FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1833.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of October 1833,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the thirty-first day of October instant, be further prorogued to Thursday the twelfth day of December next: and the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain is to cause a Commission to be prepared and issued, in the usual manner, for proroguing the Parliament accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of October 1833,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of lastage and ballastage in the River Thames; and for enabling the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation; and for other purposes connected therewith;" the said Corporation are authorised and empowered from time to time, and at any time or times thereafter, upon the requisition or with the consent of His Majesty, his heirs and successors, in his or their Most Honourable Privy Council, to reduce, relinquish, abolish, alter, or modify all or any or either of the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls imposed or granted by the several grants, charters, or Acts of Parliament therein recited; or any of them; or collected, taken, levied, and received under the authority thereof respectively; or by ancient usage, custom, or prescription, or any part or parts thereof, so far as may be consistent with the charitable and other uses, purposes, and intents for which the said Corporation has been established and maintained; and are further authorised at any time or times thereafter to revive and re-establish any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been relinquished or abolished; or to increase or otherwise alter or modify any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been reduced, altered, or modified under the authority of the said Act; and so from time to time to relinquish or abolish, and revive or re-establish, and reduce or increase, alter or modify, all or any of such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, as occasion may require; so as, nevertheless, that no such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls shall at any time be increased beyond the amount which might be collected, taken, levied, or received in respect thereof before the passing of that Act; provided always, that no such relinquishment, abolition, reduction, alteration, or modification, or subsequent revival, re-establishment, increase, alteration, or modification of any such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, or any or either of them, or any part or parts, shall at any time be deemed valid or take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the said Corporation to, and shall have been assented to and confirmed by, His Majesty, his heirs or successors, in his or their Most Honourable Privy Council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing unto the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants; and it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to fix and determine the period (so that the same do not exceed three calendar months from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation as aforesaid) from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so relinquished or abolished shall be discontinued and no longer taken, collected, levied, or received; or from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so revived or re-established, reduced, increased, altered, or modified respectively as aforesaid, shall and may be collected, received, levied, or taken:

And whereas the said Corporation of Trinity-house have proposed to alter and reduce certain rates now collected by them, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, for ballast supplied to vessels in the West India Dock, and have proposed that the same rate of charge be established for ballast delivered in any part of the West India Dock, as is paid for ballast delivered in the London Docks; His Majesty, in virtue of the powers vested in him by the above-recited Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased hereby to signify His Royal assent to and confirmation of the said proposed reduction of the rate of charge for ballast delivered in any part of the West India Dock, to the same rate as is paid for ballast delivered in the London Docks.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the laws for the election of the Magistrates and Councils of the Royal Burghs in Scotland," it is, among other things, enacted, "that the several burghs in schedule (C.) to the said Act annexed, shall be divided into wards or districts, which, together with the number of councillors to be chosen by each such ward or district, shall be fixed and ascertained by the Commissioners named and appointed by His Majesty to inquire into and report upon the condition of the several burghs and towns of Scotland, by virtue of a commission, dated on the fifteenth day of July in the present year; and such Commissioners shall have regard to its being the purport and meaning of this Act, that the number of wards shall be such that each ward shall, at the first election to be made under this Act, choose, as nearly as may be, the number of six councillors, and at the subsequent annual elections in each succeeding year the number of two councillors; and the said Commissioners shall, upon such division being made and completed, report the same to His Majesty's Privy Council, who shall cause such report to be published by Royal Proclamation in the Gazette; and the number and limits of such districts, and the number of councillors to be elected by each such district, being so fixed, reported, and published, shall be held and taken to be a part of this Act, in the same manner and to the same effect as if the same were particularly set forth and enacted herein."

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the appointment and election of Magistrates and Councillors for the several Burghs and Towns of Scotland which now return, or contribute to return, Members of Parliament, and are not Royal Burghs," it is, among other things, enacted, "that the said burghs or towns of Paisley, Greenock, Leith, and Kilmarnock, shall be divided into wards or districts, which, together with the number of councillors to be chosen by each such ward or district, shall be fixed and ascertained by the Commissioners named and appointed by His Majesty to inquire into and report upon the condition of the several burghs and towns of Scotland by a commission, dated on the fifteenth day of July in the present year; and such Commissioners shall have regard to its being the purport and meaning of this Act, that the number of wards shall be such that each ward shall, at the first election to be made under this Act, choose, as nearly as may be, the number of three councillors, and at the subsequent annual elections in each succeeding year the number of one councillor; and the said Commissioners shall, upon such division being made and completed, report the same to His Majesty's Privy Council, who shall cause such report to be published by Royal Proclamation in the Gazette; and the number and limits of such districts, and the number of councillors to be elected by each such district, being so fixed, reported, and published, shall be held and taken to be a part of this Act, in the same manner and to the same effect as if the same were particularly set forth and enacted herein."

And whereas such commissions as are in the said Acts recited to have been granted by His Majesty on the fifteenth day of July in this present year, were respectively granted of that date; and whereas, as well under the authority thereof, as of the said Acts, the Commissioners named and appointed by His Majesty in that behalf, have duly executed the said commissions, and made and completed the divisions by the said Acts authorised and required, and have duly reported the same to His Majesty's Privy Council, by two reports under their several and respective hands and seals, which are in the words and figures, or to the purport and effect, hereinafter set forth; His Majesty doth hereby, by the advice of His Privy Council, by this His Royal Proclamation, publish the said two reports, in pursuance of the said Acts, for the purpose of giving full effect thereto according to the intent and meaning of the said Acts, that is to say:

REPORT

By the Commissioners appointed to divide into Wards for the election of Councillors certain Royal Burghs in Scotland.

To His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

IN pursuance of certain provisions in the Act of Parliament 3^o and 4^o Gulielmi IV. cap. 76. intituled "An Act to alter and amend the laws for the election of the Magistrates and Councils of the Royal Burghs in Scotland," the Commissioners named and appointed by His Majesty to inquire into and report upon the condition of the several burghs and towns of Scotland, by virtue of a commission, dated on the fifteenth day of July, in the present year, have proceeded to divide into wards the several burghs enumerated in schedule (C.) annexed to the foresaid Act, and to fix and ascertain the number of councillors to be chosen by each of such wards or districts, having regard to its being the purport and meaning of the Act, "that the number of wards shall be such that each ward shall at the first election to be made under the Act, choose, as nearly as may be, the number of six councillors, and at the subsequent annual elections in each succeeding year, the number of two councillors;" and the Commissioners beg leave to report the result as follows:—

I.—THE CITY OF EDINBURGH.

That the ancient and extended royalty of this city shall be divided into five wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

That part of the ancient royalty situate south of the High-street and Canongate from the Castlehill-esplanade to St. John's-cross, bounded on the south, east and west by the boundary line of the royalty running from St. John's-cross to the South-back of Canongate, the street of South-back of Canongate to the Cowgate-port, and thence by the line of the Old Town-wall, by the west end of the Grass-market to the Castlehill; also that part of the ancient royalty lying north of the High-street from the Castlehill-esplanade to Bank-street, bounded on the east, north, and west by Bank-street, Mound-place, and the Princes-street-gardens:

Second Ward.

Those parts of the ancient and extended royalty comprehended within the following limits, viz. from Bank-street along the High-street to the head of Leith-wynd, down Leith-wynd round by the back of the College-Kirkyard, and including the houses of Shakespeare-square and both sides of Waterloo-place, and then along the boundary line of the royalty that intersects the Register-house, West Register-street, the Royal-bank, and Elder-street to the foot of the Catholic Chapel-lane, at Broughton-street; thence along York-place, North and South St. David-streets, Princes-street, west side of the Earthen-mound, Mound-place, and Bank-street.

Third Ward.

Those parts of the extended royalty comprehended within the following limits, viz. from a point at the east end of York-place at the intersection of Broughton-street, along York-place and Queen-street to Hanover-street, down Dundas-street and Pitt-street, along East Fettes-row, Royal-crescent, Kirklane at Canonmills, the High-road from Canonmills to Broughton, Broughton-street to the place where it is intersected by the line of the royalty; thence along the line of the royalty intersecting Forth-street and Hart-street, East Broughton-place along Union-street, across Leith-walk, down Elm-row, along the northern boundary of the royalty intersecting Windsor-street, and from the eastern extremity of that boundary round the Caltonhill, including the west end of Regent-terrace, Blenheim-place, Leopold-place, Hillside-crescent, and part of Windsor-street; and thence along Greenside and Broughton-streets to the east end of York-place.

Fourth Ward.

Those parts of the extended royalty comprehended within the following limits, viz. from a point at the intersection of Fettes-row and Pitt-street along Pitt-street, Dundas-street, Queen-street, North St. David-street, west side of St. Andrew-square, South Saint David-street, Princes-street, Frederick-street, Howe-street, St. Vincent-street, West Fettes-row, and the irregular boundary line of the royalty running from Fettes-row to St. Vincent-street; also the ground formerly called the Distillery-park, upon which Henderson-row, the Edinburgh Academy, and the Deaf and Dumb Institution are now built.

Fifth Ward.

Those parts of the extended royalty comprehended within the following limits, viz. from a point at the intersection of South Frederick-street and Princes-street, along Frederick-street, Howe-street, to near the foot of St. Vincent-street; thence along the line of royalty intersecting the Circus-lane, India-street, India-place, Mackenzie-place, Moray-place, Saint Colme-street, Glenfinlas-street, and Charlotte-place to Queensferry-street; and then along that street and Princes-street to the point first mentioned. This ward includes also the Princes-street-gardens, St. John's-chapel, and Cuninghams-fen at Coates, upon which Walker-street, Manor-place, and parts of Coates-crescent, William-street, and Melville-street are built.

That the number of councillors to be chosen at the first election in November next being thirty-one; six councillors shall be chosen in each of the first, second, third, and fifth wards, and seven shall be chosen in the fourth ward.

That the number of such councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be ten—two being chosen in each of the five wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five shall likewise be ten—two being chosen in each of the five wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six shall be eleven—two councillors being chosen in each of the first, second, third, and fifth wards, and three in the fourth ward.

And the members of the council of the said city shall in all future terms of three years after November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, be elected in the same manner as is above appointed for the period from November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four to November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive.

II.—THE CITY OF GLASGOW.

That the royalty of this city shall be divided into five wards, limited and bounded as follows :—

First Ward.

The whole of the royalty within the parliamentary boundary, situated to the east of a line drawn from Hutcheson-bridge through the centres of Saltmarket-street, High-street, Kirk-street, Castle-street, and the road leading by Inchbelly-bridge to Stirling and Falkirk, till the same reaches the parliamentary boundary.

Second Ward.

That part of the royalty included within a line drawn from the Cross through the centres of High-street and Kirk-street, till the same joins the south end of Castle-street; thence northward along the centre of Castle-street to the junction therewith of the road from Possil and Keppochhill; thence along the centre of the road from Possil and Keppochhill to the royalty stone, number one hundred and eighty seven; thence westward along the boundary of the royalty to the royalty stone, number one hundred and ninety three; thence southward along the centre of the road from Garscube-bridge until it comes to the head of Dundas-street; thence eastward along the centre of the road leading to Rottenrow-street, until it reaches the head of John-street; thence southward through the centre of John-street till it joins the centre of Ingram-street; thence eastward along the centre of Ingram-street till it reaches the centre of Candleriggs-street; thence southward along the centre of Candleriggs-street till it reaches the centre of Trongate-street; thence eastward through the centre of Trongate-street to the Cross, the point first described. And also those portions of the royalty situated, adjoining to, and immediately south of the Forth and Clyde Canal, and the canal connecting the same with the Monkland Canal, and west of ward first.

Third Ward.

That part of the royalty included within a line drawn from Hutcheson-bridge through the centre of Saltmarket-street to the Cross; thence westward along the centre of Trongate-street to the centre of Candleriggs-street; thence through the centre of Candleriggs-street to the centre of Ingram-street; thence westward along the centre of Ingram-street to the centre of Glassford-street; thence through the centres of Glassford-street and Stockwell-street to the Old-bridge; thence along the right margin of the River Clyde to the point first described.

Fourth Ward.

junction with the turnpike road leading from Dundee to Arbroath, with which the description of the ward began.

Second Ward.

To contain that portion of the burgh included within the following boundary, viz. beginning on the River Tay, at the bottom of Slate or Sea-wynd, and holding northward by Sea-wynd and crossing the Nethergate to the Long-wynd; northward along the Long-wynd to the Overgate; eastward along the Overgate as far as Barrack-street; northward by Barrack-street, Barrack-road, and Constitution-brae, and the road or lane leading along the west side of Stirling's park to the north west corner of Stirling's park; and from that point in a straight line to the north boundary of the royalty, at the point where a straight line drawn from the north west corner of Stirling's park to the King's cross cuts the said boundary of the royalty; from thence westward by the boundary of the royalty, and following the boundary of the royalty south to the River Tay, and along that river eastward to the point at the bottom of Slate or Sea-wynd, where the description of the ward began.

Third Ward.

To contain that portion of the burgh included in the following boundary, viz. beginning with the eastern boundary of the royalty, on the turnpike road between Dundee and Arbroath, westward along the said turnpike road, and by King-street, Cowgate, Murraygate, north side of Trades-hall, High-street, and Overgate, as far as Barrack-street; northward by Barrack-street, Barrack-road, Constitution-brae, and the road or lane leading along the west side of Stirling's park, to the north west corner of Stirling's park; and from that point in a straight line to the north boundary of the royalty, at the point where a line drawn from the north west corner of Stirling's park to the King's cross cuts the said boundary of the royalty; from thence eastward by the boundary of the royalty, and following the same to the point of its junction with the turnpike road from Dundee to Arbroath, where the description of the ward began.

That the number of councillors to be chosen at the first election in November next, being twenty—seven councillors shall be chosen in each of the first and second wards—and six shall be chosen in the third ward.

That the number of such councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be six—two being chosen in each ward.

That the number of such councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five shall be seven—three being chosen in the first ward, and two in each of the second and third wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six shall likewise be seven—three being chosen in the first ward, and two in each of the second and third wards.

And the members of the council of the said burgh shall, in all future terms of three years after November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, be elected in the same manner as is above appointed for the period from November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four to November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive.

V.—THE BURGH OF PERTH.

That the royalty of this burgh shall be divided into four wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

To consist of that portion of the royalty which is included within the following boundary, viz. beginning at the junction of the Watergate with the High-street, southward along the Watergate to the South-street; thence westward along that street to the Meal-vennel; thence northward along the said Meal-vennel to the High-street; and thence eastward along that street to its junction with the Watergate.

Second Ward.

To consist of that portion of the royalty which is included within the following boundary, viz. beginning at the west end of Perth-bridge, from thence southwards along George's-street and the Watergate, till it reaches the South-street; thence westward along that street to the South-street-port, where the south branch of the Towns-lead crosses the same; and from thence southward, following the course of that branch of the Lead which runs along the west and south sides of the South-inch, until it reaches the River Tay; and northward along the river to the Perth-bridge.

Third Ward.

To consist of that portion of the royalty which is included within the following boundary, viz. beginning at the River Tay, immediately above the Perth-bridge; from thence northward along the River Tay to the north boundary of the royalty on the North-inch; from thence westward along that boundary to the Balhousie Mill-lead; from thence following the course of that Lead to the point where it crosses the North Port-street; from thence along the North Port and Curfen-row to Mill-street; thence eastward along Mill-street to the Old Guard-vennel; thence southward along said vennel to the High-street; thence eastward along the High-street to George's-street; and from thence along George's-street to the point at the river above the bridge first mentioned.

Fourth Ward.

To consist of that portion of the royalty which is included within the following boundary, viz. from the South-street-port eastward along the said street to the Meal-vennel; thence northward along that vennel to the High-street; thence eastward along that street to the Old Guard-vennel; thence northward along that vennel to Mill-street, and westward along that street to Methven-street; including likewise in this ward the rest of the royalty not included in any of the other three wards.

That the number of councillors to be chosen at the first election in November next being twenty-five—seven councillors shall be chosen in the first ward, and six councillors shall be chosen in each of the second, third, and fourth wards.

That the number of such councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be eight—two being chosen in each of the four wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five shall likewise be eight—two being chosen in each of the four wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six shall be nine—three councillors being chosen in the first ward, and two councillors in each of the second, third, and fourth wards.

And the members of the council of the said burgh shall, in all future terms of three years after November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, be elected in the same manner as is above appointed, for the period from November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four to November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive.

VI.—THE BURGH OF DUNFERMLINE.

That the royalty of this burgh shall be divided into four wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

That part of the royalty included within a line drawn from the point where Bridge-street intersects the burgh boundary, along Bridge-street and High-street to the Cross; thence down Guildhall-street, St. Margaret-street, and Gibb-street to Priory-lane; thence along Priory-lane to Reid-street; thence down Reid-street to Nethertown-broad-street; thence westward along the same till it meets the burgh boundary; then northward along the said boundary to the point first described.

Second Ward.

That part of the royalty included within a line drawn from the point where the Crossgate-road intersects the burgh boundary; thence to the south and along the said boundary till it comes round to the point where it is intersected by the Nethertown-broad-street; thence along the said street to Reid-street; then up the same to Priory-lane; then along the same to Gibb-street; then up Gibb-street, St. Margaret's-street, and Guildhall-street to the Cross; then along the High-street, East Port-street, and Crossgates-road, to the point first described.

Third Ward.

street to the Cross; then up Cross-wynd to Queen Ann-street; then along the same to Schoolend-road; then up the same, Pilmuir-street, and Grant's-bank-road to the point where the latter intersects the burgh boundary; then west and along the same to the point first described.

That the number of councillors to be chosen at the first election in November next being twenty-two—six councillors shall be chosen in each of the first and second wards, and five councillors shall be chosen in each of the third and fourth wards.

That the number of such councillors to be chosen in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be seven—two councillors being chosen in each of the first, second, and third wards, and one councillor in the fourth ward.

That the number of councillors to be chosen in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five shall likewise be seven—two councillors being chosen in each of the first, second, and third wards, and one councillor in the fourth ward.

That the number of councillors to be chosen in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, shall be eight—two being chosen in each of the four wards.

And the members of the council of the said burgh shall in all future terms of three years after November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, be elected in the same manner as is above appointed for the period from November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four to November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive.

VII.—THE BURGH OF DUMFRIES.

That the royalty of this burgh shall be divided into four wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

From the north east end of the Caul below the Old-bridge up through Vennel-foot, and thence along Friars-vennel to the High-street, down the High-street, keeping the Mid-raw and Mid-steeples on the north east; then turning round the south end of the Old Coffee-house up Queensberry-street to Academy-street; thence along Academy-street, Townhead-street, and the road to Nunholm, until the said road intersects the Poindfold-burn, which is on that side the boundary of the royalty; then following the line of the said Poindfold-burn till the same falls into the Nith; and thence down the Nith to the north east end of the Caul.

Second Ward.

From the north east end of the Caul below the Old-bridge up through Vennel-foot, and thence along Friars-vennel down the High-street to Assembly-street, from thence down Assembly-street to the Nith, and thence up the Nith to the north east end of the Caul aforesaid.

Third Ward.

From the point in ward first where the Nunholm-road intersects the Poindfold-burn, along the whole boundary line of ward first till the same reaches the south end of the Old Coffee-house, from thence along the boundary line of ward second to the point where English-street joins the High-street, then along English-street until the same reaches Queen-street, from thence along Queen-street to Shakespeare-street, from thence along Shakespeare-street to the port, from thence along the continuation of English-street which forms the English-street branch of the road to Edinburgh, until the said road intersects the Poindfold-burn; and thence down the said burn to the point aforesaid where the same is intersected by the Nunholm-road.

Fourth Ward.

From the point in ward third where the English-street branch of the Edinburgh-road intersects the Poindfold-burn, along the whole boundary line of ward third till the same reaches the point where English-street joins the High-street; from thence along the boundary line of ward second till the same reaches the nith opposite to Assembly-street, from thence down the nith as far as the royalty extends, and from thence along the line of the royalty until the said line again reaches the foresaid point where the English-street branch of the Edinburgh-road intersects the Poindfold-burn.

That the number of councillors to be chosen at the first election in November next being twenty-five—six councillors shall be chosen in each of the first, third, and fourth wards, and seven shall be chosen in the second ward.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be eight—two being chosen in each of the four wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five shall likewise be eight—two being chosen in each of the four wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six shall be nine—two councillors being chosen in each of the first, third, and fourth wards, and three in the second ward.

And the members of the council of the said burgh shall in all future terms of three years after November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six be elected in the same manner as is above appointed for the period from November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four to November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive.

VIII.—THE BURGH OF INVERNESS.

That the royalty of this burgh shall be divided into three wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

Bounded on the west and south by the limits of the royalty from the north end of Huntly-street, on the west side of the River Ness (including the lands commonly called Fairfield, Plainfield, and Clerk Fraser's Park), to the head of Castle-street, on the east side of the said river; thence by a line running along the centre of Castle-street, and continued along the centre of that part of the High-street opposite to the Exchange and Castle-wynd, along the centre of Church-street as far as Fraser-street, along the centre of Fraser-street, and continued in that last direction to the centre of the bed of the river: and lastly by a line running down the middle of the River Ness to a point where the said line is intersected by a straight line running from the north end of Huntly-street at right angles with that part of the said street lying to the north of Celt-street.

Second Ward.

Bounded by a line running along the centre of Castle-street, and in front of the Exchange and Castle-wynd, as already mentioned; thence by a line running along the centre of Church-street as far as Baron Taylor's lane; thence by a line running along the centre of Baron Taylor's-lane to the eastern extremity thereof; thence to the corner of junction of Inglis-street and the said lane; thence from the said corner of junction by a straight line drawn at right angles with the general direction of the west side of Academy-street to a point at the distance of two hundred and twenty-nine feet; from this last point in another straight line to the south eastern angle of Miss Baillie's property, on the north margin of the Fort George-road, and thence south eastward by the royalty boundary to the head of Castle-street (on which side that boundary includes the whole north side of Petty-street, the Flesh-market, part of Stephen's-brae, the Cattle-market, and Barn-hill.)

Third Ward.

Bounded by the boundary of the royalty running from the north end of Huntly-street on the west side of the river, along Huntly-place and Veteran-row (comprehending that part of Merkinch, which is the property of Mr. Fraser, of Torbreck), thence by the lines already described as part of the boundaries of districts number one and number two, along the centre of the river, the centre of Fraser's-street, the centre of that part of Church-street from Fraser's-street to Baron Taylor's-lane, the centre of Baron Taylor's-lane, the line from thence to the corner of junction of Inglis-street with the said lane, the straight line from the said corner of junction at right angles with the general direction of the west side of Academy-street to a point at the distance of two hundred and twenty-nine feet; the straight line from the said point to the south eastern angle of Miss Baillie's property on the north margin of the Fort George-road, and lastly by the said road, being there the royalty boundary, to its intersection with the parliamentary boundary of the burgh, and thence by the said boundary to the sea.

That the number of councillors to be chosen at the first election in November next being twenty-one—seven councillors shall be chosen in each of the three wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and in each succeeding year, shall be seven—two being chosen in each of the first and second wards, and three in the third ward.

GENERAL DECLARATION.

All the boundaries of the wards of the above cities and burghs shall be understood to run along the centres of the streets, roads, lanes, and closes by which they are described to be bounded, except where the contrary is particularly mentioned.

Any streets, grounds, houses, and places situated within the royalties of the cities and burghs before mentioned, and included in the foregoing descriptions and boundaries, but not making parts of the said royalties, are to be held as excluded; and any streets, grounds, houses, and places making parts of the said royalties, but lying detached and not embraced in the description of the several wards before mentioned, shall be held as belonging to the ward to which such streets, grounds, houses, and places are severally next adjacent, unless where otherwise specially provided.

Given under our hands and seals, at Edinburgh, the eighth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three.

REPORT

By the Commissioners appointed to divide into Wards, for the Election of Councillors, certain Burghs and Towns of Scotland which now return, or contribute to return, Members to Parliament, and are not Royal Burghs.

To His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

IN pursuance of certain provisions in the Act of Parliament, 3^o and 4^o Gulielmi IV. cap. 77. intituled "An Act to provide for the appointment and election of Magistrates and Councillors for the several Burghs and Towns of Scotland which now return, or contribute to return, Members to Parliament, and are not Royal Burghs," the Commissioners named and appointed by His Majesty to inquire into and report upon the condition of the several burghs and towns of Scotland, by virtue of a commission, dated on the fifteenth day of July in the present year, have proceeded to divide into wards or districts the burghs or towns of Paisley, Greenock, Leith, and Kilmarnock, and to fix and ascertain the number of councillors to be chosen by each of such wards or districts, having regard to its being the purport and meaning of the Act, "that the number of wards shall be such that each ward shall, at the first election to be made under the Act, choose, as nearly as may be, the number of three councillors, and at the subsequent annual elections in each succeeding year, the number of one councillor;" and the Commissioners now beg leave to report the result as follows:—

I.—THE BURGH OR TOWN OF PAISLEY.

That this burgh or town shall be divided into five wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

All within a line drawn as follows, viz. from the Moss-toll on the Greenock road along the centre of the Greenock road, southward to a point opposite to the centre of the north road of the Race-course, leading westward from the Greenock road; thence along the centre of that road to the centre of the road that intersects the Race-course-road; thence southward along the centre of that intersecting road and the road in a line therewith, passing West March to the centre of the Greenhill-road; thence westward along that road to a point opposite to the centre of the north end of Lownells-street; thence southward along the centre of that street to a point in the centre of Wellmeadow-street; thence westward along the centre of that street to a point opposite to the centre of the north end of Castle-street; thence southward along the centre of that street to the south end thereof; thence southward in a direct line to the north east corner of the Mansion-house of Castlehead; thence in a direct line southward to the point where the parliamentary line intersects the Espedair-burn near Haircraigs; thence along the parliamentary boundary westward, northward, and eastward, to the point first described.

Second Ward.

All within a line drawn from a point in Greenhill-road opposite to the centre of the north end of Lownells-street, along the middle of the Greenhill-road, Underwood-street, and Saint James-street, to a point opposite the centre of the street called Stony-brae; thence by the centre of Stony-brae till it joins Oakshaw-street; thence along the centre of the road leading round the High Church-wall to the Churchhill; thence along the centre of Churchhill to New-street; thence along the centre of New-street to a point opposite the centre of Shuttle-street; thence along the centre of that street to George's-place; thence along the centre of the street in George's-place, by the west and south of George's-church, to a point in George's-street opposite the north end of Wardrop-street; thence along the centre of that street to Canal-street; thence along the centre of that street to a point opposite the centre of the road leading to Canal-basin; thence along the centre of that road to the canal; thence along the centre of the canal westward to the east boundary of the first ward; thence northward along the said boundary to the point first described.

Third Ward.

All within a line drawn from the point where the burn, called St. Mirrens burn, enters the River Cart, up the centre of the River Cart until it reaches the extremity of the parliamentary boundary of the burgh at or near the junction of the Hawkhead-lade with the River Cart; thence along the parliamentary line until it reaches the intersection of the Espedair-burn at or near Haircraigs; thence along the east boundary of ward first till it reaches the canal; thence along the centre of the canal till it reaches the street leading from Canal-street to the Canal-basin; thence along that street till it reaches Canal-street; thence eastward along Canal-street to the bottom of Wardrop-street; thence along Wardrop-street to a point in George-street, at the north end of Wardrop-street; thence by the south- and west sides of George's-church to a point at the north end of the church, opposite the south end of Shuttle-street; thence along Shuttle-street to the centre of New-street; thence by the centre of New-street till it reaches the centre of Causeyside; and from thence down Causeyside until it reaches the said burn, called St. Mirrens-burn; and thence along the burn to the point first described.

Fourth Ward.

All within the parliamentary boundary to the west of the centre of the River Cart, which is not included in any of the preceding wards.

Fifth Ward.

All within the parliamentary boundary of the burgh, situated on the east of the centre of the said River Cart.

That the number of councillors to be chosen in each ward at the first election in November next shall be three in each of the first, second, third, and fifth wards, and four in the fourth ward.

That the number of such councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be five—one being chosen in each of the five wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, shall likewise be five—one being chosen in each of the five wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six shall be six—one councillor being chosen in each of the first, second, third, and fifth wards, and two in the fourth ward.

And the members of the council of the said burgh or town shall in all future terms of three years after November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six be elected in the same manner as is above appointed, for the period from November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four to November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive.

II.—THE BURGH OR TOWN OF GREENOCK.

That this burgh or town shall be divided into five wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

That part of the burgh comprehended within a line commencing at the point where Ladyburn joins the River Clyde, and running westward along the margin of the said river to the point where Cartsburn joins the Clyde; thence up the said burn till it is crossed by Rue-end-street; thence along the centre of the said street till the same joins Cathcart-street; thence along the centre of the said street to the foot of Bank-street; thence along the centre of the said street to its southern extremity; thence in a straight line to the Parliamentary boundary at the Upper East Reservoir; and from thence eastward and northward along the Parliamentary boundary to the point first described.

Second Ward.

That part of the burgh comprehended within a line commencing at the point where Cartsburn joins the Clyde; thence up the said burn to the point where it is crossed by Rue-end-street; thence through the centre of Rue-end and Cathcart-streets to the centre of Cathcart-square; thence to the head of William-street; thence along the centre of said street to the Mid-quay; thence along the said Mid-quay to the Clyde; and thence south eastward along the margin of said river to the point first described.

Third Ward.

That part of the burgh comprehended within a line commencing at the north east extremity of the Mid-quay, and running along the said quay to the foot of William-street; thence along the centre of the said street to the centre of Cathcart-square; thence along the said square to Hamilton-street; thence along the centre of Hamilton-street to Sugar-house-lane; thence down the said lane to the point where Crawford-street crosses the West burn; thence down said burn to where it enters the Clyde; thence along the margin of the said river to the extremity of the Mid-quay, being the point first described.

Fourth Ward.

That part of the burgh comprehended within a line commencing at the centre of Cathcart-square; thence proceeding to Hamilton-street, and along said street to the point where it joins Sugar-house-lane; thence southward along the centre of said lane; thence along the centre of Sir Michael-street to Roxburgh-street; thence along the centre of said street in a straight line to the West burn; thence up the West burn to the parliamentary boundary; thence along said boundary to the Upper East Reservoir; thence along the west boundary of ward first to the point first described.

Fifth Ward.

All the remaining parts of the burgh.

That the number of councillors to be chosen in each ward at the first election in November next, shall be three in each of the first, second, third, and fourth wards, and four in the fifth ward.

That the number of such councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be five—one being chosen in each of the five wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five shall likewise be five—one being chosen in each of the five wards.

That the number of councillors to be elected in November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six shall be six—one councillor being chosen in each of the first, second, third, and fourth wards, and two in the fifth ward.

And the members of the council of the said burgh or town shall, in all future terms of three years after November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, be elected in the same manner as is above appointed for the period from November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four to November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive.

III.—THE BURGH OR TOWN OF LEITH.

That this burgh or town shall be divided into five wards, limited and bounded as follows:—

First Ward.

Bounded on the north east by the sea, on the south by the road in front of Seafeld-baths and Claremont-park to the Restalrig-road, and to the road in front of James' place, Charlotte-street, to Water-lane; and on the west by Water-lane to Bernard-street, by Bernard-street to the shore and the harbour to Leith-pier.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Bedford.

Bedfordshire Regiment of Militia.

Frederick Polhill, Gent. to be Lieutenant. Dated 10th October 1833.

Whitehall, October 19, 1833.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto James Douglas Stoddart, of Chilston-park, in the county of Kent, Esq. and unto Margaret his wife, His royal licence and authority that they may, in order to evince their respect for the memory of George Douglas, late of Chilston-park aforesaid, and of Baads, in the shire of Edinburgh, Esq. the kinsman of the said James Douglas Stoddart, henceforth assume and use the surname of Douglas, in addition to and after their present surname of Stoddart; and that the said James Douglas Stoddart may also bear the arms of Douglas; and that the said surname and arms of Douglas may in like manner be taken, used, and borne by the issue of their marriage; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Majesty has been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 22, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about seven o'clock in the evening of Tuesday the 15th day of October instant, Mr. James Wilkinson, of Copley-mills, in Stayley, in the parish of Mottram in Longdendale, in the county of Chester, Cotton-spinner, while proceeding from his dwelling-house, near Copley-mills aforesaid, to his cotton-mill, distant about four hundred yards, was maliciously and feloniously fired at with a gun or pistol, loaded with ball, by some evil-disposed person unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired at Mr. Wilkinson) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FOUR HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to Mr. John Gatlley, Deputy Constable of Stayley-bridge.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to the directions of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fortieth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the commons and waste grounds in the parishes of East Poringland, West Poringland, Framingham Earl, Framingham Pigot, Bixley, Armeringhall, Stoke, Holy Cross, and Caister Saint Edmund, in the county of Norfolk; and for making a compensation for the tythes arising in the said parishes of East Poringland, Framingham Earl, and Bixley;" that at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in and for the county of Norfolk, at the Castle of Norwich, in the Shire-house there, on the 1st day of January now next ensuing, application is intended to be made by and on the behalf of the Honourable Francis Ward Primrose, one of the owners and proprietors of lands and tenements situate in the said parish of Framingham Earl, to His Majesty's Justices of the Peace then and there to be assembled, to have three persons named and appointed by the said Justices to be arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Norfolk for fourteen years now last past, according to the directions of the said Act, and for the purposes therein mentioned.

Chapman and Hansell, Solicitors of the said Francis Ward Primrose.

Norwich, October 18, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to the directions of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fortieth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the commons and waste grounds in the parishes of East Poringland, West Poringland, Framingham Earl, Framingham Pigot, Bixley, Armeringhall, Stoke, Holy Cross, and Caister Saint Edmund, in the county of Norfolk; and for making a compensation for the tythes arising in the said parishes of East Poringland, Framingham Earl, and Bixley;" that at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in and for the county of Norfolk, at the Castle of Norwich, in the Shire-house there, on the 1st day of January now next ensuing, application is intended to be made by and on the behalf of the Honourable Francis Ward Primrose, one of the owners and proprietors of lands and tenements situate in the said parish of Bixley, to His Majesty's Justices of the Peace then and there to be assembled, to have three persons named and appointed by the said Justices to be arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Norfolk, for fourteen years now last past, according to the directions of the said Act, and for the purposes therein mentioned.

Chapman and Hansell, Solicitors of the said Francis Ward Primrose.

Norwich, October 18, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate a joint stock company, by the name of "the South London Market Company," and to empower the said Company to erect a new and extensive market-place, shops, slaughter-houses, abattoirs, stables, stalls, lofts, granaries, sheds, houses, pens, out-houses, beast-houses, and such other buildings adapted for the like purpose, upon the site of and adjacent to the old buildings and slaughter-houses commonly called or known as Saint George's-market, in the parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, in the county of Surrey; and to purchase, take down, alter, vary, or improve any of the present buildings, or any part thereof; and to purchase, either by contract or the inquisition of a jury, certain houses, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, rights of way, paths, passages, and other premises, in the said parish, for the above purposes, and to take effectual conveyances thereof from corporations and incapacitated as well as capacitated persons, trustees, and others; and to make, dig, lay, sink, and erect all necessary vaults, cellars, reservoirs, engines, pumps, drains, pipes, culverts, and watercourses, and to complete the drainage therefrom; and to make necessary and convenient roads, avenues, and approaches to, from, and through the said lands, market, buildings, hereditaments, and premises, and to contract for the making and completion of the said several works; and also to establish and enable the said Company to hold a market upon the said premises for the sale of every species of meat, poultry, fruit, vegetables, fish, and all other provisions; as also hay, straw, meal, malt, hops, corn, and all other descriptions of grain and forage; plants, flowers, flower roots, seeds, and all other marketable commodities, or such of them as the said Company, or their Directors or Managers for the time being, shall direct; and to authorise the slaughtering and dressing of cattle, beasts, sheep, and swine; and also to enable the said Company to raise an addition to its capital by way of mortgage; and to set and let for hire, and to sell and dispose of, any part or parts of the said market and other buildings and premises; and to make and alter bye laws and regulations for the government and regulation of the said Company and of the said market and premises, and the persons using the same; and to fix, levy, and impose certain rates, tolls and stallages, duties and assessments, upon or in respect of the goods and commodities brought or exposed for sale, and stock sent for rest, shelter, or slaughter in the said market and premises, or otherwise for or in respect of the use or occupation thereof; and to set and let the said rates, tolls, stallages, duties, and assessments; and to impose certain penalties for offences against the said bye laws and regulations; and to confer all other needful and necessary powers, privileges, and provisions whatsoever for effecting the object aforesaid and for the purposes aforesaid; to repeal such part of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to enable the churchwardens, overseers, and inhabitants of the parish of Saint Saviour, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, to hold a market within the said parish, not interfering with the High-street in the said borough," as prohibit or might prevent, or might subject to any penalties, or are inconsistent with the erection or holding of the said market intended to be established, or any other of the purposes intended to be effected as aforesaid; and so much of the powers and provisions of three subsequent Acts, as may in any way be construed to create, confirm, or relate to the said prohibition or penalties in respect of the erecting or holding the said market intended to be established, or any other of the aforesaid purposes; the first of the three last-mentioned Acts being passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to enable the churchwardens, overseers, and inhabitants of the parish of Saint Saviour, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, to hold a market within the said parish, not interfering with the High street in the said borough,'" the second thereof being passed in the fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to alter and amend two several Acts, passed in the twenty-eighth and thirtieth years of His Majesty King George the Second, for the purpose of enabling the churchwardens, overseers, and inhabitants of the parish of Saint Saviour, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, to hold a market within the said parish;" and the third that passed in the tenth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of several Acts passed for holding a market in the parish of Saint Saviour, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and for granting more effectual provisions for that purpose."—Dated the 21st day of October 1833.

By Authority of Parliament,
THOMAS NETTLESHIPP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

Tenterden Savings' Bank.

Tenterden, October 21, 1833.

ANY person having a claim on the funds of the Tenterden Savings' Bank must apply to Mr. William Birch, the Actuary, on or before the 20th day of November next, or they will be excluded all benefit arising therefrom.

By order of the Trustees,
W. Birch, Actuary.

Proof House Hall, Birmingham,
October 22, 1833.

AT a meeting of the Guardians, Trustees, and Wardens, held this day, it was resolved that the following bye-laws for the regulation of the Gun Trade, and for the better detecting of impositions and frauds on the public, should be adopted from and after Friday the 1st day of November next.

1.—No barrels shall be received for proof without a note of the number of barrels sent for proof, from the person sending them.

2.—All saddle pistol barrels, called ladies' pistols, shall be marked after proof, with the proof mark number one, and all other saddle pistol barrels, and short holster pistol barrels, four inches and under, being of half inch bore and under, shall be marked after proof, with the proof mark number two.

3.—All holster pistol barrels of every description, except the foregoing, and all double barrels of every description, shall be marked after proof, with the proof mark number three.

4.—All birding barrels, single gun barrels, carbine barrels of every description, and all French bore musket barrels, shall be marked after proof, with the proof mark number four.

5.—All musket barrels, except French bore, and all Newfoundland barrels, shall be marked after proof, with the proof mark number five.

6.—All fen, and other large barrels, shall be marked after proof, with the proof mark number six.

7.—That the sums to be for proving barrels, shall,

as heretofore, be according to the following scale:—
that is to say,

For every common birding, Spanish, Dutch, Carolina, musket, carbine, or other barrel not being made of twisted iron, nor above the calibre of six-eighths and a half, the sum of four pence halfpenny for each and every barrel.

For every pair of plain iron or brass holster or saddle pistol barrels, the sum of six pence for each pair.

For every gun barrel made of twisted iron, the sum of eight pence for each and every barrel.

For every pair of twisted pistol barrels, the sum of eight pence for each pair.

For every barrel above the calibre of six-eighths and a half, the sum of one shilling for each and every barrel.

8.—All barrels that receive injury in proving, must be repaired and re-proved, before the Inspector shall mark them with the proof marks.

9.—All best barrels received in time for proof before nine o'clock in the morning, will be ready for delivery in the afternoon, and all best barrels received in time for proof in the afternoon, will be ready for delivery the following morning, and all common barrels must remain twenty-four hours after proof, previous to their being viewed.

10.—All barrels proved must be removed within three months after their receipt, or they will be sold to defray the expenses of proof.

11.—The Proof House shall be open for the reception of barrels for proof, from the 17th day of February to the 1st day of November, both inclusive, in the morning from six o'clock till nine, and from ten till one, and in the evening from two till six; and from the 2d day of November to the 16th day of February, both inclusive, in the morning from a quarter before eight o'clock till one, and in the evening from two till four.

By order of the Guardians, Trustees, and Wardens of the Gun Barrel Proof House of the town of Birmingham.

John B. McMichael, Secretary.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

In Re POWELL, deceased.

ALL persons having any claim or demand on the estate of William Henry Powell, late of Smallbrook-Street, Birmingham, Painter, deceased, are requested immediately to leave the same, with particulars of security (if any) at my Office, Baskerville-house. And all persons indebted to the said estate, or that have any of his effects, are forewarned from paying or delivering the same to John Rodway, of Birmingham aforesaid, Auctioneer, or to any other person whomsoever other than to me as aforesaid.—Birmingham, October 23d, 1833.

By order of the Administratrix,
SAM. LOWE, Solicitor.

BRIG ANN, of BARMOUTH, JOHN LEWIS, late Master.

THIS is to give notice, that about fifty sixty-fourths of the said vessel having been sold the late owners have to request that all persons having any claim on the said vessel previous to the 21st of May last will send in their accounts of such claim or claims on or before the 5th of November next to Mr. W. Hickman, Rutland-Place, Upper Thames-Street, London, after which time no claims whatever will be received.—Dated London, October 22d, 1833.

WHEREAS by an Order of the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, made in the matter of Sarah Westerman, a lunatic, whereby it was, amongst other things, referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and certify who was or were the Heir at Law and Next of Kin of the said Sarah Westerman, who is the Widow of Richard Westerman, late of Doncaster, in the County of York, Esq. a Major in His Majesty's 35th Regiment of Foot, and before her marriage was Sarah Pennington, one of the children of Joseph Pennington, by Mary his wife, formerly of Hulton, in the County of York, Besom-Maker; claims have been carried in before the said Master, on behalf of John Pennington, nephew of the said lunatic, as her heir at law; and also on behalf of William Pennington and Susanna Ambler, the surviving children of Joseph Pennington, the father of the said lunatic; and the said John Pennington and Joseph Pennington, the children of John Pennington, the deceased brother of the said lunatic; and Mary Pennington, the daughter of Joseph Pennington, another deceased brother of the said lunatic; and Sarah Dawson, Thomas Macniece, Nancy Macniece, and Hannah Macniece, the surviving children of Mary Macniece, formerly Mary Pennington, by Thomas Macniece; and of Hannah Pearson and John Pearson, the surviving children of Elizabeth Pearson, formerly Elizabeth Pennington, by John Pearson her husband, as the only next of kin of the said lunatic;—notice is hereby given, that any other person or persons claiming to be heir at law or next of kin of the said Sarah Westerman, are, on or before the 22d day of November 1833, to come in before the said Master and make out his, her, or their claims, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Fowle against Hunt, the Creditors of John Adams, of Princess-Place, in the Parish of Saint George, Westminster, Gentleman, deceased (who died on or about the 8th day of March 1832), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Fowle against Hunt, all persons claiming to be the Next of Kin of John Adams, of Princess-Place, in the Parish of Saint George, Westminster, living at the time of his death (which happened on or about the 8th day of March 1832), or to be the legal personal representatives of any of such Next of Kin who have since died, are forthwith to come in and prove their kindred and make out their claims before the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Henry Sephton, of Halsall, in the County of Lancaster, Yeoman, by an indenture of assignment, bearing date the 26th day of August 1833, assigned all his estate and effects to James Parke, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Cowkeeper, and Evan Mawdsley, of the same place, Cowkeeper, in trust, for the benefit of themselves and all other of the Creditors of the said Henry Sephton who should execute the said indenture of assignment within three calendar months from the date thereof; which indenture was executed by the said Henry Sephton, and James Parke, on the 26th day of August last past, in the presence of Matthias Edge, of Ormskirk, in the County of Lancaster, Attorney at Law; and by the said Evan Mawdsley on the said 26th day of August, in the presence of William Edge, of Ormskirk aforesaid, Clerk to the said Matthias Edge. Notice is also hereby given, that the said indenture of assignment is lodged at the Office of the said Mr. Matthias Edge, in Ormskirk aforesaid, for the inspection and execution of the Creditors of the said Henry Sephton, and such of them as shall neglect or refuse to execute the same within the time above limited will be excluded from all benefit arising from the said trust-deed.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Abram Atkins, of Finsbury-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 15th day of November next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, at such price, and upon such terms and conditions as they shall think fit, a debt of £2475. 19s. 3d. due to the Bankrupt's estate, for which a judgment has been long since obtained against persons resident in Jamaica, the particulars thereof, and of the sum expected to be received on the sale, will be stated to the meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Bolton, of Preston, in the County of Lancaster, Coal-Merchant, Corn-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 18th of November next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of John P. Walker, Solicitor, Lord-Street, Preston aforesaid, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the Assignees commencing, prosecuting or defending any action or suit, or actions or suits, at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's freehold or personal estate fraudulently mortgaged, conveyed, or removed, prior or subsequent to his Bankruptcy, to or by certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, or otherwise, belonging to the said Assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, at such prices, and on such terms and conditions, for money or on credit, and upon such security as they may think fit, of all and singular the remaining part of the stock in trade, and a vessel called the John, of the said Bankrupt; or otherwise to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees letting out to him or working the said vessel for the benefit and at the risk of the said Bankrupt's estate, and also to ratify and confirm the sale by the Assignees of certain vessels and leasehold property by private contract; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting any other action or suit, or actions or suits, or taking any other proceedings which they may think proper, at law or in equity, against certain executors to compel them to account for the moneys and property belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate, and also for sanctioning all and whatsoever the said Assignees have already done in and touching the said Bankrupt's estate; and to empower the said Assignees at their discretion to compound, submit to arbitration, or otherwise settle any of the matters aforesaid, and to take any reasonable part of the said debts in discharge of the whole, or to give time, or take security, for payment thereof; and to authorise the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate generally and in such manner as they may think most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Archdale Palmer and William Bouch, of Lawrence-Lane, in the City of London, Wholesale Drapers, Dealers, Chapman, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Friday the 15th day of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling to Mr Thomas Jackson for £1100. in cash and £300. in such bills as the said Assignees may think it advisable to accept, the debt of the said Thomas Jackson of £2824. 15s. 10d. and interest from the 1st day of March last, secured to the said Assignees by a mortgage of the said Thomas Jackson's leasehold estates, situate in Liverpool-Street and Chichester-Place, Battle-Bridge, or upon such other terms as shall be agreed upon at the meeting.
