond-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Cook and Confectioner, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Charles Frederick Williams, Esq. a Commissioner of His Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 17th day of October instant, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon precisely, and on the 15th day of November next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give notice to Mr. Sherreff, Solicitor, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, and to Mr. James Clark, Official Assignee, No. 28, St. Swithin's-Lane.
