By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the laws for the election of the Magistrates and Councils of the Royal Burghs in Scotland," it is, among other things, enacted, "that the several burghs in schedule (C.) to the said Act annexed, shall be divided into wards or districts, which, together with the number of councillors to be chosen by each such ward or district, shall be fixed and ascertained by the Commissioners named and appointed by His Majesty to inquire into and report upon the condition of the several burghs and towns of Scotland, by virtue of a commission, dated on the fifteenth day of July in the present year; and such Commissioners shall have regard to its being the purport and meaning of this Act, that the number of wards shall be such that each ward shall, at the first election to be made under this Act, choose, as nearly as may be, the number of six councillors, and at the subsequent annual elections in each succeeding year the number of two councillors; and the said Commissioners shall, upon such division being made and completed, report the same to His Majesty's Privy Council, who shall cause such report to be published by Royal Proclamation in the Gazette; and the number and

" limits of such districts, and the number of councillors to be elected by each such district, being so fixed, reported, and published, shall be held and taken to be a part of this Act, in the same manner and to the same effect as if the same were particularly set forth and enacted herein:"

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the appointment and election of Magistrates and Councillors for the several Burghs and Towns of Scotland which now return, or contribute to return, Members of Parliament, and are not Royal Burghs," it is, among other things, enacted, "that the said burghs or towns of Paisley, Greenock, Leith, and Kilmarnock, shall be divided into wards or districts, which, together with the number of councillors to be chosen by each such ward or district, shall be fixed and ascertained by the Commissioners named and appointed by His Majesty to inquire into and report upon the condition of the several burghs and towns of Scotland by a commission, dated on the fifteenth day of July in the present year; and such Commissioners shall have regard to its being the purport and meaning of this Act, that the number of wards shall be such that each ward shall, at the first election to be made under this Act, choose, as nearly as may be, the number of three councillors, and at the subsequent annual elections in each succeeding year the number of one coun-

“clor; and the said Commissioners shall, upon such division being made and completed, report the same to His Majesty’s Privy Council, who shall cause such report to be published by Royal Proclamation in the Gazette; and the number and limits of such districts, and the number of councillors to be elected by each such district, being so fixed, reported, and published, shall be held and taken to be a part of this Act, in the same manner and to the same effect as if the same were particularly set forth and enacted herein:”

And whereas such commissions as are in the said Acts recited to have been granted by His Majesty on the fifteenth-day of July in this present year, were respectively granted of that date; and whereas, as well under the authority thereof, as of the said Acts, the Commissioners named and appointed by His Majesty in that behalf, have duly executed the said commissions, and made and completed the divisions by the said Acts authorised and required, and have duly reported the same to His Majesty’s Privy Council, by two reports under their several and respective hands and seals, which are in the words and figures, or to the purport and effect, hereinafter set forth; His Majesty doth hereby, by the advice of His Privy Council, by this His Royal Proclamation, publish the said two reports, in pursuance of the said Acts, for the purpose of giving full effect thereto according to the intent and meaning of the said Acts, that is to say:

REPORT

By the Commissioners appointed to divide into Wards for the election of Councillors certain Royal Burghs in Scotland.

To His Majesty’s Most Honourable Privy Council.

IN pursuance of certain provisions in the Act of Parliament 3<sup>o</sup> and 4<sup>o</sup> Gulielmi IV. cap. 76. intituled “An Act to alter and amend the laws for the election of the Magistrates and Councils of the Royal Burghs in Scotland,” the Commissioners named and appointed by His Majesty to inquire into and report upon the condition of the several burghs and towns of Scotland, by virtue of a commission, dated on the fifteenth day of July, in the present year, have proceeded to divide into wards the several burghs enumerated in schedule (C.) annexed to the foresaid Act, and to fix and ascertain the number of councillors to be chosen by each of such wards or districts, having regard to its being the purport and meaning of the Act, “that the number of wards shall be such that each ward shall at the first election to be made under the Act, choose, as nearly as may be, the number of six councillors, and at the subsequent annual elections in each succeeding year, the number of two councillors;” and the Commissioners beg leave to report the result as follows:—

I.—THE CITY OF EDINBURGH.

That the ancient and extended royalty of this city shall be divided into five wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

That part of the ancient royalty situate south of the High-street and Canongate from the Castlehill-esplanade to St. John’s-cross, bounded on the south, east and west by the boundary line of the royalty running from St. John’s-cross to the South-back of Canongate, the street of South-back of Canongate to the Cowgate-port, and thence by the line of the Old Town-wall, by the west end of the Grass-market to the Castlehill; also that part of the ancient royalty lying north of the High-street from the Castlehill-esplanade to Bank-street, bounded on the east, north, and west by Bank-street, Mound-place, and the Princes-street-gardens.

Second Ward.

Those parts of the ancient and extended royalty comprehended within the following limits, viz. from Bank-street along the High-street to the head of Leith-wynd, down Leith-wynd round by the back of the College-Kirkyard, and including the houses of Shakespeare-square and both sides of Waterloo-place, and then along the boundary line of the royalty that intersects the Register-house, West Register-street, the Royal-bank, and Elder-street to the foot of the Catholic Chapel-lane, at Broughton-street; thence along York-place, North and South St. David-streets, Princes-street, west side of the Earthen-mound, Mound-place, and Bank-street.

Third Ward.

Those parts of the extended royalty comprehended within the following limits, viz. from a point at the east end of York-place at the intersection of Broughton-street, along York-place and Queen-street to Hanover-street, down Dundas-street and Pitt-street, along East Fettes-row, Royal-crescent, Kirklane at Canonmills, the High-road from Canonmills to Broughton, Broughton-street to the place where it is intersected by the line of the royalty; thence along the line of the royalty intersecting Forth-street and

Hart-street, East Broughton-place along Union-street; across Leith-walk, down Elm-row, along the northern boundary of the royalty intersecting Windsor-street, and from the eastern extremity of that boundary round the Caltonhill, including the west end of Regent-terrace, Blenheim-place, Leopold-place, Hillside-crescent, and part of Windsor-street; and thence along Greenside and Broughton-streets to the east end of York-place.

Fifth Ward.

Those parts of the extended royalty comprehended within the following limits, viz. from a point at the intersection of South Frederick-street and Princes-street, along Frederick-street, Howe-street, to near the foot of St. Vincent-street; thence along the line of royalty intersecting the Circus-lane, India-street, India-place, Mackenzie-place, Moray-place, Saint Colme-street, Glenfinlas-street, and Charlotte-place to Queensferry-street; and then along that street and Princes-street to the point first mentioned. This ward includes also the Princes-street-gardens, St. John's-chapel, and Cuninghams-fen at Coates, upon which Walker-street, Manor-place, and parts of Coates-crescent, William-street, and Melville-street are built.

That the number of councillors to be chosen at the first election in November next being thirty-one; six councillors shall be chosen in each of the first, second, third, and fifth wards, and seven shall be chosen in the fourth ward.

That the number of such councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be ten—two being chosen in each of the five wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five shall likewise be ten—two being chosen in each of the five wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six shall be eleven—two councillors being chosen in each of the first, second, third, and fifth wards, and three in the fourth ward.

And the members of the council of the said city shall in all future terms of three years after November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, be elected in the same manner as is above appointed for the period from November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four to November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive.

II.—THE CITY OF GLASGOW.

That the royalty of this city shall be divided into five wards, limited and bounded as follows—

First Ward.

The whole of the royalty within the parliamentary boundary, situated to the east of a line drawn from Hutcheson-bridge through the centres of Saltmarket-street, High-street, Kirk-street, Castle-street, and the road leading by Inchbelly-bridge to Stirling and Falkirk, till the same reaches the parliamentary boundary.

Second Ward.

That part of the royalty included within a line drawn from the Cross through the centres of High-street and Kirk-street, till the same joins the south end of Castle-street; thence northward along the centre of Castle-street to the junction therewith of the road from Possil and Keppochhill; thence along the centre of the road from Possil and Keppochhill to the royalty stone, number one hundred and eighty seven; thence westward along the boundary of the royalty to the royalty stone, number one hundred and ninety three; thence southward along the centre of the road from Garscube-bridge until it comes to the head of Dundas-street; thence eastward along the centre of the road leading to Rottenrow-street, until it reaches the head of John-street; thence southward through the centre of John-street till it joins the centre of Ingram-street; thence eastward along the centre of Ingram-street till it reaches the centre of Candleriggs-street; thence southward along the centre of Candleriggs-street till it reaches the centre of Trongate-street; thence eastward through the centre of Trongate-street to the Cross, the point first described. And also those portions of the royalty situated, adjoining to, and immediately south of the Forth and Clyde Canal, and the canal connecting the same with the Monkland Canal, and west of ward first.

Third Ward.

That part of the royalty included within a line drawn from Hutcheson-bridge through the centre of Saltmarket-street to the Cross; thence westward along the centre of Trongate-street to the centre of Candleriggs-street; thence through the centre of Candleriggs-street to the centre of Ingram-street; thence westward along the centre of Ingram-street to the centre of Glassford-street; thence through the centres of Glassford-street and Stockwell-street to the Old-bridge; thence along the right margin of the River Clyde to the point first described.

Fourth Ward.

That part of the royalty included within a line drawn from the Old-bridge northward through the centres of Stockwell-street and Glassford-street till the same reaches the centre of Ingram-street; thence eastward along the centre of that street till the same reaches the centre of John-street; thence northward along the centre of John-street to the head of that street; thence westward along the centre of the road leading from Rottenrow-street to the head of Dundas-street; thence southward through the centre of Dundas-street to the centre of West George-street; thence eastward through the centre of that street to the north west corner of George-square; thence southward through the centre of the street on the west side of George-square to the head of Queen-street; thence through the centre of that street to the centre of Argyle-street; thence westward through the centre of that street to the head of Maxwell-street; thence southward through the centre of Maxwell-street and in a straight line at right angles to Great Clyde-street prolonged to the River Clyde; thence eastward along the right margin of the River Clyde to the point first described.

Fifth Ward.

The whole of the royalty situated to the west of a straight line at right angles to Great Clyde-street drawn from the River Clyde to the centre of the south end of Maxwell-street: thence northward along the centre of Maxwell-street to the centre of Argyle-street; thence eastward through the centre of that street to the centre of Queen-street; thence northward through the centre of Queen-street and the centre of the street on the west side of George-square to the centre of West George-street; thence westward along the centre of that street to the centre of Dundas-street; thence northward through the centre of Dundas-street, and of the highway from Glasgow to Garscube-bridge, to the extremity of the royalty near the royalty stone, number one hundred and ninety three, excluding that portion of the royalty situated, adjoining to, and immediately south of the Forth and Clyde Canal, and west of Port Dundas, which is included in ward second.

That the number of councillors to be chosen at the first election in November next being thirty, six councillors shall be chosen by each ward.

That the number of such councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and in each succeeding year, shall be ten—two being chosen by each ward.

III.—THE CITY OF ABERDEEN.

That the royalty of this city shall be divided into three wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

To consist of that portion of the royalty which is included within the following boundary, viz. beginning on the sea shore at the point where the north boundary of the royalty touches the shore, and following the said north boundary westward till it touches the turnpike road leading from Inverary to Aberdeen; southward along that road and the Gallowgate to Broad-street, and along Broad-street to Union-street; along Union-street, Castle-street, and Justice-street, eastward to Park-lane; along Park-lane and the road or street leading along the foot of the Castlehill to James-street; along James-street and continuing in a line due south from the termination of the same to the Dee; eastward along the Dee to the mouth of that river; and from thence northward along the sea shore to the point where the north boundary of the royalty touches the shore.

Second Ward.

To consist of that portion of the royalty which is included within the following boundary, viz. beginning at the centre of Union-street, opposite the Back-wynd, and keeping along the Back-wynd to Schoolhill; westward along Schoolhill and along Woolmanhill to the point where the Hill-burn crosses Spa-street, near the steps of Gilcomston; from that point northward by the boundary of the royalty, and following the said royalty boundary eastward till it meets the north west point of the boundary of the first ward; then southward by the Inverary-road and Gallowgate to Broad-street, and along Broad-street to Union-street; along Union-street, Castle-street, and Justice-street, eastward to Park-lane; along Park-lane and the road or street leading along the foot of the Castlehill to James-street, and continued in a line due south from the termination of the same to the Dee; thence up the river to where the same is intersected by a line drawn south in continuation of the Shore-brae; thence up the said line, Shore-brae, and Ship-row, to Union-street; and along Union-street westward to the point opposite the Back-wynd, where the description of the ward began.

Third Ward.

To consist of that portion of the royalty which is included within the following boundary, viz. beginning at the point where the Millburn crosses Spa-street, near the steps of Gilcomiston, from thence along Woolmanhill and Schoolhill to a point opposite the north end of Back-wynd; along Back-wynd southward to Union-street; along Union-street eastward to opposite the head of Ship-row, down the Ship-row and Shore-brae and in prolongation of the termination of the latter to its intersection of the River Dee; from thence up the River Dee to the mouth of the burn of Ferryhill; and from the mouth of the burn of Ferryhill following the boundary of the royalty to the point on the Millburn near the steps of Gilcomiston, where the description of the ward began.

That the number of councillors to be chosen at the first election in November next being eighteen—six shall be chosen by each ward.

That the number of such councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and in each succeeding year, shall be six—two being chosen in each ward.

IV.—THE BURGH OF DUNDEE.

That the royalty of this burgh shall be divided into three wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

To contain that portion of the burgh included within the following boundary, viz. beginning with the eastern boundary of the royalty on the turnpike road from Dundee to Arbroath, westward along the said turnpike road, King-street, Cowgate, Murraygate, north side of Trades-hall, High-street, and Overgate, as far as the Long-wynd; southward along the Long-wynd crossing the Nethergate to Slate or Sea-wynd, and along Slate or Sea-wynd to the River Tay; from thence eastward along the river to the eastern boundary of the royalty; and following the eastern boundary of the royalty to its junction with the turnpike road leading from Dundee to Arbroath, with which the description of the ward began.

Second Ward.

To contain that portion of the burgh included within the following boundary, viz. beginning on the River Tay, at the bottom of Slate or Sea-wynd, and holding northward by Sea-wynd and crossing the Nethergate to the Long-wynd; northward along the Long-wynd to the Overgate; eastward along the Overgate as far as Barrack-street; northward by Barrack-street, Barrack-road, and Constitution-brae, and the road or lane leading along the west side of Stirling's park to the north west corner of Stirling's park; and from that point in a straight line to the north boundary of the royalty, at the point where a straight line drawn from the north west corner of Stirling's park to the King's-cross cuts the said boundary of the royalty; from thence westward by the boundary of the royalty, and following the boundary of the royalty south to the River Tay, and along that river eastward to the point at the bottom of Slate or Sea-wynd, where the description of the ward began.

Third Ward.

To contain that portion of the burgh included in the following boundary, viz. beginning with the eastern boundary of the royalty, on the turnpike road between Dundee and Arbroath, westward along the said turnpike road, and by King-street, Cowgate, Murraygate, north side of Trades-hall, High-street, and Overgate, as far as Barrack-street; northward by Barrack-street, Barrack-road, Constitution-brae, and the road or lane leading along the west side of Stirling's park, to the north west corner of Stirling's park; and from that point in a straight line to the north boundary of the royalty, at the point where a line drawn from the north west corner of Stirling's park to the King's-cross cuts the said boundary of the royalty; from thence eastward by the boundary of the royalty, and following the same to the point of its junction with the turnpike road from Dundee to Arbroath, where the description of the ward began.

That the number of councillors to be chosen at the first election in November next, being twenty—seven councillors shall be chosen in each of the first and second wards—and six shall be chosen in the third ward.

That the number of such councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be six—two being chosen in each ward.

That the number of such councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five shall be seven—three being chosen in the first ward, and two in each of the second and third wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six shall likewise be seven—three being chosen in the first ward, and two in each of the second and third wards.

And the members of the council of the said burgh shall, in all future terms of three years after November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, be elected in the same manner as is above appointed for the period from November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four to November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive.

V.—THE BURGH OF PERTH.

That the royalty of this burgh shall be divided into four wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

To consist of that portion of the royalty which is included within the following boundary, viz. beginning at the junction of the Watergate with the High-street, southward along the Watergate to the South-street; thence westward along that street to the Meal-vennel; thence northward along the said Meal-vennel to the High-street; and thence eastward along that street to its junction with the Watergate.

Second Ward.

To consist of that portion of the royalty which is included within the following boundary, viz. beginning at the west end of Perth-bridge, from thence southwards along George's-street and the Watergate, till it reaches the South-street; thence westward along that street to the South-street-port, where the south branch of the Towns-lead crosses the same; and from thence southward, following the course of that branch of the Lead which runs along the west and south sides of the South-inch, until it reaches the River Tay; and northward along the river to the Perth-bridge.

Third Ward.

To consist of that portion of the royalty which is included within the following boundary, viz. beginning at the River Tay, immediately above the Perth-bridge; from thence northward along the River Tay to the north boundary of the royalty on the North-inch; from thence westward along that boundary to the Balhousie Mill-lead; from thence following the course of that Lead to the point where it crosses the North Port-street; from thence along the North Port and Curfen-row to Mill-street; thence eastward along Mill-street to the Old Guard-vennel; thence southward along said vennel to the High-street; thence eastward along the High-street to George's-street; and from thence along George's-street to the point at the river above the bridge first mentioned.

Fourth Ward.

To consist of that portion of the royalty which is included within the following boundary, viz. from the South-street-port eastward along the said street to the Meal-vennel; thence northward along that vennel to the High-street; thence eastward along that street to the Old Guard-vennel; thence northward along that vennel to Mill-street, and westward along that street to Methven-street; including likewise in this ward the rest of the royalty not included in any of the other three wards.

That the number of councillors to be chosen at the first election in November next being twenty-five—seven councillors shall be chosen in the first ward, and six councillors shall be chosen in each of the second, third, and fourth wards.

That the number of such councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be eight—two being chosen in each of the four wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five shall likewise be eight—two being chosen in each of the four wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six shall be nine—three councillors being chosen in the first ward, and two councillors in each of the second, third, and fourth wards.

And the members of the council of the said burgh shall, in all future terms of three years after November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, be elected in the same manner as is above appointed, for the period from November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four to November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive.

VI.—THE BURGH OF DUNFERMLINE.

That the royalty of this burgh shall be divided into four wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

That part of the royalty included within a line drawn from the point where Bridge-street intersects the burgh boundary, along Bridge-street and High-street to the Cross; thence down Guildhall-street, St. Margaret-street, and Gibb-street to Priory-lane; thence along Priory-lane to Reid-street; thence down Reid-street to Nethertown-broad-street; thence westward along the same till it meets the burgh boundary; then northward along the said boundary to the point first described.

Second Ward.

That part of the royalty included within a line drawn from the point where the Crossgate-road intersects the burgh boundary; thence to the south and along the said boundary till it comes round to the point where it is intersected by the Nethertown-broad-street; thence along the said street to Reid-street; then up the same to Priory-lane; then along the same to Gibb-street; then up Gibb-street, St. Margarets-street, and Guildhall-street to the Cross; then along the High-street, East Port-street, and Crossgates-road, to the point first described.

Third Ward.

That part of the royalty included within a line drawn from the point where Grant's bank-road intersects the burgh boundary, eastward and along the said boundary to the point where it intersects the Crossgates-road; then along the said road, East Port-street, and High-street to the Cross; then up Crosswynd to Queen Ann-street; then along Queen Ann-street to Schoolend-road; then up the same, Pilmuir-street, and Grant's-bank-road to the point first described.

Fourth Ward.

That part of the royalty included within a line drawn from the point where Bridge-street intersects the burgh boundary, along Bridge-street and High-street to the Cross; then up Crosswynd to Queen Ann-street; then along the same to Schoolend-road; then up the same, Pilmuir-street, and Grant's-bank-road to the point where the latter intersects the burgh boundary; then west and along the same to the point first described.

That the number of councillors to be chosen at the first election in November next being twenty two—six councillors shall be chosen in each of the first and second wards, and five councillors shall be chosen in each of the third and fourth wards.

That the number of such councillors to be chosen in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty four shall be seven—two councillors being chosen in each of the first, second, and third wards, and one councillor in the fourth ward.

That the number of councillors to be chosen in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty five shall likewise be seven—two councillors being chosen in each of the first, second, and third wards, and one councillor in the fourth ward.

That the number of councillors to be chosen in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty six, shall be eight—two being chosen in each of the four wards.

And the members of the council of the said burgh shall in all future terms of three years after November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, be elected in the same manner as is above appointed for the period from November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four to November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive.

VII.—THE BURGH OF DUMFRIES.

That the royalty of this burgh shall be divided into four wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

From the north east end of the Caul below the Old-bridge up through Vennel-foot, and thence along Friars-vennel to the High-street, down the High-street, keeping the Mid-raw and Mid-steeple on the north east; then turning round the south end of the Old Coffee-house up Queensberry-street to Academy-street; thence along Academy-street, Townhead-street, and the road to Nunholm, until the said road intersects the Poindfold-burn, which is on that side the boundary of the royalty; then following the line of the said Poindfold-burn till the same falls into the Nith; and thence down the Nith to the north east end of the Caul.

Second Ward.

From the north east end of the Caul below the Old-bridge up through Vennel-foot, and thence along Friars-vennel down the High-street to Assembly-street, from thence down Assembly-street to the Nith, and thence up the Nith to the north east end of the Caul aforesaid.

Third Ward.

From the point in ward first where the Nunholm-road intersects the Poindfold-burn, along the whole boundary line of ward first till the same reaches the south end of the Old Coffee-house, from thence along the boundary line of ward second to the point where English-street joins the High-street, then along

English-street until the same reaches Queen-street, from thence along Queen-street to Shakespeare-street, from thence along Shakespeare-street to the port, from thence along the continuation of English-street which forms the English-street branch of the road to Edinburgh, until the said road intersects the Poindfold-burn, and thence down the said burn to the point aforesaid where the same is intersected by the Nunholm-road.

Fourth Ward.

From the point in ward third where the English-street branch of the Edinburgh-road intersects the Poindfold-burn, along the whole boundary line of ward third till the same reaches the point where English-street joins the High-street; from thence along the boundary line of ward second till the same reaches the nith opposite to Assembly-street, from thence down the nith as far as the royalty extends, and from thence along the line of the royalty until the said line again reaches the foresaid point where the English-street branch of the Edinburgh-road intersects the Poindfold-burn.

That the number of councillors to be chosen at the first election in November next being twenty-five—six councillors shall be chosen in each of the first, third, and fourth wards, and seven shall be chosen in the second ward.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be eight—two being chosen in each of the four wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five shall likewise be eight—two being chosen in each of the four wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six shall be nine—two councillors being chosen in each of the first, third, and fourth wards, and three in the second ward.

And the members of the council of the said burgh shall in all future terms of three years after November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six be elected in the same manner as is above appointed for the period from November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four to November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive.

VIII.—THE BURGH OF INVERNESS.

That the royalty of this burgh shall be divided into three wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

Bounded on the west and south by the limits of the royalty from the north end of Huntly-street, on the west side of the River Ness (including the lands commonly called Fairfield, Plane-field, and Clerk Fraser's Park), to the head of Castle-street, on the east side of the said river; thence by a line running along the centre of Castle-street, and continued along the centre of that part of the High-street opposite to the Exchange and Castle-wynd, along the centre of Church-street as far as Fraser-street, along the centre of Fraser-street, and continued in that last direction to the centre of the bed of the river: and lastly by a line running down the middle of the River Ness to a point where the said line is intersected by a straight line running from the north end of Huntly-street at right angles with that part of the said street lying to the north of Celt-street.

Second Ward.

Bounded by a line running along the centre of Castle-street, and in front of the Exchange and Castle-wynd, as already mentioned; thence by a line running along the centre of Church-street as far as Baron Taylor's-lane; thence by a line running along the centre of Baron Taylor's-lane to the eastern extremity thereof; thence to the corner of junction of Inglis-street and the said lane; thence from the said corner of junction by a straight line drawn at right angles with the general direction of the west side of Academy-street to a point at the distance of two hundred and twenty-nine feet; from this last point in another straight line to the south eastern angle of Miss Baillie's property, on the north margin of the Fort George-road, and thence south eastward by the royalty boundary to the head of Castle-street (on which side that boundary includes the whole north side of Petty-street, the Flesh-market, part of Stephen's-brae, the Cattle-market, and Barn-hill.)

Third Ward.

Bounded by the boundary of the royalty running from the north end of Huntly-street on the west side of the river, along Huntly-place and Veteran-row (comprehending that part of Merkinch, which is the property of Mr. Fraser, of Torbreck), thence by the lines already described as part of the boundaries of districts number one and number two, along the centre of the river, the centre of Fraser's-street, the centre of that part of Church-street from Fraser's-street to Baron Taylor's-lane, the centre of Baron Taylor's-lane, the line from thence to the corner of junction of Inglis-street with the said lane, the straight line from the said corner of junction at right angles with the general direction of the west side of Academy-street to a point at the distance of two hundred and twenty-nine feet; the straight line from the said point to the south eastern angle of Miss Baillie's property on the north margin of the Fort George-road, and lastly by the said road, being there the royalty boundary, to its intersection with the parliamentary boundary of the burgh, and thence by the said boundary to the sea.

That the number of councillors to be chosen at the first election in November next being twenty-one—seven councillors shall be chosen in each of the three wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and in each succeeding year, shall be seven—two being chosen in each of the first and second wards, and three in the third ward.

GENERAL DECLARATION.

All the boundaries of the wards of the above cities and burghs shall be understood to run along the centres of the streets, roads, lanes, and closes by which they are described to be bounded, except where the contrary is particularly mentioned.

Any streets, grounds, houses, and places situated within the royalties of the cities and burghs before mentioned, and included in the foregoing descriptions and boundaries, but not making parts of the said royalties, are to be held as excluded; and any streets, grounds, houses, and places making parts of the said royalties, but lying detached and not embraced in the description of the several wards before mentioned, shall be held as belonging to the ward to which such streets, grounds, houses, and places are severally next adjacent, unless where otherwise specially provided.

Given under our hands and seals, at Edinburgh, the eighth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three.

REPORT

By the Commissioners appointed to divide into Wards, for the Election of Councillors, certain Burghs and Towns of Scotland which now return, or contribute to return, Members to Parliament, and are not Royal Burghs.

To His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

IN pursuance of certain provisions in the Act of Parliament, 3<sup>o</sup> and 4<sup>o</sup> Gulielmi IV. cap. 77. intituled "An Act to provide for the appointment and election of Magistrates and Councillors for the several Burghs and Towns of Scotland which now return, or contribute to return, Members to Parliament, and are not Royal Burghs," the Commissioners named and appointed by His Majesty to inquire into and report upon the condition of the several burghs and towns of Scotland, by virtue of a commission, dated on the fifteenth day of July in the present year, have proceeded to divide into wards or districts the burghs or towns of Paisley, Greenock, Leith, and Kilmarnock, and to fix and ascertain the number of councillors to be chosen by each of such wards or districts, having regard to its being the purport and meaning of the Act, "that the number of wards shall be such that each ward shall, at the first election to be made under the Act, choose, as nearly as may be, the number of three councillors, and at the subsequent annual elections in each succeeding year, the number of one councillor;" and the Commissioners now beg leave to report the result as follows:—

I.—THE BURGH OR TOWN OF PAISLEY.

That this burgh or town shall be divided into five wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

All within a line drawn as follows, viz. from the Moss-toll on the Greenock road along the centre of the Greenock road, southward to a point opposite to the centre of the north road of the Race-course, leading westward from the Greenock road; thence along the centre of that road to the centre of the road that intersects the Race-course-road; thence southward along the centre of that intersecting road and the road in a line therewith, passing West March to the centre of the Greenhill-road; thence westward along that road to a point opposite to the centre of the north end of Lonewells-street; thence southward along the centre of that street to a point in the centre of Wellmeadow-street; thence westward along the centre of that street to a point opposite to the centre of the north end of Castle-street; thence southward along the centre of that street to the south end thereof; thence southward in a direct line to the north east corner of the Mansion-house of Castlehead; thence in a direct line southward to the point where the parliamentary line intersects the Espedair-burn near Haircraigs; thence along the parliamentary boundary westward, northward, and eastward, to the point first described.

Second Ward.

All within a line drawn from a point in Greenhill-road opposite to the centre of the north end of Lonewells-street, along the middle of the Greenhill-road, Underwood-street, and Saint James-street, to a point opposite the centre of the street called Stony-brac; thence by the centre of Stony-brac till it joins Oakshaw-street; thence along the centre of the road leading round the High Church-wall to the Churchhill; thence along the centre of Churchhill to New-street; thence along the centre of New-street to a point opposite the centre of Shuttle-street; thence along the centre of that street to George's-place; thence along the centre of the street in George's-place, by the west and south of George's-church, to a point in George's-street opposite the north end of Wardrop-street; thence along the centre of that street to Canal-street; thence along the centre of that street to a point opposite the centre of the road leading to Canal-basin; thence along the centre of that road to the canal; thence along the centre of the canal westward to the east boundary of the first ward; thence northward along the said boundary to the point first described.

Third Ward.

All within a line drawn from the point where the burn, called St. Mirrens burn, enters the River Cart, up the centre of the River Cart until it reaches the extremity of the parliamentary boundary of the burgh at or near the junction of the Hawkhead-lade with the River Cart; thence along the parliamentary line until it reaches the intersection of the Espedair-burn at or near Haircraigs; thence along the east boundary of ward first till it reaches the canal; thence along the centre of the canal till it reaches the street leading from Canal-street to the Canal-basin; thence along that street till it reaches Canal-street; thence eastward along Canal-street to the bottom of Wardrop-street; thence along Wardrop-street to a point in George-street, at the north end of Wardrop-street; thence by the south and west sides of George's-church to a point at the north end of the church, opposite the south end of Shuttle-street; thence along Shuttle-street to the centre of New-street; thence by the centre of New-street till it reaches the centre of Causeyside; and from thence down Causeyside until it reaches the said burn, called St. Mirrens-burn; and thence along the burn to the point first described.

Fourth Ward.

All within the parliamentary boundary to the west of the centre of the River Cart, which is not included in any of the preceding wards.

Fifth Ward.

All within the parliamentary boundary of the burgh, situated on the east of the centre of the said River Cart.

That the number of councillors to be chosen in each ward at the first election in November next shall be three in each of the first, second, third, and fifth wards, and four in the fourth ward.

That the number of such councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be five—one being chosen in each of the five wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, shall likewise be five—one being chosen in each of the five wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six shall be six—one councillor being chosen in each of the first, second, third, and fifth wards, and two in the fourth ward.

And the members of the council of the said burgh or town shall in all future terms of three years after November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six be elected in the same manner as is above appointed, for the period from November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four to November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive.

II.—THE BURGH OR TOWN OF GREENOCK.

That this burgh or town shall be divided into five wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

That part of the burgh comprehended within a line commencing at the point where Ladyburn joins the River Clyde, and running westward along the margin of the said river to the point where Carts-burn joins the Clyde; thence up the said burn till it is crossed by Rue-end-street; thence along the centre of the said street till the same joins Cathcart-street; thence along the centre of the said street to the foot of Bank-street; thence along the centre of the said street to its southern extremity; thence in a straight line to the Parliamentary boundary at the Upper East Reservoir; and from thence eastward and northward along the Parliamentary boundary to the point first described.

Second Ward.

That part of the burgh comprehended within a line commencing at the point where Cartsburn joins the Clyde; thence up the said burn to the point where it is crossed by Rue-end-street; thence through the centre of Rue-end and Cathcart-streets to the centre of Cathcart-square; thence to the head of William-street; thence along the centre of said street to the Mid-quay; thence along the said Mid-quay to the Clyde; and thence south eastward along the margin of said river to the point first described.

Third Ward.

That part of the burgh comprehended within a line commencing at the north east extremity of the Mid-quay, and running along the said quay to the foot of William-street; thence along the centre of the said street to the centre of Cathcart-square; thence along the said square to Hamilton-street; thence along the centre of Hamilton-street to Sugar-house-lane; thence down the said lane to the point where Crawford-street crosses the West burn; thence down said burn to where it enters the Clyde; thence along the margin of the said river to the extremity of the Mid-quay, being the point first described.

Fourth Ward.

That part of the burgh comprehended within a line commencing at the centre of Cathcart-square; thence proceeding to Hamilton-street, and along said street to the point where it joins Sugar-house-lane; thence southward along the centre of said lane; thence along the centre of Sir Michael-street to Roxburgh-street; thence along the centre of said street in a straight line to the West burn; thence up the West burn to the parliamentary boundary; thence along said boundary to the Upper East Reservoir: thence along the west boundary of ward first to the point first described.

Fifth Ward.

All the remaining parts of the burgh.

That the number of councillors to be chosen in each ward at the first election in November next, shall be three in each of the first, second, third, and fourth wards, and four in the fifth ward.

That the number of such councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be five—one being chosen in each of the five wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five shall likewise be five—one being chosen in each of the five wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six shall be six—one councillor being chosen in each of the first, second, third, and fourth wards, and two in the fifth ward.

And the members of the council of the said burgh or town shall, in all future terms of three years after November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, be elected in the same manner as is above appointed for the period from November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four to November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive.

III.—THE BURGH OR TOWN OF LEITH.

That this burgh or town shall be divided into five wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

Bounded on the north east by the sea, on the south by the road in front of Seafield-baths and Claremont-park to the Restalrig-road, and to the road in front of James'-place, Charlotte-street, to Water-lane; and on the west by Water-lane to Bernard-street, by Bernard-street to the shore and the harbour to Leith-pier.

Second Ward.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto William-Henry-Ashe à Court, Esq. (commonly called the Honourable William-Henry-Ashe à Court), eldest son and heir apparent of William Baron Heytesbury, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, and one of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and unto Elizabeth-Worsley his wife, eldest daughter and coheir of the late Sir Leonard-Thomas Worsley-Holmes, of Westover, in the isle of Wight, Bait. deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority that, in compliance with a proviso in the last will and testament of the said Sir Leonard-Thomas Worsley-Holmes, they may take and use the surname of Holmes, in addition to that of à Court; that the said William-Henry-Ashe à Court may bear the arms of Holmes, quarterly in the first quarter, with his own family arms; and that the said Elizabeth-Worsley à Court may also bear the arms of Holmes; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 15, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Sunday the 6th day of October instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did maliciously and feloniously fire a gun, loaded with shot, into the bed-room window of James Mansfield, of Cheveley, in the county of Cambridge, under game-keeper to his Grace the Duke of Rutland;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Admiralty, Somerset-Place,
October 4, 1833

HALF-PAY TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the receipt in the Wages Department at the Admiralty-office, Somerset-place, of the affidavit required from each Officer by His Majesty's Orders in Council, a bill for the amount of the half-pay due will be made out in this Department, which will be payable by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, on the following days, viz.

On the 21st, 22d, and 23d of October, to Admirals, Captains, Commanders and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

On the 24th and 25th of October, to Lieutenants at 7s. and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 28th, 29th, and 30th of October, to all other Lieutenants, and their Attorneys.

On the 31st of October and 1st of November, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

After which the half-pay will be payable on the first and third Wednesday in every month.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay in person, are requested to transmit their affidavits to the Secretary of the Admiralty immediately on the expiration of each quarter; also those employing agents should as promptly furnish their agents with their affidavits, as unless such documents are early delivered into this Office, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue.

Or (under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy) they may receive it in any of the following ways, viz.

1st. By drawing a bill for the amount, on a form to be transmitted from this Office.

2d. By a remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence.

3d. By extract or permanent remittance bill, upon which those Officers who reside in the neighbourhood of a Dock-yard, where there is an establishment of Pay Clerks, may be paid.

If they wish to receive it by bill of exchange, they are to give notice thereof, by letter, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked, in the corner, "Half-pay, Accountant-General," and thereupon the proper form will be sent to them.

If they wish to have it remitted to them, they must give a like notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked in the same manner, and a bill will thereupon be made out and transmitted to them.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 29, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to continue for a further term, and to amend and enlarge the powers contained in, and to continue or vary, increase, or alter the tolls and rates granted or authorised to be collected by, an Act, passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for widening and improving the street or road leading from Tower-hill to the street called Upper East Smithfield, in the parish of Saint Botolph without Aldgate, in the county of Middlesex;" and an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enlarging the powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for widening and improving Upper East Smithfield, in the parish of Saint Botolph without Aldgate, in the county of Middlesex;" and an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering, amending, and explaining two Acts of His present Majesty's reign, for widening and improving the street leading from Tower-hill to the street called Upper East Smithfield, in the county of Middlesex;" and to continue the toll-gate and bar, or toll-house, authorised by the said last-mentioned Act, or to take down, repair, and replace the same, or erect another or others instead thereof on the site of or near to the said toll-gate and bar, or toll-house, or on any part of the said street or road; which said street or road is within and passes from and into, and in part through, the said parish of Saint Botolph without Aldgate, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 4th day of October 1833.

Teesdale, Symes, and Weston, Solicitors for the Trustees under the said Acts.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

British Guiana, Berbice District.—Marshal's-Office.

First Edictal Citation.

BY virtue of authority granted by his Honour Charles Wray, Chief Justice of British Guiana, dated the 8th May 1833;

I, the undersigned, at the instance of John Ross, an inhabitant of the District of Berbice, for himself and derato carens, for the remaining deliberating Executors to the last will and testament of James Culley, deceased, William Buie, in quality as Executor to the abandoned estate of John Blank, and J. L. Barnstedt and Peter Rechorst, representatives of the estate of J. J. Rausch, deceased, do hereby, for the first time, cite by edict, all known and unknown creditors and claimants against the respective estates of James Culley, John Blank, and J. J. Rausch, to appear at the Roll-Court of Civil Justice, to be holden at the Court-House, in New Amsterdam, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon of Monday the 4th day of November 1833, and following days, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly attested, and in due form; whereas, in default of which, and after the expiration of the second and last edictal citation, will be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.

This first edictal citation published as customary.—Berbice, the 23d May 1833.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Russell against Hunt, the Creditors of Ann Russell, late of Ipswich, in the County of Suffolk, Spinster, deceased (who died in April 1831), are, on or before the 14th day of November 1833, to come in and prove their debts before the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the sale by auction of a messuage and premises in Doncaster, in the County of York, before the major part of the Commissioners in a Fiat in Bankruptcy against Isaac Robinson, late of Kingston-upon-Hull, in the said County, but now residing at Doncaster aforesaid, Dealer and Chapman, intended to be held at Doncaster aforesaid, on Wednesday the 23d day of October instant, will not take place on that day.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

WHEREAS Peter Elliott, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Boot-Maker, hath by an indenture of assignment, bearing date the 14th day of October instant, duly assigned all his estate and effects to George Boyd and Henry Angus, both of Newcastle-upon-Tyne aforesaid, Curriers and Leather-Dealers, in trust, for the equal benefit of his Creditors. Notice is hereby given, that the said indenture now lies at the Office of Mr. Joseph Hedley, Solicitor, Bigg Market, Newcastle, for the perusal and signature of the Creditors; and such of them as shall not execute the same within two months from the date hereof will be excluded all benefit arising therefrom.—Newcastle-upon-Tyne, 14th October 1833.

REUBEN ROBINSON'S ASSIGNMENT.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by indenture of assignment, bearing date the 15th day of October 1833, made between Reuben Robinson the younger, of Doncaster, in the County of York, Bookbinder and Stationer, of the first part; Joseph Foster, of Doncaster aforesaid, Serjeant at Mace, of the second part; and the several other persons, Creditors of the said Reuben Robinson, who have subscribed their names and affixed their seals to the said indenture, of the third part; the said Reuben Robinson did assign all his personal estate and effects unto the said Joseph Foster, in trust, for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said Reuben Robinson who shall execute, or, by letter addressed to me, consent to execute, the said assignment within two calendar months from the day of the date thereof; which said assignment now lies for inspection and signatures at my Office, where all debts owing to the said Reuben Robinson are to be immediately paid; and notice is hereby further given, that the said indenture of assignment was executed by the said Reuben Robinson and Joseph Foster respectively, on the day of the date thereof; and that the execution of the same indenture by the said Reuben Robinson and Joseph Foster is attested by Frederick Fisher, of Doncaster aforesaid, Attorney at Law, and Edward Nicholson, his Clerk.

F. FISHER,
Solicitor to the Assignee.

WHEREAS James Young, of Bridge-Road, Battersea, in the County of Surrey, Leather-Japaner, hattu, by indenture, bearing date the 12th day of October instant, assigned all his personal estate and effects unto Joseph Sharp, of Russell-Street, Bermondsey-Street, in the County of Surrey, Currier, and John Lutwyche and John George, both of Skinner-Street, Snow-Hill, in the City of London, Russia-Leather-Merchants, in trust, for the benefit of themselves and all other the Creditors of the said James Young; and which said indenture was duly executed by the said James Young, Joseph Sharp, and John Lutwyche, on the day of its date, and by the said John George on the 16th day of October instant; and the executions thereof by the same several parties are attested by George Larken, of Essex-Street, Strand, in the said County of Middlesex, Solicitor, and Henry Maries, of the same place, his Clerk; notice is therefore hereby given, that the said deed of assignment now lies for the perusal and signature of the said Creditors, at the Office of Messrs. Willett and Larken, in Essex-Street aforesaid, Solicitors; and that in order to secure the benefit thereof the same indenture must be executed by the said Creditors, either by themselves or by their respective attorneys or agents, within two months from the date thereof.

NOTICE is hereby given, that such of the Creditors of Isaac Temple, of Barnard Castle, Carpet-Manufacturer, Grocer and Draper, as have executed the indenture of assignment agreeable to the provision thereof (as advertized), within three calendar months from the 25th day of May 1830, are requested forthwith to send in the particulars of their claim to Robert Fordison, one of the Assignees, to enable him to adjust and pay a final dividend of the said estate, and which the parties may receive, after the 25th of December, on application to the said Robert Fordison.—Stockton, October 15th, 1833.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.
2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom his Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a goal in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.
3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 4, c. 61, sec. 11, as the case may be.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of Richard Fort, late of Ensham, in the County of Oxford, Collar and Harness-Maker and Tawer, who was lately discharged from His Majesty's Goal of Oxford Castle, in the County of Oxford, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will be held on Monday the 4th day of November next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Red Lion Inn, in Ensham aforesaid, to approve and direct in what manner, and at what place or places, the real estate of the said Insolvent shall be sold by public auction.

WHEREAS the Assignees of the estate and effects of Thomas Norton, late of Dean-Street, Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, Plaisterer, an Insolvent Debtor, lately a Prisoner in the Goal of Birmingham aforesaid, have caused an account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignees at the Offices of Mr. Barlow, Solicitor, in Bennet's-Hill, in Birmingham aforesaid, on the 22d day of November next, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon precisely, when and where the Assignees will declare the amount of the balance in their hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignees, or any Creditor, object to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of Jonathan Parker, late of Corn-orih, in the County of Lancaster, Yeoman, deceased, an Insolvent Debtor, and formerly a Prisoner in Lancaster Castle, hath caused an account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet at the Office of Mr. Lodge, Solicitor, in Lancaster aforesaid, on the 18th day of November next, at Eleven in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.
