AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of October 1833,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the thirty-first day of October instant, be further prorogued to Thursday the twelfth day of December next: and the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain is to cause a Commission to be prepared and issued, in the usual manner, for proroguing the Parliament accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of October 1833,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of lastage and ballastage in the River Thames; and for enabling the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation; and for other purposes connected therewith;" the said Corporation are authorised and empowered from time to time, and at any time or times thereafter, upon the requisition or with the consent of His Majesty, his heirs and successors, in his or their Most Honourable Privy Council, to reduce, relinquish, abolish, alter, or modify all or any or either of the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls imposed or granted by the several grants, charters, or Acts of Parliament therein recited, or any of them; or collected, taken, levied, and received under the authority thereof respectively; or by ancient usage, custom, or prescription, or any part or parts thereof, so far as may be consistent with the charitable and other uses, purposes, and intents for which the said Corporation has been established and maintained; and are further authorised at any time or times thereafter to revive and re-establish any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been relinquished or abolished; or to increase or otherwise alter or modify any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been reduced, altered, or modified under the authority of the said Act; and so from time to time to relinquish or abolish, and revive or re-establish, and reduce or increase, alter or modify, all or any of such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, as occasion may require; so as, nevertheless, that no such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls shall at any time be increased beyond the amount which might be collected, taken, levied, or received in respect thereof before the passing of that Act; provided always, that no such relinquishment, abolition, reduction, alteration, or modification, or subsequent revival, re-establishment, increase, alteration, or modification of any such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, or any or either of them, or any part or parts, shall at any time be deemed valid or take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the said Corporation to, and shall have been assented to and confirmed by, His Majesty, his heirs or successors, in his or their Most Honourable Privy Council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing unto the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants; and it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to fix and determine the period (so that the same do not exceed three calendar months from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation as aforesaid) from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so relinquished or abolished shall be discontinued and no longer taken, collected, levied, or received; or from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so revived or re-established, reduced, increased, altered, or modified respectively as aforesaid, shall and may be collected, received, levied, or taken:

And whereas the said Corporation of Trinity-house have proposed to alter and reduce certain rates now collected by them, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, for ballast supplied to vessels in the West India Dock, and have proposed that the same rate of charge be established for ballast delivered in any part of the West India Dock, as is paid for ballast delivered in the London Docks; His Majesty, in virtue of the powers vested in him by the above-recited Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased hereby to signify His Royal assent to and confirmation of the said proposed reduction of the rate of charge for ballast delivered in any part of the West India Dock, to the same rate as is paid for ballast delivered in the London Docks.

Foreign-Office, October 29, 1833.

The King has been graciously pleased to appoint John Macpherson Grant, Esq. (sometime attached to His Majesty's Legation at Madrid) to be Secretary to His Majesty's Legation at the Court of Her Most Faithful Majesty.

Foreign-Office, October 29, 1833.

The King has been graciously pleased to approve of Mr. Thomas Harling, jun. as Consul at Cowes for the Grand Duke of Mecklenburgh Schewrin.

Whitehall, October, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that divers riotous and evil-disposed persons, on Thursday the 24th day of October, at the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, riotously and tumultuously assembled themselves together to disturb the public peace, and then and there unlawfully and riotously rescued divers goods and chattels there lawfully distrained for certain assessed taxes then due and in arrear, and at the time of such rescue in the lawful custody of the officer of the Sheriff distraining the same;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons engaged in the said offence, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who personally were engaged in the said rescue) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, October 29, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 15th day of October instant, or early on the following morning, some evil-disposed person or persons feloniously broke open the dwelling-house of Mr. Scott, the bailiff of the Right Honourable Lord Montagu, at Ditton-park, Bucks, situated within the moat, and attempted in two different places to set it on fire, by means of a quantity of gunpowder taken from a tin box, found in one of the rooms;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who attempted to set fire to the house) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to Mr. Scott.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about seven o'clock in the evening of Tuesday the 15th day of October instant, Mr. James Wilkinson, of Copley-mills, in Stayley, in the parish of Mottram in Longdendale, in the county of Chester, Cotton-spinner, while proceeding from his dwelling-house, near Copley-mills aforesaid, to his cotton-mill, distant about four hundred yards, was maliciously and feloniously fired at with a gun or pistol, loaded with ball, by some evil-disposed person unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired at Mr. Wilkinson) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FOUR HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he,

she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to Mr. John Gatley, Deputy Constable of Stayley-bridge.

Admiralty, October 28, 1833.

THE Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby give notice, that a Ball will henceforward be dropped, every day, from the top of a pole on the eastern turret of the Royal Observatory at Greenwich, at the moment of One o'clock P. M. mean solar time. By observing the first instant of its downward movement, all vessels in the adjacent Reaches of the River, as well as in most of the Docks, will thereby have an opportunity of regulating and rating their chronometers.

The Ball will be hoisted half way up the pole, at five minutes before One o'clock, as a preparatory signal, and close up, at two minutes before One.

By command of their Lordships,

John Barrow.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, explain, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for paving, lighting, watching, repairing, and otherwise improving Grosvenor-place, and several streets, squares, lanes, and other public places now existing, and which shall hereafter be formed, upon certain grounds in the several parishes of Saint George, Hanover-square, and Saint Luke, Chelsea, in the county of Middlesex."

Wm. Jenkins, No. 5, Barnard's-inn, and No. 25, Coleshill-street, Pimlico, Agent for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate a joint stock company, by the name of "the South London Market Company," and to empower the said Company to erect a new and extensive market-place, shops, slaughter-houses, abattoirs, stables, stalls, lofts, granaries, sheds, houses, pens, out-houses, beast-houses, and such other buildings adapted for the like purpose, upon the scite of and adjacent to the old buildings and slaughter-houses commonly called or known as Saint George's-market, in the parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, in the county of Surrey; and to purchase, take down, alter, vary, or improve any of the present buildings, or any part thereof; and to purchase, either by contract or the inquisition of a jury, certain houses, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, rights of way, paths, passages, and other premises, in the said parish, for the above purposes, and to take effectual conveyances thereof from corporations and incapacitated as well as incapacitated persons, trustees, and others; and to make, dig, lay, sink, and erect all necessary vaults, cellars, reservoirs, engines, pumps, drains, pipes, culverts, and watercourses, and to complete the drainage therefrom; and to make necessary and convenient roads, avenues, and approaches to, from, and through the said lands, market, buildings, hereditaments, and premises, and to contract for the making and completion of the said several works; and also to establish and enable the said Company to hold a market upon the said premises for the sale of every species of meat, poultry, fruit, vegetables, fish, and all other provisions; as also hay, straw, meal, malt, hops, corn, and all other descriptions of grain and forage; plants, flowers, flower roots, seeds, and all other marketable commodities, or such of them as the said Company, or their Directors or Managers for the time being, shall direct; and to authorise the slaughtering and dressing of cattle, beasts, sheep, and swine; and also to enable the said Company to raise an addition to its capital by way of mortgage; and to set and let for hire, and to sell and dispose of, any part or parts of the said market and other buildings and premises; and to make and alter bye laws and regulations for the government and regulation of the said Company and of the said market and premises, and the persons using the same; and to fix, levy, and impose certain rates, tolls and stallages, duties and assessments, upon or in respect of the goods and commodities brought or exposed for sale, and stock sent for rest, shelter, or slaughter in the said market and premises, or otherwise for or in respect of the use or occupation thereof; and to set and let the said rates, tolls, stallages, duties, and assessments; and to impose certain penalties for offences against the said bye laws and regulations; and to confer all other needful and necessary powers, privileges, and provisions whatsoever for effecting the object aforesaid and for the purposes aforesaid; to repeal such part of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to enable the churchwardens, overseers, and inhabitants of the parish of Saint Saviour, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, to hold a market within the said parish, not interfering with the High-street in the said borough," as prohibit or might prevent, or might subject to any penalties, or are inconsistent with the erection or holding of the said market intended to be established, or any other of the purposes intended to be effected as aforesaid; and so much of the powers and provisions of three subsequent Acts, as may in any way be construed to create, confirm, or relate to the said prohibition or penalties in respect of the erecting or holding the said market intended to be established, or any other of the aforesaid purposes; the first of the three last-mentioned Acts being passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to enable the churchwardens, overseers, and inhabitants of the parish of Saint Saviour, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, to hold a market within the said parish, not interfering with the High-street in the said borough;'"

the second thereof being passed in the fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to alter and amend two several Acts, passed in the twenty-eighth and thirtieth years of His Majesty King George the Second, for the purpose of enabling the churchwardens, overseers, and inhabitants of the parish of Saint Saviour, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, to hold a market within the said parish;" and the third that passed in the tenth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of several Acts passed for holding a market in the parish of Saint Saviour, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and for granting more effectual provisions for that purpose."—Dated the 21st day of October 1833.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Bonfil against Purchas, the Creditors of Philip Western Wood, late of No. 19, Russell-Square, in the County of Middlesex, and of Chiswick, in the same County, Esq. deceased (who died on or about the 3d day of May 1832), are, on or before the 26th day of November 1833, to come in and prove their debts before the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, by Mr. Nicholson, (free from auction duty) at the House of Mr. Brown, the Rodes's Arms Inn, in Bailborough, in the County of Derby, on Thursday the 7th day of November next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, by order of the acting Commissioners in a Fiat in Bankruptcy against Benjamin Shaw;

The valuable freehold and copyhold estates, late of the said Bankrupt, situate at Clown, in the said County (either together or in such lots as shall be agreed upon at the time of sale, and subject to conditions to be then produced), consisting of a piece of copyhold land, containing 20 perches, or thereabouts, in the occupation of the Assignees of the said Bankrupt, with one sitting in the Parish Church of Clown aforesaid; also three freehold messuages, with the outbuildings, gardens, and appurtenances thereto belonging, in the several occupations of William Eadson, William Forrest, and William Cooke; also a close of freehold land, called Dove-note Ford Close, containing 4 acres (more or less), and a close of copyhold land, called Brook-Close, or Rock Wise Close, containing 3 acres (more or less), both closes being in the occupation of the said Assignees; and two copyhold messuages, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, in the several occupations of John Wigley and John Hewitt.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Forrest, of Barlborough aforesaid, one of the Assignees; or to Mr. Clarke, Solicitor, Chesterfield, Derbyshire.

BEDFORDSHIRE.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Joseph Swannell, of Radwell, in the Parish of Felmersham, in the County of Bedford, Farmer, Cattle and Sheep Salesman, Dealer and Chapman, at the Swan Inn, in Bedford, in the said County, between the hours of Three and Four o'Clock in the Afternoon of Saturday the 30th day of November 1833, subject to the conditions then and there to be produced;

One undivided moiety of the valuable freehold estate of Radwell, in the Parish of Felmersham, in the County of Bedford. The estate is tithe free, containing about one hundred and forty acres of very excellent arable and pasture land, in a high state of cultivation. It is centrally situated for the markets of Bedford, Wellyingborough, and Saint Neots,—is well watered and fenced,—is in the immediate neighbourhood of Oakley Hunt, and surrounded by a fine sporting country. The parochial and other rates are very low. The land-tax is redeemed.

The tenant will shew the premises; and for further particulars enquire of Mr. Shorman, Solicitor, Bedford; or Messrs. Meggison, Pringle, and Manisty, Solicitors, No. 3, King's-Road, Bedford-Row, London, where a plan of the estate may be seen.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Sarah Jane Kenaedy, Widow, and sole Executrix acting under probate granted to her of the last will and testament of Alexander Kennedy, late of Canterbury, Draper, deceased, by the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, hath by indenture of assignment, dated the 11th October instant, assigned the whole of the estate and effects of the said Alexander Kennedy to us the undersigned, in trust, for the equal benefit of the Creditors of the estate of the said Alexander Kennedy; and all Creditors or persons having claims upon the said estate are requested to forward the same to No. 2, Lad-Lane, London, and to execute the said deed of assignment within three months from the date thereof, or in default they will be excluded all benefit of the said assignment; and all persons indebted to the said Alexander Kennedy, are hereby requested to pay to us or whomsoever we shall appoint.

—October 28, 1833.

JOHN COOPER, London.
THOMAS ANDERSON, Huddersfield.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Richard Neville, late of Colchester, in the County of Essex, Attorney at Law, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 26th day of November next, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, at the Red Lion Inn, in Colchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee and James Maskell, of Great Clacton, in the said County of Essex, Farmer, the substitute Assignee appointed by an order of his Honour the late Vice-Chancellor, Sir John Leach, to prosecute the said Commission, allowing to the several purchasers of the messuages, lands, cottages, stables, and hereditaments, situate in the Borough of Colchester, in the said County of Essex, and other the freehold estates of the said Bankrupt, such sum or sums of money, by way of compensation for defect of title, in consequence of the said Assignee and the said James Maskell, the substitute Assignee, being unable to make a marketable title to the said freehold estates belonging to the said Bankrupt satisfactory to the several purchasers thereof; and to adopt such measures as he, the said substituted Assignee, shall deem expedient for effectually completing the said several sales; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Fisher and John Barnard, of the City of Bristol, Horse-Dealers, Dealers in Horses on Commission, Dealers, Chapman, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 21st day of November next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Offices of Messrs. Bevan and Brittan, Solicitors, Small-Street, in the City of Bristol, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, of the said Bankrupts' household furniture, goods, chattels, and all other their personal estate, debts, and effects, whether joint or separate, for such price or prices, for ready money, or on credit, upon such security as they shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee employing an accountant, or some other fit and proper person, to collect and get in the debts belonging to the joint and separate estates of the said Bankrupts, and to arrange and settle the books and accounts of the said Bankrupts; and to the said Assignee making such remuneration to such person or persons so to be employed as aforesaid as he shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee compounding with any debtor or debtors to the said Bankrupts' joint or separate estate, by taking part in full for the whole of any such debt or debts, and to allow time for the payment thereof as the said Assignee shall think proper; and generally to the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, or preferring, opposing, or answering any petition or petitions to the Lord High Chancellor, or to His Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, for the recovery of the said Bankrupts' joint and separate estate and effects; and to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise referring or agreeing any matter, cause, or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Fuller the elder, Thomas Fuller the younger, and William Fuller, all of Lewes, and also of Brighton, in the County of Sussex, Carriers, Leather-Cutters, Copartners, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Wednesday the 20th day of November next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Bear Inn, in Lewes, in the said County of Sussex, in order to take into consideration and to determine what course should be adopted with respect to the mortgage for £6000. residue of the principal sum of £7000. and interest made to William Fuller (being one of the Assignees of the said Bankrupts), by certain indentures of lease and appointment and release, bearing date respectively on or about the 25th and 26th days of July 1826, and whether it will be beneficial to the estate of the said Bankrupts that the equity of redemption of the messuages, tenements, lands, and hereditaments, comprised in the said indentures of lease and appointment and release, and thereby appointed, released, and covenanted to be surrendered respectively, and still remaining charged with the payment of the said sum of £6000. and interest shall on any and what terms be released, abandoned, and relinquished to the said last named William Fuller; and upon other special matters.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt bearing date the 5th day of February 1822, awarded and issued forth against Robert Rymill Judd and Benjamin Smart Fowler, of Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, Dealers, Chapman and Copartners, are requested to meet on the 20th day of November next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at Dec's Royal Hotel, in Temple-Row, Birmingham aforesaid, in order to choose an Assignee or Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate in the room of one Assignee who is dead, and of the other who is become Bankrupt, when and where the Creditors who have not already proved their debts are to come prepared to prove the same.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Cooper, of Brighton, in the County of Sussex, Hotel-Keeper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 9th day of November next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Office of S. W. Bennett, Esq. Solicitor, Brighton, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees conveying and assigning to Mrs. Eliza Chandler, the equity of redemption and all other the right, title, and interest of the said Bankrupt and his Assignees in the freehold and leasehold hereditaments and premises in Regent-Place and Marlborough-Street, Brighton, subject to two several mortgages for the sum of three thousand pounds and two thousand pounds, and the building materials on the premises, in consideration of her covenanting to indemnify the estate of the said Bankrupt from the proof of the said two several mortgage debts, and withdrawing the proof of debt already made by her under the said Fiat, the said Eliza Chandler to be entitled to the rents and profits of the said hereditaments and premises from Michaelmas-day last, the arrear of interest and all other outgoings, except the interest on the mortgage for one thousand pounds, being cleared by the said Assignees to that day.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 25th day of October 1833, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by WILLIAM RADCLIFFE, of Whitfield, near Glossop, in the County of Derby, Cotton-Spinner, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Henry Davis, of the City of Bristol, Scrivener, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Fiat named, or the major part of them, on the 8th and 9th days of November next, and on the 10th of December following, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon on each day, at the Commercial-Rooms, in Corn-Street, in the said City, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the second sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give notice to Messrs. Poole and Gamlen, 3, Gray's-Inn-Square, London, or to Messrs. Andrew and James Livett, Solicitors, Broad-Street, Bristol.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Hannah Plant, of Congleton, in the County of Chester, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, and she being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender herself to the Commissioners in the said Fiat named, or the major part of them, on the 11th day of November next, and on the 10th day of December following, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely on each day, at the Commissioners' Rooms, in St. James-Square, in Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, and make a full discovery and disclosure of her estate and effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish her examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of her certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of her effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give notice to Mr. Monk, Solicitor, King-Street, Manchester.
